

KUGN to Air 49's Top Songs

Last year's winning all-campus songs will be broadcast on Don Porter's "Swing Soiree" at 11 tonight on KUGN.

In addition, interviews are scheduled with Curt Finch, song leader of Sigma Phi Epsilon, last year's winning fraternity, Ann Kafoury, song leader of Alpha Phi, last year's winning sorority, Tom Barry, Junior Weekend radio promotion chairman, Joan Fitzmaurice, all campus sing chairman, and Ann Gillenwaters, all campus sing adviser.

The Sig Eps' winning number last year was "Were You There?" and Alpha Phi's song was the "Waltz of the Flowers."

AGS Reinstates

"The results of the poll will be used as a point of information in selecting AGS candidates for student body elections.

Dues of five dollars were voted at the meeting to meet AGS expenses.

Purpose is to acquaint senior women with the association.

Sosh Session

By JACK LANDRUD

Well, the house dance season is upon us, and guys are knocking themselves out trying to borrow a white dinner jacket or dig up a Buck Rogers costume, while the gals are determined to look luscious from under an Indian's warpaint or clown's bloomers.

Being totally unable to get a date, yours truly spent last weekend visiting other house dances enviously watching other guys make out—their costumes and decorations. All themes seemed to be carried out very cleverly, especially the Sammies "Westward Hay," where a real, honest (cross my heart) horse was munching hay in the front yard.

Along with all this deluge of color, pins of all shapes were changing hands, and—but let's get down to facts!

Carson Hall has been a hotbed of activity lately and boasts many additions to the pinned list, including Mary Lou Bittman and Delt Vern Beard, songstress Joy Grimstad and Phi Kappa Sig Millary Kinney, and Myrna Blizard and Phi Sigma Kappa Don King.

An then there's DG Bobbie Jones and Fiji Don Stark who climaxed

Tug-of-War

(Continued from page one) will be excused from wearing rooters' lids on the campus Saturday (only). If the sophs win, the freshmen must submit to tradition and wear the lids Saturday as well as during the rest of the week preceding the Weekend. A cup will be awarded to the winning class.

Monday's weighing-in ceremonies will be held in order to insure evenly-matched teams, Mountain said. The festivities will be conducted by campus co-eds, and will feature "lots of yelling."

Class bands and cheering sections will urge their teams on at the final contest next week. All arrangements are being handled by freshman and sophomore class officers.

Further information may be obtained from Larry Hull, Order of "O" representative, at Alpha Tau Omega. He will act in a supervisory capacity.

many weeks of steady courtin' by trading jools.

Down Millrace way, the Gamma Phi's report almost daily visits from about five neighborhood kids who are hunting for beer bottles—empty ones, that is—in order to collect the refund. The girls can't understand why THEY are asked for bottles, so they always refer the little ones to the Beta house.

ADPi Connie Reese recently latched onto the hardware of Delt Bud Anderson, as did Tri-Delt Jo-Ann Priaulx to Willamette Sig Joe Bonawitz, and Alpha Gam Jo Loper to Phi Kappa Sig Gene Deutschman.

Portlanders will be interested to hear that Brad Blaine, formerly from Grant High school, is the new Junior Class President at Stanford University, and Delight Kolar, an ex-Oregon PiPhi from Lincoln High school, is the recently elected Sophomore Class Secretary at the same Palo Alto school.

Room eight in the Theta house has three awfully starry-eyed occupants these days. Within 48 hours Lois Nathan won the White Cross of Sigma Chi John Holden, Molly McWaters made a similar transaction with ATO Gordon Edwards, and Jean Bell announced her engagement to Kappa Sig Don Ausland.

PiPhi house prexy Barbara Sundet furthered relations with her across-the-street-neighbors, the Phi Delt by claiming the badge of Rog Wagner, and ChiO headwoman Paula Castle recently accepted the insignia of Sigma Nu Dean Davis.

What strange power does Alfafee Mary Aiken have which enables her to lure a young man all the way up here from Stanford for her house dance?

ADPi Dorothy Cleaver recently gave in when SigEp Dick Runyard offered her crest, as did AlphaGam Dottie Gangnath to Bob Peterson.

Whatzallthizabout H and ricks Hall's Barbara Hendren throwing a box of pep cereal into the gravy bowl while on a flying speech at the Sigma Nu house, and thereby splashing gravy all over the cashmere sweater of astonished Bill Briot?

And last, but certainly not least, is ChiO Bev Ostrum and Sig Bill Young who made it official by trading jewelry again.

Liberal Arts Position On SU Board Open

Petitions for a new opening on the Student Union Board are available at the Union offices beginning today. The opening was created by the recent resignation of Pat Boyle, sophomore in liberal arts.

The post will be filled by a junior in the College of Liberal Arts. The term includes the rest of this year and all of next.

Petitions will be accepted at the Student Union Offices until 5 p.m. May 10.
