

Oregon Daily EMERALD

TODAY'S STAFF

Assistant Managing Editors: Hal Coleman and Bill Stanfield
 Desk Editor: Marjory Bush
 Copy Desk: Sue Teter, Helen Jackson, Carolyn Varney, Lila Mae Popish, Roe Jensen

NIGHT STAFF

Night Editor: Mary Hall
 Night Staff: Margaret Phelps, Pat Knowles, Allen Reed, Kathy Harris

A Washington man was arrested for driving while eating off a tray attached to his car window. The cops were the car hops.

Metal Crystals Subject of Talk

Prof. W. G. Burgers, physics and physical chemistry instructor at the Institute of Technology at Delft, The Netherlands, will lecture at 4 p.m. Feb. 14 in 105 McClure Hall.

The lecture subject will be "Metal Crystals." Slides and a collection of metal crystals will be displayed.

Application of electronics to physical chemistry and work with electrochemistry and the crystal

Religious Meet Friday

Members of the Religious Evaluation Week committee will meet at 4 p.m. Friday at Westminster House.

structure of metals have been Burgers' main field of study.

Burgers was visiting professor at Purdue University at the beginning of the school year. He will be in Eugene for three years before returning to The Netherlands.

Administration Talk Set

"The Unfinished Business of Administration" will be the subject of a talk by Eldon L. Johnson, dean of the Graduate School, before a newly-organized group of state employees Feb. 16 in Salem.

This group, the Public Service Forum, is interested in promoting more efficient governmental administration.

Paper to Feature U.O. Buildings

Carson Hall, Villard Hall with the University Theater, and the School of Music addition will be pictured on a full-page spread in the Portland Oregonian Sunday.

Oregonian reporter Wally Turner and photographer Carl Vermilya were on the campus Wednesday taking pictures and consulting with Lyle Nelson, director of information.

The pictorial review will be in connection with Saturday's dedication and open house of the three completed buildings in the University expansion program.

University Speech Contest Deferred

The all-University extemporaneous speech contest scheduled for this week has been postponed to a future indefinite date.

According to Mrs. Frances Hemm, speech office secretary, more publicity and greater interest must be promoted before the contest will be held. The general topic will be the same as before, World Affairs.

E. R. Nichols, professor of speech and forensics director, will be in charge.

Runaway kids usually find that the best part of going away from home is coming back.

CLASSIFIED COLUMNS

The
PEOPLE'S MARKET PLACE