Honoraries' Condition Tops for Saturday Tilt

Condition of the Kwama and Skull and Dagger football teams reached its highest point Thursday and managers announced that practices would taper off in preparation for Saturday's battle at the Sophomore Picnic.

The Hendrick's Park training camp of Kwama, sophomore women's honorary, was the scene of last minute bustle as "Bush League" Bush and "Fifi" Lefebvre filed their fingernails.

"All's fair in love and war, and this is war," was the only explanation the girls would give for such action. Rumor had it that since Skull and Dagger ruled out spikes the Kwama's are resorting to other methods of combat.

Less radical training was in order for the Skull and Dagger men as they contemplated no shaving until the contest in order to scare the women into a forfeit. The inability of several to grow beards made the move inadvisable however.

Tentative lineups released by team managers are as follows:

Kwama	Position	Skull and Dagger
Sue "Broken Finger" Bachelder	P	Dick "King Kong" Lee
Mary "Weakeyes" Hall	C	Bob "Rapid" Gray
Virginia "Cornflakes" Kellog	1B	Roger "Spider" Nudd
Bernice "Bubbles" Gartrell	2B	Herb "Fat Boy" Lombard
Marjory "Bush League" Bush	3B	Vernon "Lefty Red" Beard
Yvonne "Fifi" Lefebvre	RF	Marty "Pee Wee" Scroggins
Lorna "The Lip" Larson	CF	Dick "Rich Legs" McLaughlin
Lillian "Sure Fire" Schott	RF	Vernon "Stealing" Stolen
Delores "Leather Lungs" Kletzing	SS	Beldon "Peanuts" Owens

Carol "The Curve" Udy was named alternate pitcher for Kwama. The team managers appointed Donna "Buzz" Buse and Merv "Specs" Hampton as umpire influencers.

Professor Attends Meet

P. W. Ellis, professor of economics, will travel to Sacramento, Calif., to attend a conference on income estimates for the Pacific Region Wednesday and Thursday. A discussion on estimates of income in Oregon will be led by Dr. Ellis at the conference, sponsored by the Pacific Coast Committee on Social Statistics of the Social Science Research Council.

About 25 or 30 men are expected to attend the meeting.
