Walt McKinney; and Stan Turnbull will head the publicity committee.

Outside Judges

Living organizations should now be working on their entries for the Sing, Mountain advised. Entries will be eliminated to ten men's and ten women's living organizations. Two out-of-state judges will be brought in for the Sing, with one judging the men's division, the other the women's division.

Oregon traditions will be enforced during the week preceding Junior Weekend, the general chairman said. A traditions chairman will be appointed from the Order of the O. Customs include the annual tug-of-war between freshmen and sophomores (the Millrace may be used as the obstacle this year), painting of the "O" on Skinner's butte, cleaning of the Oregon seal by Villard Hall, and green ribbons for freshmen women, rooter's lids for freshmen men.

county.

Several weeks ago Dave O'Hara, state registrar of elections, was asked for an official statement. So far no answer has been received.

The Young Republicans urge all students who fulfill voter qualifications to register in Lane County if possible. If not—then register in any county in which you are eligible and cast absentee ballots, which must be requested from election officials in advance of primary election on May 19.

Young Republicans urge students to register within the next two weeks, and to support those groups which are attempting to clarify the registration procedure and allow students to vote in the county in which they are attending school.

Library Series Schedules Nagy For Wednesday

Ivan S. Nagy, professor of political science, will discuss "Modern Arms and Free Men" at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday the second of ten lectures co-sponsored by the Association of Patrons and Friends of the University and the University Library.

The first lecture, on atomic energy, was delivered by R. T. Ellickson, dean of the Graduate School and head of the Physics Department.

The "The Paradoxical Honors de Balzac" to be given by Ray R. Brown, professor emeritus of "Romance languages on Apr. 12, will be third in the series. H. H. Hoetje, professor of English, will discuss Walt Whitman's "Out of the Cradle Endlessly Rocking" on Apr. 19.

Ewart M. Baldwin, professor of geology and curator of the Condon Museum of Geology, will use slides to illustrate his talk Apr. 26 on "Korea—Lands and People."

"Poetry of William Butler Yeats" will be the subject of a lecture by Hoyt Trowbridge, professor of English, on May 3.

On May 10 Gordon Wright, professor of history, will speak on Isaac Deutscher's "Stalin." Mark Spokenburgh, instructor in art, will talk on "Sculpture of Northwest Indians" on May 17.

E. C. A. Lesch, professor of English, will speak May 24 on the "Elizabethan Revenge Tradition" in Shakespeare's Tempest.

Final lecture will be May 31 when George Hopkins, professor of piano, will discuss "When Music Was Contemporary."

Phi Theta Upsilon Taps Jan Hughes

Janice Hughes, junior in speech, was tapped by Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's service honorary, Wednesday evening at the Alpha Phi house.

Selection was made to fill a vacancy left by Ann Case upon her withdrawal from school.

Miss Hughes has been prominent in YWCA and AWS activities. She is junior adviser to the YWCA and acted as chairman for the women's fashion show put on last term by the AWS. She is also assistant house manager of the University theater and treasurer of Alpha Phi sorority.

Committee Chairmanships Open For Annual YW Jr.-Sr. Breakfast

Petitions committee chairmanships of the annual junior-senior breakfast must be submitted to the YWCA office, Gerlinger, by Wednesday, Karla Van Loan, chairman of the upper-class commission, announced Thursday.

Chairmanships for the event, sponsored by the YWCA upper-class commission, include decorations, tickets, programs, publicity, and speaker-hospitality.

Junior women will be hostesses to the graduating senior women at the annual breakfast, resumed last year after discontinuation during the war. During war years, the event was maintained as a luncheon honoring senior women.

The traditional breakfast was initiated around 1920 by Mrs. Prince L. Campbell, wife of the University president, with YWCA members as hostesses.

Speaker at last year's breakfast was Mrs. Dorothy McCullough Lee, present mayor of Portland. "The YWCA strives each year to present an outstanding woman speaker for the morning banquet," Miss Lois Greenwood, executive secretary of the YWCA, commented.

Location and committees for the event will be announced later.

Panel Hears Talks By State Educators

Ivan Niven, professor of mathematics at the University of Oregon, spoke on the topic, "What Kind of An Education Do We Want the Public Schools to Provide" at the YMCA Town Meeting Mar. 30.

Also included on the panel were Dr. Henry Gunn, president of Oregon College of Education at Monmouth, Mr. Dean Lobaugh, assistant superintendent of the Eugene Public Schools, and Mr. Frank Shearer, manager of the Eugene branch of the Mauk-Seattle Lumber Company.

The forum was moderated by Robert D. Clark, assistant to the dean at the college of liberal arts on the campus.
