

Reorganized Jr. IFC Names Carey, Byers, Crim to Offices

Bill Carey, junior in business administration, was re-elected as president of the Junior Interfraternity Council Tuesday night. Other officers named were Jack Byers, vice-president and John Crim, secretary-treasurer.

Carey, Phi Kappa Psi pledge president, headed the group fall term when it was known as the Freshman Interfraternity Council. Byers represents Sigma Nu, and Crim represents Pi Kappa Phi on the council of the 21 campus fraternities.

Revise Constitution

A committee consisting of Tom White, chairman, Ray Gilkey, and Crim completed a revision of the group's constitution last term which resulted in the reorganization and renaming.

Purpose is to promote co-operation between fraternities by giving the pledges an instrument for bettering relations among themselves, the constitution states. Each house has two representatives, the pledge class president and a class appointed representative, at meetings.

The Junior Interfraternity Council will meet with Junior Panhellenic Jan. 31 to discuss plans for a dance to be sponsored by the two organizations. Long range plans of both groups will be to work toward better and closer harmony between Greek men and women, the JIFC president reported.

Concert Features Purcell, Schubert

Mu Phi Epsilon's music hour Sunday will feature the University String Quartet in a program of Purcell, Beethoven, and Schubert. The program, scheduled for 4 p.m. in the Browning Room, is open to the public.

The quartet, consisting of George Boughton, 1st violin, Mary Kapp Allton, 2nd violin, Edmund A. Cykler, viola, and Milton Dieterich, cello, will be introduced by Mrs. Doyd Payne, a member of Mu Phi Epsilon patronesses.

Hostesses will be Ellen Stone and Sylvia Williams representing Mu Phi Epsilon, and Susan Bachelder and Vera Gwen from the house librarians group.

Selections will include "Two Fantasies for String Quartet," Purcell; "String Quartet Opus 18 No. 4," Beethoven; and "String Quartet in D Minor," Schubert.

Committee members for these concerts are Mrs. J. H. Beck, Mrs. Everett Harpham, and Mrs. Payne from Mu Phi Epsilon patronesses; Mrs. William Elkins and Mrs. H. B. Riley from Mu Phi Epsilon alumnae; and Miss Bernice Rise from the University library.

An insect is a man declaring he's next in a butcher shop of women.

French Club Elects New Vice-president

Madeleine Michel was recently elected vice president of "Les Thelemites" in place of Winfried Eggert who recently resigned.

John Palmer was elected refreshments chairman, and John Palmquist was appointed chairman of arrangements for a forthcoming "Montmartre" party.

French discussions will be held every Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the Side. All interested students taking French are invited.

Three Named by Revlon

Three freshmen, Beverly Nelson, Gwen Jones, and Jo-Ann Prialux, have been selected for the Revlon fashion board on campus. Their duties consist of promotion and publicity of Revlon products, Anne Goodman, Revlon campus representative, announced.

Club, Honorary Lists Needed by Oregonians

Presidents of all school clubs and honoraries are asked to turn in membership rosters to the Oregon office by Thursday afternoon. The lists should include all fall term members with new members and pledges to date, Vern Stolen, associate editor, announced.

KOAC to Air 'Doll House'

The third in a series of theater classics, Ibsen's "Doll House" will be the Radio Workshop Player's presentation over KOAC tomorrow at 4:30 p.m.

One of the most controversial of Ibsen's plays, the "Doll House" concerns itself with the social liberation of women. The stand taken on the subject by this play caused it to be barred from many stages until time made such a move unnecessary.

Woman Liberated

Elmarie Wendel will play Nora, the woman who is "liberated," while Gordon Erickson of "Winter-set" fame will be Torvald, her husband. Others in the cast include Lanor L. Lombard, Jim Blue, and Martha Johnson.

Terrance Roseen will direct the production. The adaptation to be used by the Workshop was written by Anne Roseen, a former student at the University. The famous "Tarantella" scene will feature the piano playing of Gordon Erickson.

Sketches Humorous

To prepare listeners for the serious aftermath, "Time With the Authors" will present humorous James Thurber sketches at 4. Aquarian Shirley will read "University Days" and "Draft Board Lights" from Thurber's "My Life and Hard Times."

The Band Concert at 4:15 will feature several marches and the Overture to the opera "Egmont." The Band, under the direction of John Stehn, will also present "The Falcon's March," an original work by Gladys Stone, a former U. of O. student now teaching at Elmira.

Foreign Movie To End Tonight

The last showings of "To Live in Peace," the Italian film sponsored by the Foreign Movie Club, will be at 7 and 9 tonight, at the Mayflower Theater.

Aldo Fabrizzi, the priest of "Open City," stars in the lead role. The picture, filmed in Italy, includes English subtitles, and revolves about an American soldier and the family which shelters him during the liberation of Italy in World War II.

Theater Group Plans 'Hat' Party

Bonnets are in order for the University Theater party Friday night.

Technically, it's going to be a "Hat" party. The price of admission is a hat and 25c. Any kind of a hat, of any make, of any conception, expousing any belief, and covering any kind of head will do, according to Mrs. LeJeune Griffith, University Theater business manager.

If the hats are good enough, said Mrs. Griffith, a prize will be awarded.

YWCA Issues Call For Office Petitions

YWCA members who have taken out petition forms for positions in the Y next year were urged Wednesday to turn in their applications and make interview appointments.

Lois Greenwood, executive secretary, stated that freshman petitioners may be interviewed from 4 to 5 p.m. any day.

Slates for the coming elections, Feb. 22, and lists of committee chairmen will be chosen from the ranks of petitioners.

"I'm Winning Because of You"

JOIN THE MARCH OF DIMES

January 16-31

FIGHT INFANTILE PARALYSIS

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis
FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, founder.