

Theater Group Schedules Party, Nominates Student Executive Board

Plans for the annual University Theater party were discussed and committees selected at a meeting of the Theater Executive Board, held Jan. 12 in the theater Green Room. Nominations for next season's Student Executive Board were also made.

The party, open to all University students interested in the theater, will be held Friday evening, Jan. 27. The theme has yet to be chosen but the affair is expected to be of the costume ball variety.

Students selected to organizing committees were:

Larry Barsness, Joan Landman, accommodations; Gordon Ericksen, Grace Hoffman, refreshments; Norman Weekly, Louise Clouston, theme; Don Smith, Pat White, decorations; Pat Boyle, Elmarie Wendell, entertainment; and Ken Olsen, Phil Heppner, Carol Udy, Janice Hughes, Marilyn Staael, and George Dorris, publicity and invitations.

Horace W. Robinson is general chairman and William E. Schlosser will head the clean-up committee, members of which are yet to be chosen.

Additional nominees to the Executive Board and the election will be one feature of the Theater party.

Two students from each class will be elected to the Board.
