

Auction Contributes $120 to WSSF Fund

The World Student Service Fund drive was upped $120 by Friday's auction, Chairman Tom Barry reported.

The Kappa Alpha Theta's, purchased by Sigma Phi Epsilon, brought $44, while Pi Beta Phi went to Phi Delta Theta for $42. The Sigma Phi Epsilons were auctioned to Alpha Chi Omega for $19.

Thetas, Pi Phis, and Sig Eps will serve as table waiters for their purchases on a date agreeable to both.

Miscellaneous items donated by Elmer Wick's Service Station, Fennell's, the University Man's Shop, and Westgate Shop, drew $15. Dick Neely was auctioneer. Curt Finch and his Pep Band provided entertainment.

USA Plans Appointments

Committees for spring term elections will be appointed Tuesday, the USA council announced at a meeting Thursday.

All students, independent or affiliated, who are interested are asked to be present. Working committees will begin to function at that time.

Students to Travel In Latin Countries

An accredited tour of South America, sponsored by the Columbia University Travel Service, is scheduled for the coming summer.

Dr. Paul E. Baker, dean of men at Boise Junior College will conduct the tour, which will leave from New York early in July. Tourists will return in August.

The itinerary includes travel by boat to Buenos Aires, by air across Chile and up the west coast of Panama. The main purpose of the tour is to study the economic, political, and cultural situation in South America.

Six credits applicable at Boise Junior College and transferable to other schools will be given. Students are required only to keep a notebook of experiences.

Students interested may write to Dean Baker, Boise Junior College, Boise Idaho, for reservations.

Jr.-Sr. Breakfast Heads Appointed

Committee chairmen for the annual junior-senior breakfast were announced Sunday by Karl Van Loan.

The breakfast will be held in the new Carson Hall dining room, Sunday morning, Apr. 30.

Chairmen are Petermarie Pendergast, Jean Hilton, decorations; B. J. Boner, tickets; Barbara Clerin, Pat Johnson, programs; Kay Kuckenbergl, speaker-hospitality; Jackie Pritzen, publicity.

Chairmen will meet today at 4 p. m. in the YWCA, Gerlinger, to formulate committee procedures.

Speaker for the annual event has not been announced. Last year's speaker was Dorothy McCullough Lee, present mayor of Portland.

At Chungking Student Center, which is assisted by funds from World Student Relief, a dining hall for T.B. students has been set up to provide a medically recommended diet.

During February approximately 200 students among displaced persons were daily supplied with meals at the Innsbruck Students' Barracks, in Austria, which are operated by World Student Relief.

Philosopher to Talk At Journal Meeting

Arthur Pap, professor of philosophy, will speak on "Semantics and Contemporary Philosophy" at the first spring term meeting of the Journal club, to be held at 8 p. m., Tuesday, in the Men's Lounge at Gerlinger Hall.

Students, faculty and other interested persons may attend the meeting and participate in the informal discussion which will follow the lecture.

History Professor Contributes to Book

Dr. Arthur C. Hearn, a California educator, has been appointed associate professor of education here at the University, according to Dr. P. B. Jacobson, dean of the school of education.

Beginning next fall, Dr. Hearn will teach an introductory course in education in American life, and graduate courses for prospective high school principals.

Dr. Hearn, who received his doctor's degree from Stanford university, is currently principal of Coal-inga high school in California. He is also an author of numerous articles which have appeared in educational journals.

U.O. Delegates To Attend N.W. Religious Meet

Two University of Oregon delegates will participate in the third annual Northwest Conference on Religion in Higher Education, Apr. 14 and 15, at Pacific University, Forest Grove.

Thom Hunter, director of Westminster House, Presbyterian student foundation, will be chairman of a meeting for pastors, directors, and advisors. They will discuss "Capturing the Campus Intellectual Leadership."

In a meeting for classroom teachers, Dr. N. P. Jacobson, acting head of the department of religion, will speak on "The Introductory Course in Religion at the University of Oregon."

The purpose of the conference will be to unite all those related to religion in higher education, regardless of denomination, for a consideration of common tasks and objectives.

Tyler Plays Wednesday

T. Texas Tyler and his western band will play at Willamette Park in Eugene on Apr. 12. Admission is $1 plus tax.
