

Walden String Quartet Scheduled For Sunday Afternoon Concert

The Walden String Quartet, in residence at the University of Illinois, will present a program of classical and contemporary music at 4 p.m. Sunday, in the School of Music Auditorium.

The quartet, which has recently returned from a concert tour of Germany, will appear under the auspices of the Chamber Concert series.

The entire musical training of the four members of the quartet—Homer Schmitt and Bernard Goodman, violins; John Garvy, viola; and Tobert Swenson, cello—has been had in the United States. The organization was founded 15 years ago, while three of the men were with the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra.

They have played extensive concert tours throughout this country and also many appearances in Germany, Austria, and England. The music group was one of those selected by the U. S. Government to present American music to Europe.

Tickets to the Sunday afternoon concert may be obtained at Wilson's Music House, the Appliance Center, or at the door of the auditorium. Members of Phi Mu Alpha, Phi Beta, or Mu Phi Epsilon, music honoraries, also have tickets for sale.

Holders of Chamber Concert Series season tickets will be admitted.

Ebey to Speak On Education

Dr. George W. Ebey, assistant superintendent of Portland public schools and director of personnel, will speak before the Future Teachers of Oregon meeting tonight in 2 Education at 7:30.

His topic will be "Job Possibilities in Portland, and the Portland Public School Set-up."

Freshmen and sophomores planning to enter the education field in their later college years, are urged to attend the FTO's bi-monthly meetings.

Tomorrow morning at 10 a.m., George Ebey will begin to interview job hopefuls. His office will be in the old drama shack behind Johnson Hall.

Square Dancing, Games Planned For Fun Night

Co-recreational square dancing provided the spark for Louise Henderson's active interest in square dance calling. She will call dances at Friday's WAA Fun Night in Gerlinger Hall.

"The co-recreational square dancing class gave me an opportunity to develop an interest which I have had for quite some time," Miss Henderson, graduate assistant in physical education, explained.

She has been helping other beginning groups in the Eugene area. Her favorite dances are the "Texas Star," "Ring, Ring," and "Duck and Dive."

Commenting on the Fun Night square dances, she stated that it is best for beginners to mingle with more experienced performers. This gives the newcomers the opportunity to become more skilled in the activity through observing others.

Fun Night will also provide ping pong, swimming, badminton, basketball, and shuffleboard facilities for students. The no-date affair is free of charge.

ROTC to Show Battle Movies

The theme will be "Cupid's Capers," according to Lauren McReynolds, dance chairman. The dance will be held in St. Mary's Episcopal Church Parish Hall, and is open to all University students, stag or with dates.

New York Magazine Buys Karolevitz Story

Bob Karolevitz, graduate student in journalism, was notified Tuesday that an article he wrote has been accepted by the magazine "Restaurant Management," a New York publication.

The 1500-word article deals with the candy sideline of Seymour's Cafe. It is entitled "Candy Can Be Sweet—In More Ways Than One."

Co-ops Enlarge Memorial Fund

Highland House, Rebec House, and University House, the three co-ed cooperative organizations on the campus, held a rummage sale last Friday and Saturday to raise money for the Janet Smith Memorial Scholarship presented annually to an outstanding Co-op girl.

This year's sale, which netted $98, was handled by Mary Swigart, University House; Jo Morton, Rebec House; and Theda Wilson and Eva Paronen from Highland.

The money goes each year into a $75 scholarship awarded during Junior Weekend to a girl who will be a junior the following year. Last year's recipient was Jean Livingston, junior in art, from University House.

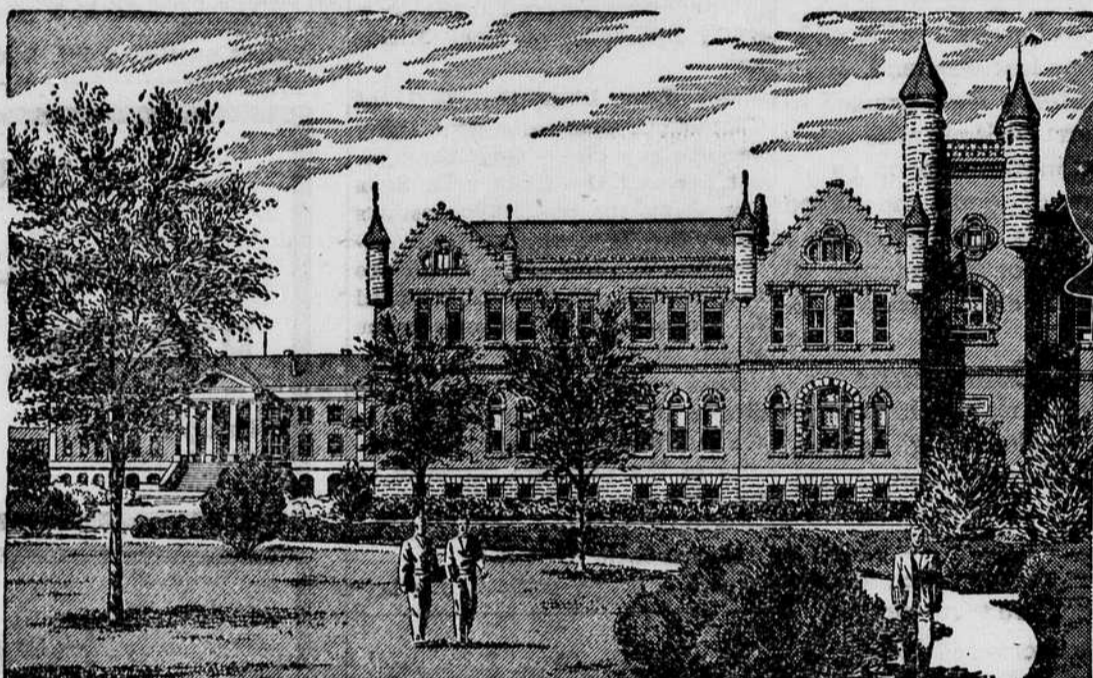

Janet Smith was the founder of women's co-ops on the Oregon campus.

Faculty Dancing Series Planned

The first of three dances sponsored by the newly-formed Faculty Dancing Club will be held Friday, Feb. 17, in Gerlinger Annex. The dance will be semi-formal.

No single dance tickets will be sold, but season tickets for $5 may be purchased until Feb. 10. All faculty members are eligible for membership.

Those interested should contact Mrs. Jim Aiken or Mrs. Wilfrid Dixon, chairmen. Two other dances are tentatively scheduled for April 12 and May 19.

Major Norm Hays, Oklahoma A&M, '40 - Aviation Executive, U.S. Air Force!

A native of Grove, Oklahoma, Norman Hays graduated from Grove High School in 1935. The following year he entered Oklahoma A&M, where he majored in engineering; also took public speaking.

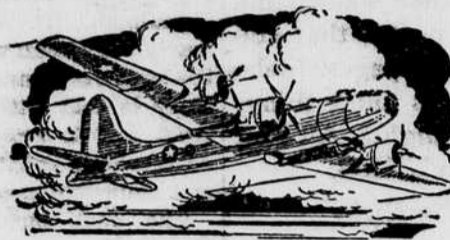

Active in national 4H Club work while in college, he helped organize its statewide activities, won a national 4H championship in Public Speaking. In 1940 he received his BS degree in engineering.

A month later he began navigator training as an Aviation Cadet. In 1941, he received his navigator's wings and a commission as Second Lieutenant . . . married his college sweetheart.

Sent to an RAF Navigation School in Canada, he graduated with the highest possible rating of Specialist. Norman served overseas for 18 months in the Aleutians, Italy and Saipan.

Accepting a regular commission after the war, he was assigned to development of navigation instruments; navigated the B-29 "Pacusan Dreamboat" on its famed Hawaii-Cairo non-stop flight in 1946.

Typical of college graduates who have found their place in the U. S. Air Force, Major Hays is Chief, Navigation Section, at Headquarters in Washington . . . with a secure career . . . a promising future.

If you are single, between the ages of 20 and 26½, with at least two years of college, consider a flying career as an officer in the U. S. Air Force. You may be able to meet the high physical and moral requirements and be selected for training. If you do not complete Aviation Cadet training, you may return to civilian life or have opportunity to train for an important officer assignment in non-flying fields.

Air Force officer procurement teams are visiting many colleges and universities to explain about these career opportunities. Watch for their arrival or get full details at your nearest Air Force Base, local recruiting station, or by writing to the Chief of Staff, U. S. Air Force, Attention: Aviation Cadet Branch, Washington 25, D. C.
