

Mu Phi Epsilon Concert Scheduled for Sunday In Library Browsing Room

The first Music Hour in a series to be sponsored during winter term by patronesses and alumnae of Mu Phi Epsilon, national music honorary, and by the University Library, will be given at 4 p.m., Sunday in the Library's Browsing Room.

Both recorded and instrumental music will be featured during the concerts to be presented every Sunday afternoon.

Students, faculty, library staff members, and townspeople who take part in these programs, first given during the war years, make use of records from their own collections and from the Douglas Music Room in the University Library.

The record player which is used was a gift to the Library by Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, expressly for use in the Browsing Room concerts.

An all-request program will be played later on in the term, and requests may be placed in the box which will be in the Browsing Room for the suggestions of patrons.

Any one who would care to give a concert from a personal record library may leave his name and address with Miss Bernice Rise, head of the circulation department.

The program to be given this Sunday will include: "The Curfew" by Peter Warlock, Sonata in G minor for violin and figured bass and the Golden Sonata, both by Purcell. Records are from the library of Leona E. Tyler, associate professor of psychology.

Eugene F. Zarones, senior in psychology and a member of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, men's national music honorary, will present Sunday's concert.

Hostesses for the afternoon will be: Mrs. Howard Boyd, president of Mu Phi Patronesses; Mrs. Frank Asay, president of Mu Phi Alumnae; Miss Faye Schick, president of the active chapter of Mu Phi on the campus; Miss Marjorie Carlson, member of the active chapter; Misses Shirley Henson, Ann Judson House, and Shirley McFarland, Rebecca, of the House Librarians; and Miss Rise and Miss Maxine Smith of the Library staff.

Host will be Carl A. Gutmann, president of Phi Mu Alpha.

U. O. Professor To Talk in South

Rene L. Picard, professor of romance languages, left Eugene Wednesday evening for San Francisco, where he will make several speeches Friday.

At noon he will speak to the Cercle de l'Union, a club of San Francisco businessmen who are natives of France.

In the Native Sons Building on Mason Street, Picard will address the Salon Francais, a women's club, and, in the evening, the Alliance Francaise. Both of these associations are trying to promote more interest in French culture and the French language. Similar organizations are found in Portland and Los Angeles.

The titles of Picard's lectures will be "Fontainebleau," in which he will tell of life in the palace there at the time of the French monarchy, and "L'Esprit Critique Francais."

He will leave San Francisco Saturday evening to return to Eugene.

A dinner will be held at 6:15 at the Faculty Club, followed by the program at 7:30.

School Days

But lay around campus all day.
Fuss with my "calc"
Toil with my "Trig",
Sweat 'till I'm wrinkled and grey,
While that lucky BA
Got nothing to do.
But lay around campus all day.
Good Lord above, can't you see me cryin'
Study has ruined my eyes.
Send down a course that needs no tryin'
Lift me to paradise.
Show me those credits, help me to pass,
Wash all my failures away,
Like that lucky BA,
Give me nothing to do,
But lay around campus all day.

Warren to Speak

Snow Halts Move To Student Union

Transfer of any offices into the Student Union will not take place as long as the adverse weather continues, Dick Williams, Student Union Director, reported yesterday.

Williams and his staff and Miss Ruth Coffey, food service supervisor for the student union, were scheduled to move into the building last week, but telephone service men have been too busy repairing line breaks to install telephones.

"We can't foresee the exact date of the move," Williams said, "as it all depends upon the weather. As soon as it clears up we will begin making plans again for the move."

Petitions Due Friday For Court Position

Any sophomore man or woman student may petition for the position, left vacant by the resignation of Merv Hampton this term.
