

You'll See Them Today

HERE THEY ARE AGAIN. So you'll know what to look for, the Woman of Mystery and Man of Distinction are pictured again. These two will appear on campus today, and Friday, between classes. A morning appearance is set for 10:50, and they'll be seen again at 2:50 in the afternoon. The Man of Distinction will also be interviewed on three record programs tonight.

Mysterious Pair

(Continued from page one) record programs. That's tonight at 10:45 on KERG; after 10:30 on KASH; and after 11 on KUGN.

Who Are They?

The more common Men of Distinction are usually found within a slick magazine grog advertisement. Not so with this particular Man of Distinction. Nothing so common and ordinary.

No, the Oregon Man of Distinction is right here on the campus, waiting to perform his mission. Who is this handsome, smoothly-dressed gentleman? And who is his beautiful and mysterious companion? What will happen when the purpose of their visit here is disclosed? The Man of Distinction wouldn't comment on that question, either.

Listen Tonight

"Listen to my radio debut tonight," he advised. "I may give you a clue or two."

After answering questions for half an hour, the Man of Distinction asked to be excused. "I've got a date with the Woman of Mystery," he sighed. "We've got big plans to talk over."

And with that, the Man of Distinction faded into the shadows. Watch for those two. They'll be on the campus today.

Religious Council To Discuss WSSF

The University Religious Council will meet at 4 p.m. today at Westminster House.

Miss Gladys Lawther, Regional YWCA secretary from Portland will speak to the council on the recent World Student Service Fund and improvement of future drives.

All members of the council were requested to attend the meeting.

Council president Frank Cothrell said that since a membership chairman has not yet been appointed, the council has been unable to send reminders to the members as in the past.

Eve Overback, recently elected corresponding secretary of the group has submitted her resignation. The council will elect a successor at this meeting.

Henson Warns On Caps, Gowns

A warning was issued to graduating seniors by G. L. Henson, manager of the University Co-op, Wednesday.

Caps and gowns for graduation, usually ordered from Berkeley, Calif., are being back-ordered from as far east as Iowa this year. The reason for the shortage is the great demand throughout the country caused by the unusually large graduating classes, Mr. Henson said.

Although the absolute deadline on placing orders at the Co-op has not yet been set, Mr. Henson asked all seniors who can possibly do so to order their caps and gowns immediately. Early ordering will avoid last-minute delays and give sufficient time to make further re-orders if necessary.

Mr. Henson stressed that orders are being taken now at the Co-op, and said that it is important that all seniors who are certain of graduation take advantage of this early opportunity to order.

Frosh Counselors Meet Today at Y

Prospective Freshman Counselors in the YWCA program will meet at 4 p.m. today at the Y.

This is the first of two or three such meetings, intended for orientation of next year's counselors. All counselors are expected to attend at least one of the meetings, according to Co-chairman Carolyn Silva.

Duties of counselors and plans for next year's program will be explained. Other meetings will be held after Junior Weekend.

SU Petitions to Go To Committee Saturday

Petitions of candidates for the Student Union Board will be in the hands of the joint ASUO-Student Union committee by Saturday, according to the Student Office.

The committee will then set up an interview schedule for the candidates. Petitions will be turned over to President Newburn about May 18 for final approval.

MASTER'S CAP GOWN AND HOOD

For Sale

A practically new outfit made of all wool material.

$20.00

U of O Co-op Store

CAMPUS CALENDAR

4 p.m. AGS meeting at Alpha Delta Pi house.
6:30 p.m. Mortar Board Ball Chairmen, Alpha Chi Omega.
7 p.m. Kwama, Alpha Chi Omega.

Orchid Sale Today

Orchid corsages for Junior Weekend may be ordered this week from members of Gamma Alpha Chi, women's advertising fraternity, Virginia Kellogg, publicity chairman reported Wednesday.

The corsages, priced at $1.75, will be made up of seven baby orchids. Members will accept orders in the Co-op and in living organizations this week, with delivery Junior Weekend Saturday.

Today's Emerald is the annual special edition for Mothers' Weekend, which will be held in conjunction with Junior Weekend May 12-14.

An extra 1,500 copies of the paper will be sent to Oregon mothers to inform them of Mothers Weekend and invite them to the campus.

Austrian to Present Organ Recital at 8

Ernest Lutz, an exchange student from Vienna, Austria, will present an organ recital at 8 p.m. today in the Music School Auditorium.

The program will consist of works of Johann Sebastian Bach. Featured will be a sonata for organ and two violins.

Assisting Lutz will be Ann Kafoury and Ellen Liebe, sophomores in music.

Journal Club to Hear Language Professor

The second spring term meeting of the Foreign Language Department's Journal Club, to be held at 8 p.m., tonight, in the Men's Lounge at Gerlinger, will feature Bernardo Gicovate, professor of Romance Languages, as speaker.

Gicovate will talk on "The Poetry of Julio Herrera y Reidsig," a modernist poet of Uruguay.

The public may hear the lecture and join the discussion.

MAGNETIC TAPE RECORDER
For Rent
U of O CO-OP STORE

You will Always Find The Best Fish and Seafoods AT NEWMAN'S FISH MARKET
39 E. Broadway
Dial 4-2371

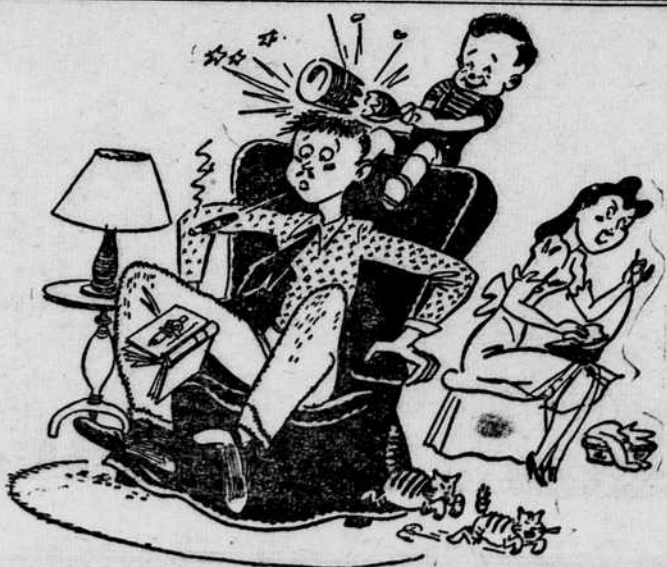

CHARLIE BARNETT BRINGS

Melody Magic to your Junior Prom
Don't Miss It!

Entertainment Enterprises—Eugene—Presents

CASTLE JAZZ BAND

Popular demand—Repeat Performance
WILLAMETTE PARK—Tomorrow Night
See "BATTLE OF THE DANCES"
Charleston of 1920 vs. Modern Dances of 1950
Valuable Prizes for winners
DIXIELAND IS BACK—BOPPIN'—BE BOP—
TICKETS AND RESERVATIONS NOW at
THOMPSON'S RECORD SHOP, 29 East 8th
RADIO LAB, CAMPUS, 768 East 11th
ADMISSION $1.00 plus tax—GET YOURS NOW
IT'S DIXIELAND MUSIC AT ITS BEST!
EVERYBODY'S DANCING IT NOW!

JUNIOR-

Don't break that vase

We were going to sell it through
EMERALD CLASSIFIEDS

THEY GET RESULTS