Groups to Submit Officers' Names

All campus organizations recognized by the Student Affairs Committee have been asked to submit the names of their officers and advisers for the 1950-51 school year to the Office of Student Affairs.

Dick Williams, secretary of the Student Affairs Committee, said the request is the result of a motion passed by the committee last January to the effect that each spring all organizations are to submit the names of their officers and advisers for the following school year.

The motion does not affect living organizations. Names are due in by June 9.

June 11 Deadline For Grad Details

Graduating seniors must complete all details pertaining to commencement by June 11, Mrs. Frances Roth of the Registrar's Office has announced.

May 15 is the deadline for ordering commencement announcements and caps and gowns at the Co-op. Degree fees and other debts owed the University must be paid by June 1. Degrees cannot be granted until final clearance is obtained from the Registrar and Cashier.

Between May 22 and June 11, arrangements must be made with the Alumni Office for information on participation in the commencement events, guest tickets, and filing of permanent records.

At the present time, 1800 students have filed degree applications with the Registrar's Office, Mrs. Roth said.

Millrace Filled; Will Again Flow During U. O. Junior Weekend

Junior Weekend will see the famous Millrace for the first time in five years when the festivities start Friday. The stream-bed was filled last Saturday morning and will remain full until early next week.

The race had been shut down to allow construction of the new six-story Manor Apartment building on Ferry Street. It must be emptied again next week to allow construction of a tunnel under the race connecting the new steam plant with the campus.

The noted "Canoe Fete," which in years past was the center of Junior Weekend festivities, cannot be held on the race, this year because of the poor condition of the area around the Anchorage. However, the "Old Millrace" will enter into the program in the form of an obstacle for the Frosh-Soph tug-of-war.

The race will open again this summer about the end of June if the tunnel construction proceeds according to schedule.

Major Nathan Adams, Auburn '40 Personnel Manager, U.S. Air Force

Following a three month course, Lt. Adams decided the Air Force was the place for him. He applied for pilot training, was accepted, proceeded to Maxwell Field.

He won his wings and reported to the 36th Fighter Group in Puerto Rico. The group soon returned to the States, giving Adams a chance to marry his college sweetheart.

Within months Adams was overseas, flying "rhubarbs" (missions against enemy transport). He flew 63 P-47 missions within seven months, returned to the States late in 1944 for rest and recuperation.

V-J Day came, and Adams decided to make the service a career. He chose personnel work as his career field, was assigned for training to the Adjutant General's School at Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia.

Now a regular Air Force Major, he heads a 32-man section at Bolling Air Force Base. He advises his Commanding Officer on selection, assignment and promotion of all officers and airmen in the command.

If you are single, between the ages of 20 and 26½, with at least two years of college, consider the many career opportunities as a pilot or navigator in the U. S. Air Force.
