

Jr-Sr Breakfast Needs Chairman

Petitions for committee chairmanships for the annual Junior-Senior breakfast Apr. 30, are due today, Karla Van Loan, YWCA upperclass commission chairman, announced Wednesday.

Sophomores and juniors are eligible for positions. Petitions may be submitted to the YWCA office, Gerlinger.

Chairmanships available include tickets, programs, publicity, decorations, and speaker-hospitality.

Time and location of the event will be announced later.

The annual breakfast is sponsored by the YWCA upperclass commission, with junior women traditionally serving as hostesses to graduating seniors.

WSSF helps in the placement of D.P. students, by finding openings for them in universities in the United States, Canada, England, and South America.

Town Hall Slates Atomic Discussion

"Atomic Energy in the Modern World," will be the topic for discussion at the first meeting of "University Town Hall," sponsored jointly by the YMCA, YWCA, and International Relations Club, scheduled for 7:30, Apr. 12, in the YMCA building.

Participating in the discussion will be Alburey Castell, head of the Philosophy Department; E. G. Ebighausen, professor of physics; and R. A. Littman, professor of psychology. Moderator will be K.

E. Montgomery, professor of speech.

The meetings, to be presented twice a month, are aimed primarily at the student audience, but are open to any interested townspeople.

A supply of new textbooks, purchased through the offices of CARE, has just been forwarded from New York to the students of Indonesia for World Student Relief.

Musicians' Union

In addition, Spaeth cited several instances of union "featherbedding" where stand-by musicians from local unions had to be hired by a concert troupe when playing in a town.

Dr. Spaeth is on an extended lecture tour of the West Coast during a vacation from regular work with the Metropolitan Opera Association. His next engagement is in Corvallis, after which he will fill engagements in Southern California and Hawaii.

HOW TO COMMIT SUICIDE

No not you! — but possibly your country. Nations have collapsed before because they allowed disunity to destroy them.

Why do we love America? Because, under our form of government, the individual — and that means you — is considered important.

But this works two ways. If we want to be secure in our own right, each of us must be willing to respect the rights of others.

If we discriminate against other people for any reason, we'll soon find others discriminating against us. Then what will we have? A family squabble — national disunity — and the enemies of our system laughing up their sleeves.

Make sure you are not spreading rumors against a race or a religion. Speak up, wherever you are, against prejudice, and work for better understanding. Remember, that's being a good American citizen.

Accept or reject people on their individual worth
