4:00 SAE vs. Chi Psi
 Three "B" quintets registered notches in the win belt in Monday IM hoop play: Sigma Alpha Mu, Hunter, and Cherney.

The Sammies took a 16-12 win over Phi Kappa Psi although the outcome was in doubt until the last few seconds of the game. The 9-7 half-time score favored the winners. Burton Gevurtz and Marvin Brenner scored four points each for the winners as did Phi Psi forward John Locke.

Hunter doubled the score in spiking Sherry Ross 16-8. At half-time they were ahead 10-5. Don Bottemiller poured in five points for the winners. Dick Whittaker and Brian Teller registered four points to the cause.

Cherney ran to a 18-10 win over Sederstrom. Ron Sogge scored all ten points for the losers but the combined efforts of Bob Steib and Bill Johnson, who tallied seven apiece, was too much of a point accumulation to stop. The losers led 4-3 at half-time.

Sigma Chi Cop First IM Track From Sigma Nu

Sigma Chi swept by Sigma Nu 35 1/2-23 1/2, in the first of a series of intra-house track meets conducted by Track Coach Bill Bowerman in order to stimulate an interest in the cinder sport. This first meet was held yesterday at 4:00 in the unfinished area of the physical education plant.

The Sigs won firsts in five of the seven events held and were never behind as far as team point totals are concerned. Chunky Tommy Edwards paced the winners with a double victory in the 40 yard dash at 4.7 seconds, and the Broad Jump with a leap of 18 feet, 10 inches. Other White Cross wins were posted by Stu Richardson in the 40 yard hurdles with 5.9 seconds, Fred Turner in the 1/4 mile run with 3 minutes, 48 seconds, and Darhl Davis with a top effort of 39 feet, 6 inches with the 16 pound shot put.

National Cage Ratings

By MARTIN MEADOWS

The nation's only major unbeaten basketball squad, the Holy Cross Crusaders, maintained their grip on first place in this week's ratings as the schedule dished up one of the busiest weeks of the season.

The Crusaders won three tilts to run their streak to 17 straight conquests. They tripped Springfield, 62-49, edged Loyola of Chicago, 53-48, and smothered Brown, 83-39. Meanwhile, Duquesne and St. Bonaventure both dropped their first games to leave Holy Cross alone at the top.

Long Island U. stayed in second place as they whipped Equitable Life, 82-66, while St. John's advanced one to third by rolling over Manhattan, 82-52, and Temple, 75-61. The Redmen now have an 18-2 record.

Bradley Number Four

Fourth spot was held by Bradley U., which picked up an 84-48 triumph from Pittsburgh for its 18th win against three losses.

Down two notches, in the number five slot, came Duquesne. The Dukes balanced their 64-58 setback to Louisville by subduing Cincinnati, 60-54, and Baldwin-Wallace, 78-55, for their 16th and 17th wins.

LaSalle (13-2), continued its upward march by thumping St. Joseph's of Philadelphia, 79-59. They were followed by the veteran North Carolina State aggregation, possessors of a 17-3 slate. The Wolfpack pulled out a 57-50 decision over Wake Forest and then smashed Furman by a 74-38 margin.

The Big Nine leaders, the Ohio State Buckeyes, boosted themselves into eighth as they recorded a 59-52 triumph over Purdue and followed with a decisive 61-47 score over a good Wisconsin team.

CCNY held ninth by blasting Boston College, 64-56, and Princeton, 56-46. The Beavers boast a 12-2 mark.

Kentucky Returns

Back in the top ten after missing a week were the Kentucky Wildcats, who replaced Kansas State, which split a pair of contests. The touring Kentuckians chalked up three victories over hopped-up opposition. They eased by Vanderbilt, 58-54, managed to squeak past Alabama by a 66-64 margin, and hung up a narrow 61-55 win over Mississippi.

The first teams to hit the 20-victory mark were Louisville and Hamline. Both reached that record last week, with Louisville doing it the hard way by pulling a mild upset over Duquesne.

All in all, the first ten squads registered 19 wins in 20 games during the week. However, this week's schedule should provide several upsets. Some of the contests include Bradley-DePaul, Holy Cross-Rhode Island State, Indiana-Ohio State, Kansas State-Missou-

Statistics Don't Lie They Only Can Fib

Among the reams of statistics sent in each week concerning Northern Division basketball scoring are some interesting items that are often left out because of lack of space. Only when there are little white spots to fill can we let you know that:

Top man in field goal percentage is Gene Conley of WSC. His teammate Ted Tappe is third. Louie Soriano, Washington's sharpshooting guard, stands between them. Soriano's average is .353, while the Cougars are shooting at .447 and .345 respectively.

Oregon's Jack Keller is the most deadly man at the free throw line. He has converted 20 while missing three for a .870 percentage. Washington's other deadeye guard, Frank Guisness, has a .852 score with 41 giffers and only seven misses.

Frosh Defense Strengthened for Rook's Invasion

"We will be playing a team which has improved greatly since we last met them when they beat us 40-34, so we will be out to avenge that defeat. It should be a great ball game."

Thus commented Coach Don Kirsch when quizzed as to the chances of his Oregon Frosh basketball squad in their game tonight against the Oregon State Rooks.

He added, "In that last game the Rooks had the ball about 70 percent of the time, but our defensive work has improved so that I'm sure that it will be different tonight."

Coach Kirsch plans to initiate a "two-platoon" system. The starting five will consist of Barclay and Livesay at forwards, Bonneman at center, and Covey and Schmer at the guards. They will be relieved by another quintet composed of Mickey and Johnson at the forwards, Noe at center, and Conchetti and Sherman holding down the guard posts.

The Rooks, who are mentored by Coach Paul Valenti, have split contests with the Ducklings in their two previous clashes this season and will be out to prove their superiority in this, the "rubber" game. The meeting is scheduled for 8:00 p.m. in McArthur Court.

PULLMAN, Feb. 6—(UP)—With big Ed Gayda leading the way, the Washington State basketball team came back from a nine-point halftime deficit to win a dramatic 52 to 51 Northern Division tilt from Oregon here tonight.

Parker Winning With New Style Of Tennis Play

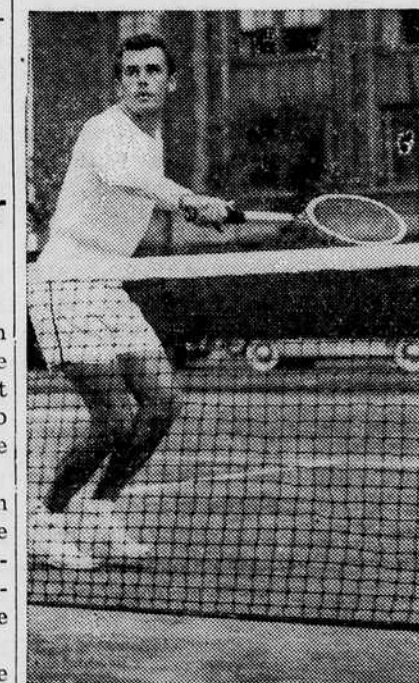

By FRED TAYLOR

Doors at McArthur Court open at 7 p.m. Wednesday night for the professional tennis exhibition matches, and students may purchase tickets anytime today or tomorrow to insure early admittance.

A large crowd is expected to be on hand for the matches, Athletic Director Leo Harris said Monday, with sizable lines at the ticket windows. Harris advised students who were able to do so to purchase their ducats before match time.

One of the stars of the featured quartet of the exhibition—along with Jack Kramer, Pancho Gonzales, and Francisco Segura—is Frankie Parker, former U. S. singles champion and a top tennis player for 16 years.

Parker, the oldest member of the playing troupe at 34, won his first national title, the U. S. Boys' Championship, at the age of 15. From then on Parker has been batling around the top of the amateur tennis heap.

Ranking among the first ten rated amateurs for 16 years, Parker also numbers the U. S. Singles Championship among his honors, having captured the title twice, in 1944 and 1945.

Parker has been rated the most flawless player of the present time. Frank worked from the baseline in his game, depending upon stamina and steadiness rather than on the more risky all-court game and net attack for his points.

But since 1947, when Parker lost to Jack Kramer at Forest Hills, its been a new Parker on the courts. In that year Kramer defeated Frank in the most bitterly contested five-set final ever seen on those courts.

Gadya scored 16 points, all in the last half, to help the Cougars stretch their ND lead to a full game over Washington.

WSC grabbed a two-point lead 15 seconds after the game started but the Webfoots swept to a 16 to 6 lead after 10 minutes. The Washington State team, including Gayda, was alarmingly off in its shots in the first half, making only 4 out of 35 for an 11.4 percent average. Oregon led, 26 to 17 at halftime.

The Cougars began to hit their shots in halftime but the Webfoots were doing likewise and with three minutes left held a 50 to 41 margin.

Then Gayda and company went to work. Leon Mangis scored a free throw, Bob Gambold got a field goal and Gayda dumped in two field goals and a free throw. A free throw by Mel Krause of Oregon left the score 52 for 51 for Washington State. The Cougars froze the ball the remaining 15 seconds.

Gayda's 16 points were high for the game. Krause was next with 14 and WSC's Sophomore Center, Gene Conley, scored 13.

The two teams meet here again tonight.

WSC Touts Frosh Star

Two and three year lettermen at Washington State College are as rare as jewels.

A tall, blond, heavy set frosh athlete from the small town of Wickersham looms as a successor to such present day Cougar tri-sports stars as Fran Polsfoot, Montesano, and Frank Mataya of Roslyn.

Eighteen year old Don Steinbrunner, already a frosh numeral winner in football, a definite award winner in basketball, looms as a prospective candidate for Jack Mooberry's track and field teams.

The Wickersham athlete first brought recognition to himself for his brilliant line play on the Dan Stavely coached Cougabe football team. Hard vicious blocking and tackling distinguished him from his frosh teammates, and set him aside as definite Washington State varsity material.
