

Foreign Study In Switzerland Offered Juniors

Two semesters of study at Swiss Universities in Basel and Zurich during the 1950-51 school year will be open to American college juniors under the auspices of the American Council on College Study in Switzerland.

Requirements for participation in this study program include completion of the sophomore year, two years of college German, and recommendations by the student's language and major professors and by the dean or president of the student's school.

Basel and Zurich offer courses in German grammar and composition, language and literature, history, art, and advanced courses in several modern languages. The University of Basel also offers science facilities to American undergraduates.

Complete details may be obtained by writing to the American Council of College Study in Switzerland, 1123 North Eutaw St., Baltimore 1, Md.

Applications should be mailed to the above address as soon as possible in order to be considered.

Lynn to Speak On Goodrich Job Program

The retail selling and store management training program of the B. F. Goodrich Tire and Rubber Company will be explained to University student Thursday by O. K. Lynn, the company's northwest manager.

Lynn will conduct personal interviews and a general meeting at 8:30 a. m. in 216 Emerald. Interested students may arrange for interview appointments by contacting Graduate Placement Director Karl Onthank immediately.

Training includes a period of apprenticeship in one of the company's district offices, a similar period in a retail store, and a three week study program at the Goodrich home office in Akron, Ohio.

5 Awards Available To Grad Students

Three cash awards are in the offing for winners in the Failing-Beeckman Senior Oratorical contest which will be held at 8 p. m. June 9 in the University Theater.

Any graduating senior, regardless of major, is eligible to participate. The orations are not to exceed 15 minutes in length and may be on any topic that the participant selects.

Seniors planning to enter the contest should report to W. A. Dahlberg, speech professor, 210 Villard within the next two weeks. Manuscripts must be submitted by the middle of May.

Help in preparation of the oration may be procured from members of the speech department. If more than six seniors participate, there will be eliminations previous to the final contest.

First prize will be $150; second, $100; and third, $50.

AGS Reps Meet at 4

Representatives of the Associated Greek Students will meet today at 4 p. m. in the Gamma Phi Beta house.

Topics of discussion, President Hob Deuel said, will be the new ASUO constitution and a possible spring social event, sponsored by AGS.

Karl W. Onthank To Speak at Reed On April 14th

Karl W. Onthank, graduate placement director, will speak at the annual program of the International Association of Public Employment Officers at Reed College, Portland, Apr. 14.

"Employment Attitudes and Problems of Students," will be discussed by Onthank.

While in Portland he will also contact employers concerning job placement for June graduates.

B. F. Goodrich Interview

Representatives of the B. F. Goodrich Company will be on campus all day Thursday, Apr. 13.

Students interested in interviews must pick up application blanks on Apr. 12, at the Graduate Placement Office.

Help Needed for 'Martha' Crews

Adept figures are the only talents required to volunteer for the costume crew and makeup crew of the University Theater, now filling out the crews for "Martha."

Students are needed to help make costumes for the von Flowtow opera, opening Apr. 21. Also needed are people to work on the makeup crew for the production.

Anyone interested may contact Mrs. LeJeune Griffith in the Theater boxoffice, or Joan Landman at Carson Hall, for the costume crew. Mrs. Ottalie T. Seybolt, second floor of Villard, or Mrs. Griffith will take names for the makeup crew.

Foreign Trade Clinic Scheduled Thursday

A foreign trade clinic will be held at the University at 2 p. m. Thursday, in 8, Commerce. Men active in foreign trade will discuss various aspects of the field with students.

The foreign Trade Clinic is sponsored by the University of Oregon Foreign Trade Advisory Board, which consists of 24 members who advise professors on foreign trade, and are a source of contacts for students seeking jobs in foreign trade after graduation.

Spring Registration Must be Completed

Students who have not yet paid their spring term fees and have not filed proper cards with the Office of Student Affairs will have their registration cancelled if they do not report to the registrar's office by tomorrow.

Postcards will be sent to the negligent students.

High Schoolers Win Journalism Awards

Approximately 185 certificates have been sent to high school seniors in Oregon for outstanding service to the school and community as members of high school newspapers and yearbooks. They were sent by the University School of Journalism.

The Oregon Scholastic Press, which is sponsored by the Journalism school, presented "George Turnbull Certificates of Yearbook Service" to 90 deserving seniors.

"Eric W. Allen Certificates of Newspaper Service" were awarded to 95 outstanding seniors on high school newspapers.

'Atomic Energy' Talks to Start U.O. Town Hall

The University Town Hall public forum series, sponsored by the YMCA, the YWCA, and the International Relations Club, starts at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday at the YMCA Building at 1245 Kincaid.

The first meeting will feature talks on "Atomic Energy in the Modern World," by Alburey Castell, head of the Philosophy Department; E. S. Ebbighausen, professor of physics; and R. A. Littman, professor of psychology. E. K. Montgomery is moderator for the evening.

Dr. Castell will speak on the philosophical and political views of the bomb; Dr. Ebbighausen will describe its practical and materialistic scientific angles; and Dr. Littman will give some of its psychological effects on society.

Plan Question Period

After 15-minute speeches, the professors will open a question period by querying each other on different aspects. Everyone is invited to hear the discussion.

The Town Hall, started this term, plans to have meetings every two weeks at 7:30 Wednesdays, to discuss international, national, and local questions. Students' suggestions are welcome to the committee, consisting of Claire Cordier (IRC), Toby McCarrol (YMCA), and Frances Gilmore (YWCA).

The next meeting is tentatively scheduled Apr. 26. Subject will be educational problems in the University of Oregon.

Anderson Gets Position

Les Anderson, alumni director, was elected chairman of District Eight of the American Alumni Council at a meeting Apr. 6 and 7 in Spokane.

He will hold office for two years. Anderson was the only University representative at the meeting.

Traveling Opera Company to Play At Mac Court

"Opera-a-la-carte" will be presented at 8:30 p. m. Saturday in McArthur court.

So termed by Time magazine, Charles L. Wagner's traveling opera company will produce an operatic double-bill—"Cavalleria Rusticana" and "I Pagliacci."

Last autumn this same production played to seventy-six audiences throughout the East, South, and mid-West.

The Wagner company received its nickname when Time magazine noticed that it travels in two air conditioned, streamlined motor coaches—"just like a mobile delicatessen." Scenery is carried in a ten-ton trailer truck.

More than 70 persons compose the company. Paul Breisach is musical director. Stage director is Desire Defrere.

The production is sponsored by the Civic Music Association and is open to members and University students.

Phi Delta Phi Elects

Ted Goodwin, third-year law student, was elected magister of Phi Delta Phi, law fraternity, in a business meeting Monday.

Other officers elected were Warren DeLaVergne, exchequer; John Sabin, clerk, and Robert Hill, historian.

Dance Troupe Slated Monday

Modern dance compositions, ranging from the humorous to the deeply serious, will be viewed by students next Monday night when Jean Erdman, choreographer and dancer, brings her group to Gerlinger Hall.

Miss Erdman, assisted by Elizabeth Sheridan and Lillian Chasnoff, will perform nine dances. Included in the program will be numbers such as "Daughter of the Lonesome Isle," "People and Ghosts," and "Ophelia."

The School of Health and Physical Education is sponsoring the dance concert.

"The Perilous Chapel," one of Miss Erdman's more recent works, was cited as one of the three best new works to appear on the New York stage during the 1948-49 season by Dance magazine.

Tickets for the performance, at $1 each, may be obtained from members of junior and senior Orchestras, modern dance group, the women's hockey club, Phi Beta patronesses, and through the women's physical education office in Gerlinger Hall.

Bring Your Real Estate Problems to
Gilmore Realty
1219 Alder St.
Ph 42249

NORTHWESTERN SCHOOLS

Minneapolis, Minnesota
70 VOICE A CAPELLA CHOIR
First Baptist Church
Wednesday, April 12
No Admission Charge
Their First Time on the West Coast

Have a car
That runs too slow
Try Emerald classifieds
And make some dough

For you...

EXQUISITE COLOR
FAMOUS CRAFTSMANSHIP

MYSTIC
by Lenox

For you who prefer quiet charm and soft color, there is no lovelier pattern than Mystic. Tones of blue and rose banded with 24-karat gold, on the same fine translucent china as the Lenox services used in the White House, and on the Presidential yacht. Mystic, 5-piece place setting, $18.25

LENOX CHINA
AMERICA'S WORLD-FAMOUS FINE CHINA

HOFFMAN'S
... Jewelers ...
Broadway and Willamette
EUGENE, ORE.