Class Schedule Errors Corrected

Errors in the spring term Time Schedule of Classes released Saturday resulted in incorrect listings for two courses in the use of the library.

Correct schedule for the courses is as follows:

Library 117, "Use of the Library," one credit, may be taken either on Tuesday or on Thursday at 11 a. m. This is a one-hour course designed to introduce the student to the library and help him use it more effectively in his study program.

Library 382, "Books and Reading," three credits, is offered at 11 Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. This three-hour course is a general survey of books and authors which has proved to be one of the most popular of the library courses, Librarian Carl W. Hintz stated.

Library 386, "Organization of Library materials," is listed correctly in the schedule for 4 to 5:30 Tuesday and Thursday.

Library 117 and 382 are designed for the general student and are offered in the main library. Library 386 is given in the library of University High School.

Breen to Take Sabbatical Leave

Dr. Quirinus Breen, associate professor of history and social science, will take a sabbatical leave during the spring term. He will take an automobile trip to the East, accompanied by his wife and their son, Quentin.

"My main object," Dr. Breen stated, "is to pursue my researches on Nizolius, who was a 16th century Ciceronian and radical Ockhamist. His influence was considerable in changing the style of philosophical writers from late scholastic jargon to the understandable prose of Bacon, Descartes, Hobbes, Leibnitz, and others."

Dr. Breen will spend a week in the Huntington Library and four weeks at Columbia University. En route he will stop at other universities such as North Carolina, Virginia, Princeton, Cornell, Illinois, and Chicago, for consultation with scholars in his field of study.
