

University Singers to End Tour With Tuesday Night Concert

The University Singers will give a concert at 8 p. m. next Tuesday in the School of Music Auditorium, climaxing their recent six-day tour.

Director of the 40 singers is Donald W. Allton, professor of organ and theory.

A number sung for the first time in the Northwest, "De Lord God-A-Mighty's on His Throne," by the American composer Mitchell B. Southall will be included in the program.

Solo selections will be sung by Baritone Ealter Martin, sophomore in music. Also included will be songs by a small group of singers who have studied the madrigal style of the 16th and 17th centuries.

The group will sing at Harrisburg High School Apr. 14. During their tour they gave programs in Bend, Burns, Ontario, Baker, Pendleton, Sweet Home, Prineville, Redmond, Milton-Freewater, Portland, and Walla Walla, Wash.

Accompanist is Ann Hopper, assisted by Miss Adler.

Education Ass'n Elects Dougherty to Position

D. M. Dougherty, head of the foreign language section of the Oregon and for two years chairman of the Foreign Language section of the Oregon Education Association, was elected co-chairman of the section for the next year at a Portland meeting Monday.

The Oregon Education Association held its annual meeting in Portland early this week. The foreign language section was one of 16 meetings for subject-field and special-interest groups.

Shibley Award Subject of Meet

D. F. Swinehart, professor of chemistry, and five chemistry majors will attend the college section of the Technical Association of the Pulp and Paper Industry today at Camas, Wash.

Charlotte Herzog, Jack M. Fahrmer, James Fulton, William C. Wisner, and Carolyn Twist are making the trip.

Possibilities of employment will be discussed at the meeting. In addition, the students will tour the chemical division of the Crown-Zellerbach plant.

The subject of the general meeting will be the Annual Shibley Award in which junior technical men of the industry will present papers on original work they are doing.

In addition to the Shibley contest, a paper will be presented by F. E. West, professor of chemical engineering, University of Washington, on the "Design of Packed Absorption Towers."

Cash prizes for an original caption to a picture posted in the Co-op book store are being offered by Doubleday & Company publishers. The picture and caption is of the type included in a satire, "Campus Zoo," to be released May 1.

A $100 first prize and $50, $25, and $5 second, third and fourth prizes, and 100 autographed copies of "Campus Zoo" will be awarded to students submitting the best titles. Judges will be Ken McCormick, of Doubleday, and Clare Barnes, Jr., author of the satire.

In "Campus Zoo" Mr. Barnes has turned out a "year book" of campus activities designed to bring chuckles to both students and faculty members.

Rules of the caption contest are simple:

Entries must be submitted by June 1, and must carry the name of the school, campus address and permanent address of the contestant, and the name of the college paper in which the contest was announced. Captions should be no more than 15 words.

Entries must be submitted to "Campus Zoo Editor," Doubleday & Co., 14 W. 29th St., New York, 20.

Entrance Tests Set For Medical School

Medical college admission tests for students wishing to enter in fall, 1951, will be given May 13. Applications must reach the Educational Testing Service, P. O. Box 592, Princeton, N. J.

Application blanks are available in 1 McClure. Test scores will be sent to recognized medical colleges named by the candidates on their applications.

Top Vodvil Winners To Receive Trophies

"South Pacific or Some Obnoxious Evening" will be enacted by Phi Beta Phi while Phi Gamma Delta will tell "The Strangest Thing I Ever Saw."

Program Chairman Gretchen Grondahl reminds the organizations that they are to furnish their own costumes and props, and should have them for eliminations. At that time lighting and stage effects may be arranged with the stage committee.

Ticket price for the Vodvil will be 50 cents. Ducats will go on sale in the Co-op and houses next week, Chairman Ann Darby said. All proceeds from the Vodvil will go to the World Student Service Fund.

"Jumbo" trophies will be presented to first and second place winners in the All-Campus Vodvil next Friday, Judy Rowes, awards chairman, said Thursday.

Going to the best individual performer will be an inscribed Ronson table lighter.

Among theme ideas which will materialize in eliminations next Tuesday and Wednesday nights at 6:30 in Gerlinger Annex are Sigma Alpha Mu's "Sam Shovel—Private Eye," and "Dancing in the Dark," by Alpha Xi Delta.

Art School Shows Designing Display

The School of Architecture and Allied Arts is now showing an exhibition entitled "Training Designers."

The material is sponsored by the American Federation of Arts and will be exhibited at the gallery through Apr. 21.
