

Ptoopies Eschewy Peanut Butter

"WE'RE THE GREAT big (Ugh) hairy-chested girls," sing these five Ptoopies, in preparation for the annual Peanut Butter sales, sponsored by Phi Theta Upsilon. Complaints from the junior women's honorary about sticky fingers have delayed the annual sale until sometime in 1952.

Oregon Daily EMERALD

The OREGON DAILY EMERALD, published daily during the college year except all Saturdays but Junior Weekend, Sunday, holidays, final examination periods, Monday preceding Junior weekend in May, by the Associated Students, University of Oregon. Entered as second class matter at the postoffice, Eugene, Oregon.

Signed editorial features and columns in this issue reflect nothing. Nowhere in the paper will be found anything resembling the opinions of the editorial staff, the student body, or the University. Any libelous material is strictly intentional.

UPPER CASE

Stan Turnbull—Commissar
Hal Coleman—Stove Editor
Vic Fryer—Southern Fried E.
S. L. Loy—Family Rel. Editor
Chuck Grell—Red-Hed-Ed.
Mac Epley—Epileptic Editor
Don Smith—Boy Editor
Fred Taylor—Girl Editor
Larry Davidson—Organ Editor
Don Fair—Weather Editor
G. Gillespie—Sme! Editor
Dick Humphrey—By-Line Editor
Bill Dean—Old-Time Editor
Merle Gors—Gore Editor
Mot Gink—Bubblegum Editor
Ken Metzler—Booze Editor
Bill Stanfield—Animal Husbandry Editor
Jim Knight—Knite Editor
John Barton—Schportz Editor

Dick Jacques—Office Editor
Gene Rose—Budding Young Ed.
Bob Dorang—Statistixo!?!*-- Ed.
Al Reed—Music Editor

LOWER CASE

Pete Cornacchia—Foreign Correspondent
Phil Wolcott—Phish Dept.
Fred Schneider—Women's IM Correspondent
Ken Cushman—Scooter Circulation
Dale Amerman—All Amerman boy
Dave Oestreich—Gnuspaper Boy
Bill Clothier—Fashionear
Merle Mass—Echusetts
Norm Anderson—Etaoin, Shrdlu
Bob Jones—Third Columnist
Bob Short—Fifth Columnist
Ralph Thompson—Copy Boy

Truman Group

(Continued from page one)

went to Washington, D. C., to perform at one of the city's better clubs, the Upper Chamber.

From there his popularity grew in leaps and bounds until today he is known as one of the nation's outstanding musicians, second only to Bing Crosby and Tennessee Ernie.

Motor Boat members further announced that they would restate former traditions that were abolished this year. Thursday will be officially designated as "Babies Day" on campus. In their honor all babies officially enrolled in school and possessing a student body card will be given free tickets to the Ball Friday night.

The special rules for the day are:

- 1 All men will wear clothes while on campus.
2. No cars will be allowed to proceed through the campus on 13th St. while classes are changing.
3. Students will not be allowed to cavort in the sprinklers.
4. No airplanes will be permitted to land on the quad.
5. Violators will be punished by being forced to take final exams.

Presence of SDX

(Continued from page one)

culty members have gone into this very sensational expose.

"The name of the president of SDX is (withheld) and here are the members —"

(Editor's note: The Emerald Editor does not believe in punishing or publicizing these men any more than any other 25 men.)

Dogfall Cements

(Continued from page one)

9. Poetry written on rest-room walls must be censored by a responsible member of the psychology department.

Dogfall made it crystal clear that it is not the policy of the University to force anything down anybody's throat, but pointed out that there is always a right way to do business regardless of the way it is done.

Cell presidents will submit the 93 point program to their respective hells for approval or rejection and suggestions either way.

People who live in glass houses shouldn't.

Ah, Soft Spring Nights

(Continued from page one)

"Thath thwell," lithped Lethter Ogilthpie, but his comment was countered by the snarling comment of one Harry Chested-heman, who rasped, "whattaell do they think we are, kids?"

Closing hours were previously 12:15 a.m. Friday night and 1 a.m. Saturday night (or Saturday and Sunday mornings, depending on how you look at it); under the new arrangement closing hours will be 3 p.m. both afternoons.

Several jobs as Piggers are still open, the University Publications Board said today.

FACTS ABOUT EUGENE'S WATER & ELECTRIC UTILITIES

The Eugene municipal water supply capacity will be increased to 25,000,000 gallons per day this summer, when a new water purification and filtration plant is completed near Hayden on the McKenzie river. The water will flow to Eugene through a new six-mile-long steel pipe-line, 45 inches in diameter. The water plant and pipe-line were built at a cost of $1,650,000.

EUGENE WATER & ELECTRIC BOARD

Penaljo

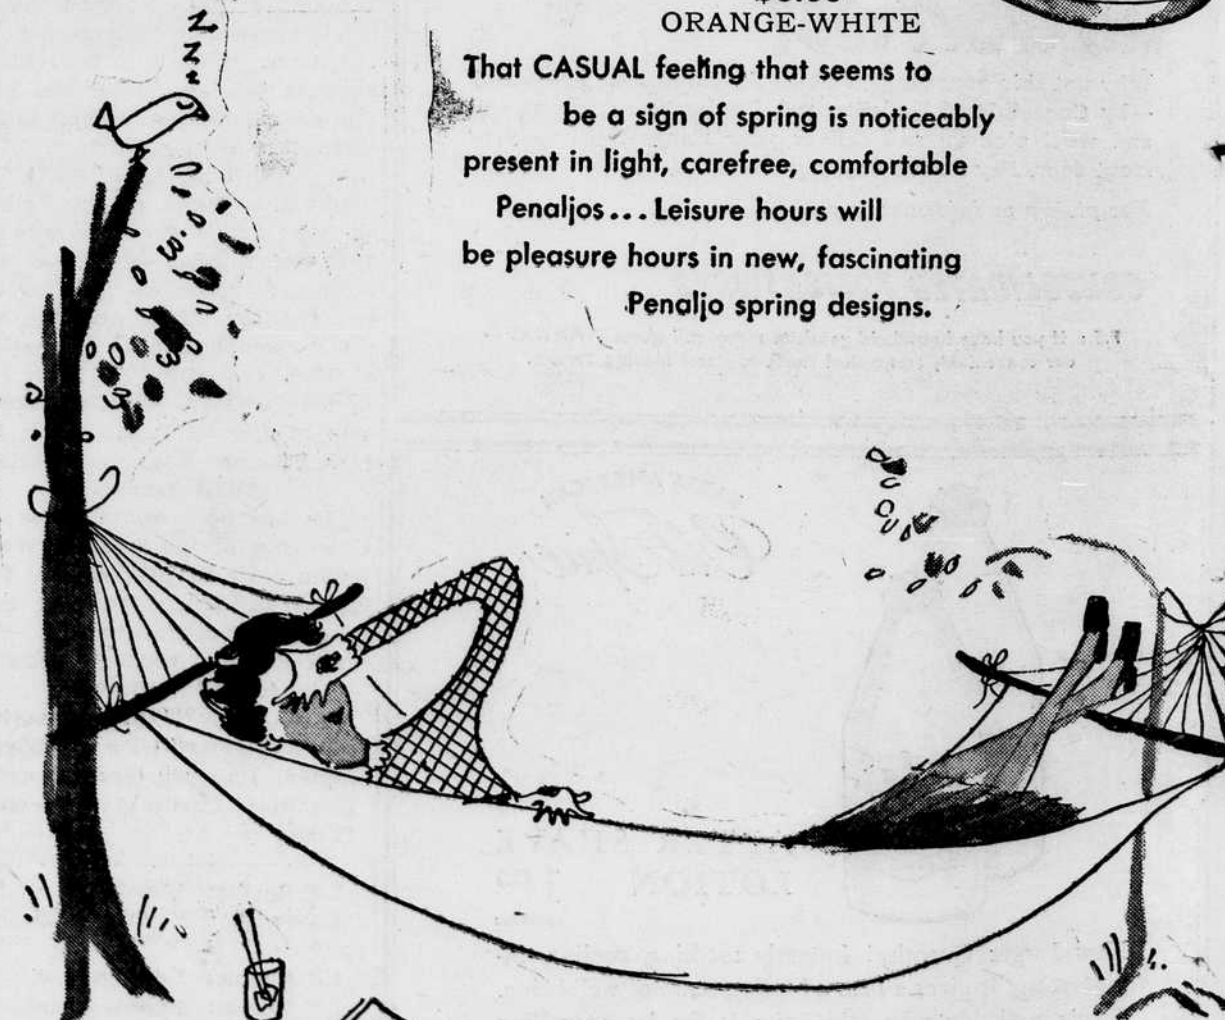

CAMPUS QUEEN

$8.95

ORANGE-WHITE

That CASUAL feeling that seems to be a sign of spring is noticeably present in light, carefree, comfortable Penaljos... Leisure hours will be pleasure hours in new, fascinating Penaljo spring designs.

"... and Myrtle, I found out last night that I have been sitting on a fortune."

"Yes, I sold that old, antique chair for $500. through ..."

EMERALD CLASSIFIEDS"