

Dance, Anyone? Second Lesson Set at Gerlinger

The second lesson of Social Dance class, PE 01, will be from 7 to 9 to-night in Gerlinger Annex, according to Paul Jaeger, vice president of Inter-Dorm Council. The class is a no-credit, no-grade course.

Interested students may sign up at the Extension Division office or at Gerlinger Annex at the beginning of the class, Jaeger said. Women students will be admitted free under a new ruling. The charge for men is $7 for twenty hours of lessons.

At the initial lesson 40 men and 3 women attended, Jaeger explained as the reason for the change in regulations. Lessons are given each Tuesday.

The course was initiated last term by the Inter-Dorm Council, but has been taken over this term by the Extension Division of the State System of Education.

Phi Beta Honorary To Hear Pledges

Phi Beta, women's national music and speech fraternity, will hold a meeting at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, at the home of Irene Bryant, 2052 Potter.

Pledges who have not yet performed before members of the organization will do so at this meeting.

Initiation has been tentatively set for Feb. 2.

Seybolt to Preview Next Theater Play

For those wishing a preview of the next University Theater production, Mrs. Otilie T. Seybolt, associate professor of speech, will read from "Thunder Rock" during the Ethel R. Sawyer Browsing Room Hour at 4 p.m. today.

The play, by Robert Ardrey, will be presented early next month under the direction of Mrs. Seybolt.

Larry Bissett is chairman of the program, sponsored by the house librarians.

The public is invited.

Morse Set

(Continued from page one) Besides his campus talk today, Morse has scheduled addresses for the Eugene Rotary club and the Oregon Dairymen.

Senator Morse and Paul Washke, professor of physical education, were dinner guests of Pi Kappa Alpha, social fraternity Monday night. Morse, who is affiliated with Pi Kappa Alpha, gave a short informal talk after dinner.

CLASSIFIED

SALE—'35 Plymouth coupe, good condition, $150. Ben Lyon, ph. 4-4143. 62

LOST—Black Ronson lighter with initials W. J. Please contact Bill Jayne, ext. 418, Law School. 62

FOR SALE—White Stag ski-pants size 14, excellent condition. Call Anne Goodman, ext. 481 evenings. 63

FOR SALE—New Wilson ski boots. Very reasonable. Hulda Glos, Athletic Dept., ext. 281. 66

LOST—One pair dark trimmed glasses. Phone Joe Tyler, 4-4255. Reward. 64

LOST—Men's pig skin gloves. Return to 108 Commerce. 65

FOR RENT—Furnished apt. $40. Close to University. Also sleeping room. 1230 Ferry. 65

'Liberty' Topic Of Castell Talk

"Liberty: A Post-Mortem?" will be the subject of Dr. Alburey Castell, head of the philosophy department, at the YMCA Wednesday at 7:45 p.m.

This will be the first public affairs lecture of winter term, sponsored by the Public Affairs Committee of the YMCA.

Dr. Castell, who came to the University in fall, 1949, formerly taught at the University of Minnesota, Chicago, and Toronto. He has written several college text books on philosophy and published articles in philosophical journals.

Students, faculty, and townspeople are invited to the lecture.

YMCA Schedules Ski Trip Sunday

The YMCA recreation committee plans a ski trip to the Willamette Ski Area Sunday, according to Bob Bozarth, YMCA social chairman. The trip will be made in a chartered bus with room for 30 people.

The bus will leave the "Y" at 7:15 a.m. Sunday morning and will return to Eugene by 6 p.m. Both men and women students are invited to make the trip. Any student desiring to go should register at the YMCA by Thursday at 5 p.m. The first 30 students to sign up will be accommodated. The cost of the trip will be $2 per person.

Browsing Room Talk Shifted to Thursday

Wednesday night's Browsing Room Lecture has been postponed until Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. due to William Shirer's lecture at McArthur Court Wednesday.

Dr. F. M. Commellack will address Thursday's program on "The Native Princess and the Handsome Foreign Sailor." J. C. Sherwood, professor of English, will lead the discussion.

Groups to Pair For Carnival Booths

Living organizations will be paired for WAA carnival booths at a meeting of booth representatives at the Delta Gamma house today at 4 p.m.

Theme of the 1950 carnival, scheduled for Feb. 17 in the Physical Education building, will be revealed at the meeting and tentative regulations for building booths will be announced, Eleanor Johns, booth chairman, said.

Groups working together on booths will be decided at a general drawing. Processes of carnival activities will be explained, Miss Johns added.

Co-Speakers Slated For Chem Seminar

W. J. Kroll, consulting metallurgist, and Herman Johansen, chemist from the Bureau of Mines, Albany, Ore., will be co-speakers at the weekly chemistry seminar to "Extractive Metallurgy of Niobium and Tantalum."

Johansen last year was a graduate research assistant at the University at 4 p.m. in 105 McClure.

Subject for the seminar will be "Extractive Metallurgy of Niobium."

A ladies' wrestling club has been formed in an Alabama town. You have to know how to protect yourself when you go to a dance these days.

A French boxer kissed his opponent after losing to him. He got in one good smack, anyway.

Journalists Bill Childs

(Continued from page one)

est number of newspaper subscribers in its history.

AUTHORS BOOKS

Besides the best-seller, Childs has written several other books, including "This Is Democracy," "Toward a Dynamic America," "This Is Your War," and "I Write from Washington."

He also has published articles in Harper's, Saturday Evening Post, The Reader's Digest, Life, The New Republic, and The Yale Review.

His reportorial career has included coverage of election campaigns, economics in Mexico, release of Gestapo prisoners at Cologne, and the United Nations. Much of his world-wide reputation has resulted from writings in foreign countries.

Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism fraternity, presented Childs an award in 1944 "for sustained insight in national affairs, first-hand reporting, and effective writing."

The ONPA conference will bring together editors and publishers from throughout the state for a busy two-day program. Jack Travis, publisher of the Hood River Daily Sun is president of the conference. Carl C. Webb, secretary of ONPA and assistant professor of journalism, is secretary.

WAA Meeting Canceled

The women's athletic managers meeting scheduled for today has been cancelled. Managers are urged to submit entrance blanks for swimming intramurals.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

- 2-5 p.m.—Plymouth House open house.
- 4:00—Booth committee meeting, Delta Gamma.
- 4:00—Emeraldette rehearsal, Gerlinger annex.
- 7:00—Delta Nu Alpha, national transportation fraternity, 105 Commerce.
- 7:00—Christian Science organization, 1251 Emerald.
- 7:30—Makeup exam in Psy 208, 301 Condon.
- 7:30—Sigma Delta Psi, national athletic honorary, at Side. Pledges must attend.
- 8:00—Dames Club, YMCA.

Income becomes outgo so fast, why not call it ingo.

Swing musicians don't get what they should, says a band leader. Maybe because there's a law against it.

With smokers who know... it's

Camels for Mildness

Yes, Camels are SO MILD that in a coast-to-coast test of hundreds of men and women who smoked Camels—and only Camels—for 30 consecutive days, noted throat specialists, making weekly examinations, reported

NOT ONE SINGLE CASE OF THROAT IRRITATION due to smoking CAMELS!