

Queen Nancy Rules Over 1950 Junior Weekend
