

Ox-Bow Incident Tonight's Picture

"The Ox-Bow Incident" will be shown in 207 Chapman at 7 and 9 this evening in the Wednesday night movie series.

The 20th Century Fox production, starring Henry Fonda and Dana Andrews, is described as a realistic and brutal study of lynchings and the tragedy of mob hysteria.

Students must present their student body cards for admission to the movie, which is open to students and faculty only.

Employment Office Lists Summer Jobs

Several summer jobs are now available at the University Employment Office for interested students.

Positions are open for salesmen willing to work on a commission basis, employment in Alaska, and accountant jobs.

Interested students may contact the Student Employment office, located in the old YMCA building, 1225 Kincaid.

The downfall of many a married man comes from too much upkeep.

Kleinsorge Named To Committee Post

Dr. P. L. Kleinsorge, professor of economics, has been appointed to serve on a committee to select recipients for fellowships awarded by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco.

Ten faculty members from western states will receive the fellowships to study the bank in San Francisco, one in New York City, and the Federal Reserve Board and its actions in Washington, D. C.

The program has a twofold purpose: to better equip faculty members to teach banking and finance, and to offer them the opportunity to suggest improvements in the bank organization.

Dr. Kleinsorge and a committee of four will select the recipients.

YM to Sponsor Hunter

YMCA members and friends may attend a Y Discussion Group lead by the Rev. Thom Hunter, director of Westminster House, Presbyterian Foundation, Apr. 13 from 7 to 8 p. m. in the campus YMCA House.

Mr. Hunter will speak on "The Place of Religion in the College Student's Life."
