

23 Students Nominated For U.O. Radio Awards

Twenty-three radio students have been nominated as candidates for University radio achievement awards.

Five trophies will be presented to students receiving the largest number of credits in each division. A classification committee will approve nominations and refer them to a panel of judges.

Representatives of radio stations KERG, KASH, KORE and KUGN and John Wald, the Richfield Reporter, will judge the contest. The stations and the Richfield Reporter are also sponsoring the awards.

The five winners will be announced later this month, before the presentation banquet. Luke Roberts, Educational director of KOIN, Portland will be guest speaker. Trophies will be on display in the Co-op.

The contest was sponsored to promote competition in University radio work, and to show appreciation to students showing the most ambition and talent.

Students nominated include: Outstanding Achievement Award, Richfield Reporter—Terry

Roseen, Jack Vaughn, Bob Hinz, Don Frost, Dick Hardie, Jane Clark, Jim Blue, and Bob M. Roberts.

Outstanding Contribution in the Field of Production, KUGN—Bob Crites, Terry Roseen, Jack Vaughn, Don Frost, Dick Zarones, Bob Hinz, Ken Neal, Jane Clark, and Glenn Gillespie.

Outstanding Contribution in the Field of Radio Writing, KASH—Jack Vaughn, Dick Hardie, Bob Hinz, Ken Neal, Jane Clark, and Glenn Gillespie.

Outstanding Male Performer, KERG—Dick Zarones, Terry Roseen, Cliff James, Dick Hardie, Bob Roberts, Paul Wexler, Jim Blue, Ken Neal, and Dick Rayburn.

Outstanding Female Performer, KORE—Elmarie Wendel, Janet Harris, Ruth Kilbourn, Barbara Jones, Martha Stapleton, Glenna Hurst, Carolyn Parker, and Kathryn Reese.

TODAY'S STAFF

Assistant Managing Editor: Norm Anderson.
Dest Editor: Gretchen Grondahl.
Copy Desk: Melissa Millam, Joan Dysart, Norma Hultgren, Gretchen Grefe, Lorna Larson, Stan Turnbull, Tom King.

NIGHT STAFF

Night Editor: Mary Hall.
Night Staff: Jean Lovell, Dick Thompson.

Emotions Show Actual Maturity Doctor Declares

By DON DEWEY

Are you ever afraid, repulsed, prejudiced, hostile, or ill at ease with your environment?

To the degree that any of these are true, you are emotionally immature, "for you have no right to these emotions. They are only examples of the baby still in you."

That was the challenging statement presented Monday evening by Dr. Lee Edward Travis, professor of psychology and speech at the University of Southern California and a practicing clinical psychologist in Los Angeles. Cal. Dr. Travis talked on "Emotional Maturity in our Culture."

He said many well-meaning parents began almost at birth to instill emotional immaturity in their children. At a very young age parents convince their children that "their first honest efforts are not rewarded" and "all is not well with themselves."

This parental lesson gives the child a "partitioned personality" which forces him into a constant "civil war" between his natural life-processes and these induced anti-life processes, the lecturer said. "People with the inner power to win this war will have only minor difficulties, but how many do not have this power. Thus, slight emotional insecurities are very human."

Dr. Travis concluded by giving three rules which, if followed, can conquer emotional immaturity. The individual should "admit his weakness." He should "talk out the problem with himself." And, finally, he should "consult competent people" if he is seriously in need.

Physics Teachers Set for Meeting

A. E. Caswell, professor emeritus of physics, will talk on "Physics Now and Then" at the University of Portland meeting of the Oregon Section of American Association of Physics Teachers Saturday.

A tour is planned as well as election of officers, presentation of papers, and a lunch.

Oregon State College, Reed College, the University of Washington, Washington State College, College of Puget Sound, and Linfield College will be represented, as well as the University of Oregon.

Other Oregon men going are Gordon D. Hoyt, professor of physics; Raymond T. Ellickson, head of the physics department; W. V. Norris, professor of physics; Shang-Yi Ch'en, professor of physics; and E. G. Ebbighausen, professor of physics.

Wanna' sell something That to you is a pest Try Emerald classifieds They'll do the rest.

Physicists Plan Picnic

Sigma Pi Sigma, physics honorary, is planning a picnic May 25 at Skinner's Butte.

Members are to sign up in Deady Hall. If they need transportation, they should contact Bob Wright.

Try "Doc's" prescription for Spring fever

- Sodas
- Milkshake
- Sundaes
- Ice Cream

THE LEMON 'O'

"Doc" Ireland
13th & Alder

Your Fraternity Jeweler
L. G. BALFOUR CO.

Pins, Rings, Novelties,
Stationery, Programs

Send inquiries to 807 General Insurance Bldg.

Mark McColm, Mgr.
Seattle, Washington

CANDY

—MOTHERS' DAY IS MAY 14—

What would be nicer than a big box of Hand Dipped Chocolates from
Sugar Plum Candy Shop
63 E. Broadway

Look Your Best

Whether it's JR. WEEKEND, a house dance or any other special occasion with a Baxter & Henning Tuxedo or dinner jacket

Make your formal attire complete with our line of Nationally Advertised Accessories

- Tux shorts
- Hickok & Swank Jewelry
- Interwoven Sox
- Jarman Shoes

Baxter & Henning

Store For Men

1022 Willamette St.

Phone 2124

Class of '51 Presents

the 60th annual

JUNIOR WEEKEND

"Melody Magic"

JUNIOR WEEKEND

CANDIDATE

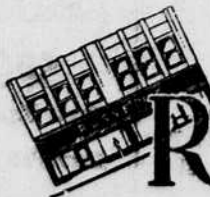

LUCILLE WRIGHT

SPONSORED BY

RUSSELL'S

Enjoy the following weekend activities

- FROSH-SOPH TUG-O-WAR
- SUNLIGHT SERENADE
- JUNIOR PROM
- ALL CAMPUS SING
- CAMPUS PICNIC
- FLOAT PARADE

"Eugene's Own Store"

Russell's