Grades Available Thursday for Sure

Students may pick up their grades inside the center door of Emerald Hall starting Thursday afternoon at 3 p. m., assistant registrar J. D. Kline reported yesterday.

Grades will be available at tables set up in the hall until the immediate rush is over. After that time students may get their grades directly from the Registrar's office.

Each student must appear in person to collect his grades as they will not be given to anyone but the individual owner.

Minnesota Man To Teach Here

Dr. Ralph D. Casey, director of the University of Minnesota school of journalism, will teach 1950 summer session courses in the University school of journalism.

Warren C. Price, professor of journalism, will represent the regular University journalism staff during the summer.

Public opinion and problems of international communications are specialties of Dr. Casey, who was a member of the journalism faculty here from 1922 to 1928. This will be his first visit to the campus since 1928.

Dr. Casey has also accepted an invitation to speak to the Oregon Newspaper Publishers association June 15, 16, and 17 at Coos Bay and North Bend.

Summer work away from Eugene is planned by two members of the school of journalism faculty. Laurence R. Campbell, professor of journalism, will teach in Cornell university, Ithaca, New York. Ray Johnson, instructor in journalism, will work under an internship at radio station KNBC in San Francisco.

WSSF maintains rest centers for students who are physically run down.

Armory Slates Vaudeville Acts

The Hollywood Blackouts will present a one-hour show at the armory in Eugene from 9 to 10 p. m. Friday, Apr. 17.

The vaudeville show will include singers, dancers, comedians and novelty acts. Dancing to the music of Dick Taylor and his "Taylor Made Music" will be held following the entertainment until 1 a. m.

Featured in the vaudeville show will be music by Ben Frommer who is more popularly known as the voice of Bugs Bunny of Warner Brothers cartoon series. Other stars include Lynn Johnson, a member of the original Spike Jones unit, and the Martinettes, modern dancers. Johnson will present his latest novelty act, "Hollywood Baby Sitter."

Tickets may be purchased at Thompson's downtown store. Admission is $1 plus tax and $1.50 for reserved seats.

KOAC to Feature Lenten Radio Show

The cast of "The Other Wise Man," a Lenton radio drama, was announced today by the Radio Workshop of the speech department. The play is to be presented Thursday, Apr. 6, over KOAC.

The cast includes: Narrator, Paul Wexler; Artaban, Ken Neal; Abgarus, Jim Blue; Tigranus, Dick Hardje; and Thodaspes, Dick Zarnes.

Other players are Alan Hicks, Janet Harris, John Roanees, and Elmarie Wendell.

The action occurs in Palestine during Biblical times.

Another announcement by the radio division stated that "Invitation to Read," a book review session with Dr. Alburey Castell of the philosophy department, would return to KOAC after a two weeks absence. The first broadcast will be Wednesday, Apr. 5, following "Faculty Music Hour." The music program will start at 6:15 p. m. with Dr. Castell coming on a half hour later.

Russ Comedy Slated for May

"Russian Spring," a musical comedy with Russian dialogue and English subtitles, will be presented for two showings, at 3:30 and 7:30 p. m., May 2, in 207, Chapman Hall.

Nicolai Cherkassov, who starred in "Ivan the Terrible," stars with Lubov Orlova in "Russian Spring." Gregory Alexandrov directed the picture, and music is by I. Dunayevsky. The Corps de Ballet of the Grand Theater of Moscow, directed by K. Goleyzovski, is featured.

The story concerns a Russian movie director who sets out to film the life of a woman scientist who has no use for the theater.

"Russian Spring," produced in 1947, was awarded first prize at Venice in an International Film Festival for the most original story of the year.

Accountants Wanted

Civil Service examinations will be held for accountant positions. Minimum starting pay is $3,100. Applications must be filed before Apr. 10. Application blanks and further details may be obtained from Mr. Monegan, 204 Commerce.

Library Staff Plans Movie for Funds

"Things To Come," starring Raymond Massey and Sir Cedric Hardwick, will be shown Apr. 11 in 207 Chapman.

The movie will be sponsored by the Library Staff Association to help finance furnishings for the staff room. Showings at 4, 7, and 9 p. m. are planned. Admission is 25 cents.

The H. G. Well's production which tells about tangible things to come, such as glass cities and thousand-passenger airplanes, has caused considerable comment during past showings.

Corrections...

Elimination tryouts for living groups entering the All-Campus Vodvil will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, Apr. 11 and 12, instead of Monday and Tuesday as stated in this Monday's Emerald.

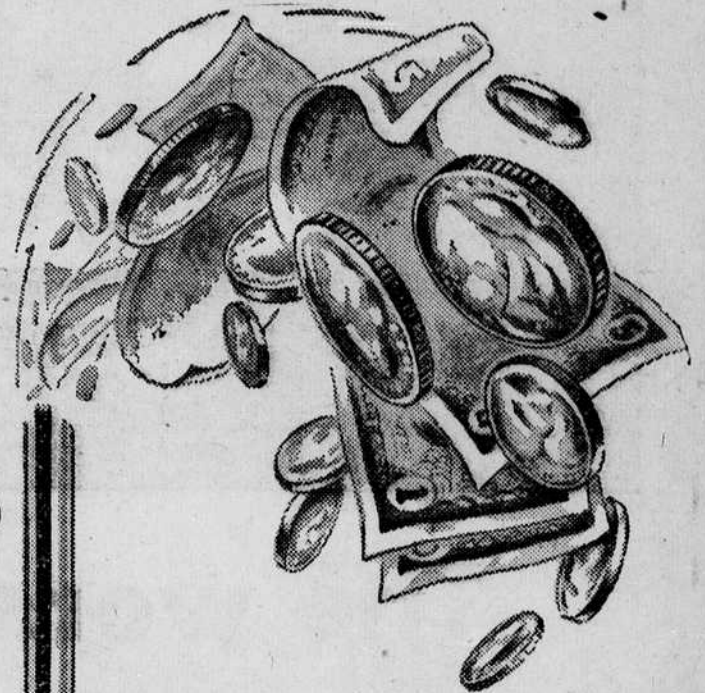

Postcards were sent out Tuesday notifying living organizations of their schedule for tryouts. House chairmen were asked to return cards listing their organization's theme for the show by Thursday.

It was also stated in yesterday's Emerald that Bruce Keller is the new president of the Future Teachers of Oregon. Actually, Bruce E. Nelson is holding that office.
