The campus Red Cross Drive will start Thursday co-chairmen Donna Mary Brennan and Art Ross announced.

The drive, which will extend from Feb. 23 through 28, will be unofficially opened tonight at a "Kickoff" banquet for committee chairmen and Red Cross workers from Lane county and Oregon State College.

Red Cross representatives from every living organization should attend a meeting at 4 p. m. today in 8 Commerce Hall. At that time details of the drive and the system of collection will be explained.

Competition between living organizations for collections will be held, and the top ten houses on the campus will be published in the Emerald each day of the drive.

Speakers will visit all living organizations, accompanied by "flying speeches" to promote the drive and explain the functions and benefits of the Red Cross among the students.

Committee chairmen are: Collections co-chairman, Georgie Oberteuffer and Kay Kuckenber; Speakers, Beverly Buckley; Off-campus Collections, Mike Lally; Co-op Collections, Shirley Hillard; Posters, Ann Darby; Publicity, Helen Gatewood and Clyde Fahlmann; Promotion, Jack Landrud.

"Few people realize the benefits which the Red Cross offers to University students," Mrs. Cora Purtle, Lane County manager of the Red Cross, commented.

"Operating as an emergency organization, the Red Cross has come to the aid of various Oregon students, making it possible in many cases, for them to continue their education."

Ensemble Plays At Mac Court

Five encores were demanded of the Four-Piano Ensemble by an audience Monday night in a McArthur Court concert.

Following an entertaining program of varied selections, the ensemble played encores of Khochatourian's Sabre Dance and an original arrangement, "Broadway and 42nd," by Stephen Kovacs, a member of the quartet. The arrangement combined Choo-Choo Boogie, Hay Baba Rebop and several other modern melodies.

Other encore numbers played were Largo al Factotum from the Barber of Seville by Rossini, Ronda a la Turca from Mozart's Sonata in A Major and the Beer Barrel Polka.

Monday night's program consisted of nine numbers played by the ensemble, all arranged by Stephen Kovacs, a member and organizer of the group. Included in the selections were Concerto Grosso No. 12 in B Minor by Handel, Wagner's Overture to "Tannhauser," the Sacramouche Suite by Milhaud, and Peasant Dances by Erno Balogh.

Other numbers were "Invitation to the Dance" by Carl Maria von Weber, "The Flight of the Bumble Bee" by Rimsky-Korsakov, "Cafe Society, New York," by Smith and Hampton, the "Champagne Song of Don Juan," from "Don Giovanni," by Mozart, and the "Maroszek Dances" by Kobaly.

The Ensemble left immediately after the performance for California to continue their tour.

Exec Council Deliberates Constitution

The ASUO Executive Council Monday night:

1. Heard a report on the progress of the constitutional committee.
2. Discussed the extent of its supervisory powers of class activities and the sophomore and junior honoraries.
3. Asked for suggestions at next week's meeting on the appointment of a student to organize Ore-nter finances.
4. Formulated three questions for determination by the newly-appointed Judiciary Committee.
5. Heard reports on the progress of the committees investigating the establishment of boxing as an intercollegiate sport and the renewal of weekly ASUO assemblies.
6. Received an explanation from Director of Student Affairs Donald M. DuShane on the University's policy of collecting $5 fees for failure to register during the pre-registration period.

The constitutional revision committee has formulated a basic philosophy of criterion on which to base the details of a new ASUO Constitution, chairman Dick Neely reported.

This philosophy states roughly that student life and activities are an integral part of a University education and program, and that the University should be viewed as a community, rather than as groups of competitors making up students, faculty, and administration.

The committee is trying to work out the embodiment of this idea in such details as continuity on the Executive Council, eventual stu-

Classified Mere 98¢ Cents Brings Lost Fire

For a mere 98 cents, a law student Bill Jayne was able to have returned a cigarette lighter he had lost; which was considerably cheaper than buying a new, sentimentally valueless lighter.

Jayne was on the match basis for only a few days, and then he got an idea to use an Emerald classified—which brought the desired result in short order.

WAA candidates for president are Bonnie Gienger and Phyllis Rich; secretary, Jay Frye and Joan Skordahl; treasurer, Bernice Bradley and Mary Myers; sergeant-at-arms, Joan Jacobs, and Dolores Parrish; custodian, Barbara Bates and Nancy Brenneman.

YWCA candidates include president, Beverly Buckley and Dolores Jeppesen; second vice president, Nancy Kuhnhausen and Jackie Barbee Miller; secretary, Florence Hansen and JoAnn Gillmore; treasurer, Janice Hughes and Eleanor Johns; upperclass commission chairman, Gretchen Grondahl and Karla Van Loan.
