

Honolulu Offers Teaching Jobs To U. O. Grads

Openings in the Kamehameha School, Honolulu, Hawaii, have been reported to the University Teacher Placement Service, E. M. Pallett, director, announced Wednesday.

The institution, with an enrollment of 1150, has positions available in both the boys' and girls' schools. Dr. Pauline M. Frederick, head of the school for girls, plans to be on the campus Mar. 29 and 30 for interviews with those interested.

Ida M. Pope, teacher placement secretary, emphasizes that only certified teachers are qualified for these positions. Teachers qualified to teach in Oregon meet the requirements of Kamehameha, she said.

Available teaching positions in the school for girls are in social studies; English-math-social studies; commerce, girls' counselor, girls' physical education; and possibly piano and art.

In the boys' school, teachers are needed for modern languages, physical science, lower mathematics, vocational English, band, and 10th grade English.

Kremer to Speak At German Dinner

Delta Phi Alpha, German honorary society, will hold a dinner next Tuesday at the Eugene Hotel.

E. P. Kremer, professor of Germanic languages, will speak on "The Role of Poetry in the Development of Humanity and Civilization."

Ellen Liebe, violinist, and Ernest Lutz, pianist and student from Austria, will play a sonata for violin and piano by Mozart, and a sonatina for violin and piano by Schubert.

Group singing will follow the evening's program.

Wickham, Onthank To Attend Meetings

Mrs. Golda P. Wickham, director of women's affairs, and Karl W. Onthank, director of the graduate placement service, will travel to Salem Monday to attend meetings of the Oregon Mothers and Dads Associations.

Members of the Mothers executive board will hear Mrs. Wickham speak at a morning meeting.

Onthank will talk before a joint meeting of the Salem Mothers and Dads clubs in the evening on University scholarships and other financial aid and graduate employment. He also will be present at the morning meeting.

Group Names Wood To Speech Council

Dr. Kenneth Scott Wood, professor of speech and director of the speech and hearing clinic, has been named to the executive council of the Speech Association of America.

Wood has also been reappointed to the committee on ethical practice of the American Speech and Hearing Association. Maintaining U. S. professional standards in speech pathology, and hearing rehabilitation is the function of this committee.

An Alaska man climbed a mountain and had his face frozen. He should join a poker club.

If a husband's excuses for being late were all bound up in one book, it would make a nice volume of fiction.

Four Men and Girl Arrested As Suspects in Brinks Holdup

DETROIT — (UP) — Four men and an attractive night club singer with $37,150 crammed in a paper bag were arrested and questioned Wednesday about the $1,700,000 Brink's Inc. holdup.

The FBI joined attempts to find the source of the $50 and $100 bills taken from a car in the loop area.

John Gach, 35, associate of former Purple Gang Leader Harry Fleisher, told police inspector Walter Wyrod that he "won the money in a gambling joint."

"Why do you suppose people always have to pick on me," Gach asked detectives. He was arrested in Cincinnati last October with Fleisher, then a fugitive from 30 year prison sentences for robbery and conspiracy to murder.

The others, who denied even knowing about the money, also disclaimed any knowledge of the huge Boston holdup by nine men last month.

Wyrod said serial numbers of the bills failed to check with any known to have been taken in the Brink's robbery. But Wyrod pointed out that nearly $900,000 of that loot was in bills for which serial numbers were unrecorded.

Three holdup squad detectives, suspicious because Gach tried to conceal the bills, arrested the group before dawn.

Widow Cleared In Theft Charge Of Butter Cubes

OAKLAND — (UP) — "Grandma" Margie Russell, a spry 88-year-old widow, was cleared Wednesday of charges she stole two cubes of butter worth 38 cents.

A request that a petty theft complaint be dropped was granted by Judge Louis J. Hardy. The half blind and nearly deaf old lady then signed an out-of-court settlement with owners of the Pay-Less Market.

The settlement gave Mrs. Russell $300 in return for her pledge not to sue for false arrest. It provided that the payment did not constitute an admission of liability.

Carl Becker, 53, the store detective who arrested Mrs. Russell when he claimed he saw her slip two cubes of butter into her shopping bag, moved for dismissal of the complaint.

After the judge granted the request, the detective and Mrs. Russell were asked to pose together for photographers. Just as the pictures were to be taken, he turned his back on her and walked out of the courtroom.

Asked if she had hard feelings for Becker, Mrs. Russell laughed and said, "Oh, no, that's all over."

She spent four days in jail following her arrest Dec. 15 before her son bailed her out.

Drama Session Begins

(Continued from page one) turday. Many of the guests will attend and take part in the dedication of Carson Hall, the Music School administrative annex, and remodeled Villard Hall with the new University Theater. Gov. McKay will speak in the main lobby of Carson Saturday, assisted in the dedication by President Newburn and other officials.

Students will be on hand to show campus visitors the new buildings and to assist at the two conferences. Registration for today's Drama Conference is being handled by the National Collegiate Players. Only registered delegates may attend sessions of the Drama Conference, with the exception of the 3:30 general session Saturday.

Title-Seekers Battle

(Continued from page one) he was elected freshman class president at State. Dave, a junior in pre-law, holds first place award in the Jewett speech contest. In the summer he works as a clerk-typist in Portland, with time out for his favorite sport, swimming.

Serves as Chairman
Pre-law senior, Ed Eveland, comes from Long Beach, California where he attended Long Beach City College for two years. The 23-year-old senior served as social chairman for the Sigma Chis.

Ron Gillis was in the army for three years and served in Germany, France, and England. The tall blue-eyed Chi Psi is majoring in political science and hopes some day to "get his fill of traveling." Ron also is a social chairman.

Varsity football player Ray Karnofski is from Longview. Now a sophomore in liberal arts, he plans on going into pre-med. Ray is athletic chairman of the SAE house and works during summers in a lumber camp in Longview.

There was a big farm yield in 1948. Won't someone please tell prices about it.

Officials Leave For Conference In Washington

Three University officials left Eugene yesterday to attend the annual conference of the Northwest Council of Guidance and Personnel Associations held in the Winthrop Hotel, Tacoma, Wash.

Donald M. DuShane, director of student affairs, C. L. Constance, registrar, and J. S. Carlson, counseling center director, will represent the University at the Friday through Saturday meeting. Constance is vice-president of the council for Oregon and was on the conference planning committee.

Theme of the conference is "Developing Responsive Citizenship Through Personnel Work."

DuShane will serve as chairman of a Saturday morning panel discussion based on an address to be given by Sen. Wayne Morse at a

A student lamp made in 1841 was presented to a college. You know, one of those places that used to be used for studying.

Modern youth should try hugging the road for a change instead of making it secondary.

Friday night banquet. Morse will speak on "Dealing with Community Responsibility Problems and Attitudes in Personnel Work."

George Hall, one-time assistant to Vergil Earl, former dean of men in the University, will be one of the panel members. Hall is now dean of the Grays Harbor Junior College.

Good News for Air Minded College Men!

A U. S. Air Force interviewing team will be here to give you complete details about the many flying and non-flying opportunities open to single young men between ages of 20 and 26½. Find out how you can prepare for a career as an officer in the U. S. Air Force!

 (DATE) _____
(TIME) _____
(PLACE) _____

PATRONIZE THE EMERALD ADVERTISERS

Russell's

Kaufman Bros.

Goburn's

Appliance CENTER
10 WEST TENTH...PHONE 5266

Bristow's

MILLER'S

GREYHOUND

PENNEY'S

Marley

Montgomery Ward

Oregon Daily EMERALD