

Council OK's, Sets Wednesday, April 26, for Student Vote

If this transfer of the "defeated candidate's" ballots raises the total of another candidate's votes over the "quota" he will be pronounced elected. After this has been done, if there are positions yet to be filled, again the one with the lowest number of votes will be considered defeated, and his ballots will be transferred to the "continuing candidates." This procedure of defeating the lowest candidate and giving his votes to the others who are still in the running will be continued until the election is ended.

Soph Chosen For Paris Trip In Junior Year

Charity Williams, sophomore in liberal arts, has been accepted in the group of students from the United States who will study at the Sorbonne in Paris next year under the "Junior Year in France" program sponsored by Sweet Briar College.

The group, limited to 75 this year, is selected from colleges and universities throughout the United States. The students are chosen on a basis of scholarship and achievement in French.

Composition

Miss Williams took her first year of French under Miss Janine Courtillon last year, then attended summer school to gain her second-year French course. She is now studying French composition and conversation and Survey of French Literature under R. L. Picard, professor of romance languages and Spanish Literature under P. J. Powers, professor of romance languages.

Perhaps Philosophy

Miss Williams, who has an accumulative GPA of 3.8, expects to study French literature and history, and possibly a course in philosophy while at the Sorbonne.

A member of Pi Delta Phi, French honorary, she lives in Hendricks Hall.

The "Junior Year in France" group will leave New York Sept. 7 aboard the Queen Elizabeth.

Elizabeth Kratt, senior in French, studied in Paris last year under the same plan.

IRC to Elect Officers For Coming Year

Next year's officers will be elected at tonight's meeting of the International Relations Club. The meeting will be held at 7:30 in the Men's Lounge of Gerlinger Hall.

Grace Sargent, regional secretary of the national IRC and delegate from the University, will be featured on the program. She will describe the national IRC convention which she attended at the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor.

National Industry Symposium Topic

"To What Extent Should We Nationalize Industry?" is the topic for discussion presented to southern Oregon listeners Monday and Tuesday by a University symposium discussion group.

Medford, Ashland and Central Point high schools will hear the speakers, as well as the Medford Rotary club.

Joe Coenenberg, Nancy L. O'Conner, and Jack Leitheiser comprise the speaking trio. R. L. Montgomery, professor of speech, is accompanying the group.

Kwama Petitions Require Pictures

Clear snapshots or photographs of the applicant must accompany petitions for membership in Kwama, sophomore women's service honorary, President Lorna Larson announced Monday.

Deadline for petitions is May 1. Freshman women with a minimum of 2.00 GPA, both cumulative and last term, may apply for membership, which is limited to 30 women.

Activity participation and scholarship are the bases for selection into the group. New members will be tapped from the freshman class at the Mortar Board Ball, May 27.

Petitions may be submitted to Miss Larson at Chi Omega.
