

Dorms And Panhell to Cooperate

Representatives from Panhellenic and women's dormitories agreed Tuesday night to cooperate to the fullest extent in encouraging freshmen to participate in dormitory activities if pledges live in dormitories next year.

Discussion of further problems under the living-in plan was postponed until an agreement on the time of rushing freshmen for next year is reached.

Resolutions on the time for rushing have been submitted to the Administration by both Panhellenic and Inter-Dorm Council.

Panhellenic's resolution favored rushing for freshmen at the same time as freshmen orientation week.

The Inter-Dorm Council requested the postponement of rushing until fall of the sophomore year.

Further negotiation and discussion with the Office of Women's Affairs will probably be utilized in an attempt to reach a decision considering the interests of the two student groups and the incoming freshman, Director of Student Affairs Donald M. DuShane said.

Present at the meeting were Jackie Moore, Fran Robson, and Dorothy Sutton, student Panhellenic representatives; Roberta Waddell and Virginia Ellen Smith, alumna Panhellenic representatives; and Cherry Taylor, Sue Michel, Betty Horand, Mary Ann Delsman, Ruth Bartle, and Jackie Pritzen, student dormitory representatives.

Panhellenic Council Petitions Due Mar. 1

Junior and senior women petitioning for Panhellenic council must submit applications by Mar. 1, President Fran Robson stated Tuesday. Petitions may be turned in to Miss Robson at Sigma Kappa.

Senior women may petition for scholarship chairman, social chairman, publicity chairman, and standards chairman. Junior women may apply for the position of relations chairman.

AFT Prexy Says Paper Garbled Quote about Oregon's Colleges

By KEN METZLER

John M. Eklund, national president of the American Federation of Teachers, Tuesday emphasized four points in advocating a union of teachers, and added that "It's true that things have been badly handled by the newspapers."

Eklund spoke before students and faculty members of the education school Tuesday afternoon. The American Federation of Teachers is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

In what Eklund jokingly termed a "death struggle" with the Portland Oregonian he said "they picked up the two quotes at Monmouth that they liked I guess, because they used them and left the others out."

The two quotations were that Ek-

Berg's to Preview Latest Styles For Coeds Here This Afternoon

University women are invited to see the latest in coed fashions at the style show to be presented by Charles F. Berg of Portland at 3:45 today in Alumni Hall, Gerlinger.

Berg's are bringing their newest clothes and their own models for the event.

The show is divided into six parts, "Spring Term at the U," "Fashions Directed to Spring Vacation," "Summer," "Checks," "After 5 Fashions," and "Trousseau." Campus cottons, summer play clothes, and new short formals are a few of the items to be highlighted.

At least 500 women are expected to attend the hour-long fashion preview, according to Janice Hughes, chairman of the affair. A tea will follow the show, with Betty Boner in charge.

Sponsoring organizations are the Associated Women Students, Women's Athletic Association, and the YWCA. The style show is being held in conjunction with the organizations' elections which take place today.

Speech Finalists Chosen for Contest Tonight

Six finalists were selected in Tuesday afternoon's preliminary contest for the All-University Ex-temporaneous speaking contest. Finals will be held tonight at 8 in 104 Villard.

Prizes of $50, $30 and $20 will be presented from the Jewett fund to the first, second, and third place winners in the final contest tonight. Subject of the speeches is "American Foreign Policy."

Finalists are Dick Dahlberg, sophomore in liberal arts; Nancy A. O'Conner, freshman in liberal arts; Leland Johnson, sophomore in pre-law; Don Collin, freshman in liberal arts; Bill Lees, freshman in liberal arts, and George DeBell, sophomore in liberal arts.

Contestants will prepare on the subject generally, giving particular attention to the areas where American interests are vitally concerned.

Forty-five minutes before speaking time each contestant will be allowed to choose one out of three topics within the general question.

Judges will be University faculty members. Judging is based on the quality of content, ability to organize, establishment of a point of view, and facility in speaking techniques.

Mixer Welcomes Foreign Students

The Lemon-Orange Squeeze has been included on the agenda of the more than fifty foreign students who will be on the Oregon campus this week end for the International Fun Fest.

Bill Carey, president of the Junior Interfraternity Council, announced that all of the foreign students are invited to attend the Lemon-Orange Squeeze as guests of the Junior Panhellenic and Junior Interfraternity Council. These foreign students are representatives of countries all over the world, and are now attending school at the University of Oregon and Oregon State.

The Lemon-Orange Squeeze will be held in McArthur Court immediately following the Oregon-Oregon State basketball game Saturday night. The dance is an all-campus mixer.

Disc Jockey Invites Committee to KUGN

Tom Berry, Gerry Pearson, Jim Carter, and Norma Hultgren will appear tonight over radio station on KUGN on the Don Porter disc jockey program. These students have been working on publicity for the Lemon-Orange Squeeze and will be interviewed about the dance.

Last night the four students were interviewed by Mimi and Bob on their program over KASH.

Annual Elections on Tap For AWS, WAA, YWCA At Gerlinger Hall Today

Women will go to the polls today at 1 p.m. to choose 1950-51 officers of Associated Women Students, Women's Athletic Association, and YWCA.

Candidates for positions in the three organizations will be introduced at 12:30 in the lobby of Gerlinger Hall, where voting will continue until 6 p.m.

Further nominations may be made from the floor at the noon meeting. In keeping with tradition, there has been no preliminary campaigning.

Cards Needed

Student body cards are required in the AWS election. Only members may vote for officers of WAA and YWCA.

The slate of candidates is as follows:

For president of AWS, candidates are Eve Overback and Barbara Stevenson; secretary, Sally Stone and Marilyn Thompson; treasurer, Kay Kuckenber and Carol Udy; reporter, Betty Moshofsky and Donna Pastrouich; sergeant-at-arms, Elaine Hartung and Margaret Powne.

Seeking the position of WAA president, Nancy Kuhnawson and Phyllis Rich; secretary, Jay Frye and Joan Skordahl; treasurer, Bernice Bradley and Mary Myers; sergeant-at-arms, Joan Jacobs and Karen Terry, custodian, Barbara Bates and Nancy Brenneman.

Candidates

Candidates for president of YWCA are president, Beverly Buckley and Dolores Jeppesen; second vice president, Nancy Kuhnawson and Jackie Barbee Miller; secretary, Florence Hansen and JoAnn Gilmore; treasurer, Janice Hughes and Eleanor Johns; upperclass commission chairman, Gretchen Grondahl and Karla Van Loan.

Included in candidates for YWCA sophomore commission chairman are Mary Alice Baker and Dolores Parrish; vice chairman, Janis Evans and Joan Zener; secretary, Bonnie Birkemeier and Frances Gilmore.

Interviews of the six presidential candidates for the three groups show that all are juniors with a full slate of activities behind them.

AWS President

Eve Overback, running for the top AWS position, is now treasurer of the organization. She is also business manager of Old Oregon, vice president of Hendricks Hall, and a member of Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's honorary.

Other contender for the AWS spot, Barbara Stevenson, is an associate editor of the Oregonian, zone manager of the Emerald, a member and secretary of the Co-op Board, and one of the junior advisers in the YWCA.

When a sophomore she received the Phi Beta Kappa book award. For her freshman year Miss Stevenson was awarded the Mortor Board Plaque for having one of the three highest scholastic averages of first-year women. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta.

WAA Chief

Bonnie Gienger, present president of WAA, is seeking re-election. Last year she was sergeant-

Last year's title winner was Joan LaRue, Kappa Alpha Theta.

Swanson New YM President

David Swanson, junior in business, was elected president of the University YMCA at a membership meeting recently. The new officers will serve for one year.

Other officers elected were Bill Hempy, sophomore in education, as vice-president; Robert Biggs, sophomore in business, as secretary, and David Hobbs, sophomore in liberal arts, as treasurer.

The new officers will take office immediately and serve under the supervision of the retiring officers for the remainder of winter term. Committee chairman to serve on the Executive cabinet will be appointed soon.

A cabinet planning conference will be held early in spring term where the policy will be determined and plans laid for the coming year's program. Special attention will be given to the need for a strong organization and program in the YMCA quarters in the new Student Union Building.

lund had complimented Oregon Colleges of Education on a "basically fine and intelligent job of teacher training," and that he had been misinterpreted as attacking the dual system as it exists in Oregon.

Points listed regarding the American Federation of Teachers at Eklund's speech Tuesday were: (1) It is affiliated with organized labor, (2) It is controlled entirely by classroom teachers, (3) It is an organization of "action" rather than words, and (4) It is "intensely interested in social and economic reform."

The American Federation of Teachers was organized in 1916 to improve working conditions of teaching and to improve the educational facilities for the children.

"The school administrations cannot, in many instances, represent the right and will of the teacher," the speaker said.

A question and answer period was held after Eklund had outlined the policies of the teachers' union.

One question regarded teacher strikes.

Eklund answered, "The AFT has a no-strike policy on the national scale. It was agreed that we would not strike against the children of labor. We recognize the fact that to remove the services of education is a local problem and should be at the option of the local group."

Q—How about the children? Aren't you depriving them of education in a strike?

A—"Of course if you want to be realistic they are being deprived al-
