Who, Me a Snob?

Why the last thing in the world you could call me is a snob—I despise snobs!

That's just the trouble, Mister, a lot of people are snobs and don't know it!

Not me—I'm a good American. Why, my people . . .

See what I mean—never mind your people. It's you we're talking about.

I don't get it!

Okay, what kind of day did you have? Bawl out any waiters? Give any dirty looks? And when you got on to politics at lunch did you start picking any race apart—make a few cracks about someone's religion? You see, that's where the trouble starts.

Well, I — I uh . . .

Look, Mister, nobody is saying that you mean to be intolerant—but every time you make a crack like that you are hurting your country's unity.

I never thought of that. Say—who are you anyway?

Your conscience.
