

Shaw Maintains GOP's, Demos Quarrel Slight

Dave C. Shaw, Democratic primary candidate for Congress from the Fourth Congressional District, said Monday that the main difference between Democrats and Republicans is in interpretation of slogans and catch-words.

Speaking to the Lane County Young Democrats and their guests at a luncheon held at the Anchorage, Shaw pointed to the Republican slogan, "What helps business helps you," and stated that it was taken, word for word, from billboard advertisements of the National Association of Manufacturers.

"The Democrats have adopted the slogan, 'What helps you helps business,'" he said. "The basic purpose of government is to serve the basic needs of all the people, not just certain small groups."

Commenting on the Republican Party's slogan "Liberty vs. Socialism," Shaw stated that everyone believes in a welfare state, but that they differ as to who is to receive the welfare.

"Do not the Republicans themselves advocate welfare when they ask for higher protective tariffs?" he asked.

"It all boils down to what Lincoln said about liberty. The sheep believe it to mean protection from the wolf. The wolf, at the same time, believes liberty to mean complete freedom to eat as many sheep as possible."

Young Republicans Elect Bill Lees Prexy

Bill Lees, freshman in Liberal arts, last week was elected president of the Oregon Young Republicans. Other officers are Don Collin, vice president, Leslie Tooze, secretary-treasurer, and Ann Fenwick and Marjory Cardwell, directors.

The next meeting is scheduled for 7 p.m. Thursday in 2 Oregon. At this time committee chairmen and committees will be appointed.

Members will discuss the state meeting of the Young Republicans to be held Sunday afternoon in Corvallis.

Seven hundred ways have been found in which people kill time. Sorry, but we can't kill the time to list them.

Catholics Begin Three-Day Retreat

Catholics begin their three-day retreat on the campus today, with all services and talks to be held in Gerlinger Annex.

Marriage is the subject for 5 p.m. talks today and Thursday. Today's lecture will be for men, and Thursday's for women, a correction for an error made in the Tuesday Emerald.

Evening discussions are scheduled for 6:30, with "Why Are We Living" as tonight's topic. Mass will be held at 7 a.m.

Speaker will be the Rev. James J. Harrington, Paulist missionary from Portland.

Rabbi's Lecture Slated Thursday

Rabbi Joseph Gitin, Temple Israel, Stockton, Cal., will discuss "The Book of Psalms" at 8 p.m. Thursday in 207 Chapman.

Rabbi Gitin's appearance is sponsored by the University Lecture Series.

He represents the Jewish Chautauqua Society, which sends lecturers to college campuses as part of a national education program.

Purpose of the program is to make authentic information concerning Judaism available to students.

Rabbi Gitin was formerly a lecturer at Buffalo, New York, Tarbut College, and was a weekly radio speaker there.

He has also been Hillel Director at the University of North Carolina, at Chapel Hill. And at one time, the speaker was the only rabbi in the state of Montana.

Rabbi Gitin is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati and of the Hebrew Union College there.

In addition to his Thursday lecture, Rabbi Gitin will speak to University religion and English classes.

Chairman of the lecture series is R. H. Ernst, professor of English.

Westminster Notice

Westminster House fellowship suppers have been moved to 6 p.m. Tuesday evenings. This marks a change from the former Thursday evening schedule.

A Hungarian tailor pleaded insanity for proposing to 18 girls, all of whom accepted. He likely went crazy trying to get out of the mess.

Work Chosen For Art Exhibit

Instructors and students in the School of Architecture and Allied Arts were among the 71 artists whose works were chosen for the annual Artists of Oregon exhibit in the Portland Art Museum. The exhibit opens Saturday.

Works chosen for the exhibition were selected by Donald Bear, director of the Santa Barbara, California Art Museum; Mitchell Jamison, art teacher at the Cornish School of Art, Seattle; and Mark Sponenburgh, professor of art at the University of Oregon. More than 600 entries were submitted.

Oregon students whose works were selected are Robert Gilmore, oil painting, "Van Gogh's Letters;" William J. Hixon, oil, "View of Val De Grace, Paris;" Lee Tillotson, oil, "Lady in Yellow Dress;" Norma Driscoll, ink drawing, "Figures;" Henry Lewis, watercolor, "Phoenix;" and Roselee Wright, oil, "Alaska Ski Hut."

Graduate students whose works were accepted are Leila M. Johnston, who entered an untitled abstract; Norma Lachelle, oil, "The Friends;" Richard Prash, oil, "Facade" casein, "The Wall," and gonache, "Night Images;" Howard Hall, oil, "The Coburgs in Autumn."

Graduate Assistant Donald C. Boyd's oil painting "Nostalgia" will be shown as well as "Fallen Tree in Park," an oil by Frederick Heidel, instructor; "Landscape Composition No. 1," oil by C. Bryan Ryan, instructor; and "Thunderbird," a cedar wood figure by Mr. Sponenburgh.

UO Sociologists To Meet at Seattle

Five members of the University Sociology Department will leave Thursday to attend the Pacific Sociological Conference Friday and Saturday at the University of Washington in Seattle.

J. V. Berreman, professor of sociology, will give a paper on "The Validity of the Escape Principle as an Explanation of Alcoholic Addiction," while John James, instructor of sociology, will tell of "Some Elements in a Theory of Small Groups."

W. T. Martin, professor of sociology, will discuss one of the papers. E. H. Moore, head of the Sociology Department, will serve as chairman of the Saturday afternoon session. The fifth University representative is J. M. Foskett, professor of sociology.

Language Reading Exams Next Week

Foreign language reading examinations for advanced degrees will be given next week.

Department heads were asked to inform the Department of Foreign Languages of the needs of the students concerned within the next 10 days.

The next opportunity for taking the examinations will be during the fifth week of summer session.

Professor's Review Published in Belgium

Chandler B. Beall, professor of romance languages, has written a book review on "La fortune du Tasse en France," published in the first 1950 issue of Les Lettres Romanes, Louvain, Belgium.

"La fortune du Tasse en France," a study in comparative literature, shows what influence an Italian Renaissance poet exercised on French literature. Beall's review is very favorable to the book, which was published in 1942.

Nine PE Instructors Attend Dallas Meet

Nine members of the School of Health and Physical Education faculty are attending the National Conference of Health, Physical Education and Recreation being held at Dallas, Tex., April 17-20.

The faculty members attending the conference are Dean R. W. Leighton, P. R. Washke, F. E. Haar, P. O. Segereth, H. V. Meredith, Janet Woodruff, Rosamond Wentworth, Margaret Poley, and Mrs. Jennelle Moorhead.

The professors went directly to Dallas from Boise, Idaho, where they attended the Northwest Conference of Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

Phi Theta Applications

Membership applications for Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's service honorary, are due by 5 p.m. Thursday.

The applications must be turned in to Ruth Landry at the Alpha Phi house or Leslie Tooze, Kappa Alpha Theta.

A western town has a traveling classroom. It's a way of keeping up with the geography during a dust storm.

TODAY'S STAFF

Managing editor: Glenn Gillespie.
Desk editor: Bill Frye.
Copy desk: Jean Lewis, Sarah Turnbull, Marcille Wallace.

NIGHT STAFF

Night editor: Rusty Holcomb.
Night staff: Delvan Miles, Rocky Gill, Dolores Parrish, Pat Choat, Jerry Tucker, Ann Ostenson.

'Martha' to Open At Theater Friday

Frederich von Flotow's opera "Martha" will open Friday at 8 p.m. in the University Theater.

Tickets for the production are now on sale at the theater box office, and are priced at $1, including tax. Tickets may be reserved by calling Ext. 401. The opera will run five days, Apr. 21, 22, 27, 28, and 29.

An interview of James Kays, who has a leading part in "Martha", appears on page 3 of today's Emerald.

How much lovelier can a girl look? She's your

"MISS FASHION PLATE OF 1950"

GRACE HOFFMAN

Here she is! The girl you chose as Revlon's "Miss Fashion Plate of 1950". She's just won a year's supply of Revlon cosmetics FREE!

And she's the girl who has a chance to become "Miss Fashion Plate of 1950" for the whole United States! She'll compete in this Revlon-sponsored contest with candidates from colleges and universities from coast to coast for the Grand Prize... a glamorous trip to Bermuda by Pan American Clipper, including an expense-free week at the famous "Castle Harbour" ...and seven other thrilling prizes: an RCA-Victor portable radio; a Lane Hope Chest; an Amelia Earhart Party Case in "Revlon Red" leather; a necklace, bracelet and earring set by Trifari; a silver-plated lighter, cigarette urn and tray set by Ronson; a year's supply of Berkshire nylon stockings; a Wittnauer wrist watch!

You all know a winner because you picked a winner! She's another lovely example of why so many girls and women ...to look their loveliest... always look to Revlon.

ALOHA

HAWAIIAN SPORT SHIRTS

FENNELL'S

CAMPUS SHOP

Come in and Say "ALOHA"