

French, Sigma Halls Win Intramural

French hall gained the first intramural tennis victory of the season by topping McChesney hall yesterday by a two to one score. The teams split the doubles, but Don McClure's 6-4, 6-1 singles win gave the men from French the series.

In the first doubles, Wolfe and Chowning won for French by beating Davis and Ogle, 6-2, 6-1. McChesney garnered their lone win when Higginson and Luck topped Norval and Aplin, 5-7, 7-5, 6-0. Sigma Hall gained an easy golf win when Hunter defaulted.

for three trips to the plate. Neither Hunter or Omega fielded a squad for their scheduled meet and the game was cancelled. The Kappa Sigs tromped the Phillies 8 to 0 with Truman Jensen the winning pitcher turning one of the best performances of the afternoon. He allowed three hits but was not scored upon and brought in two of his teammates with a long four bagger.
