

Ducks Enter PCC Meet Today

Bowerman Flies 17-Man Team South

Bill Bowerman will take off by plane with his 17-man track squad at 10:30 a.m. today for the Pacific Coast Conference track meet in Berkeley.

Bowerman listed his team, champions of the Northern Division, as follows:

100-yard dash, Bill Fell, Jack Smith, and Mitch Cleary; 220-yard dash, Fell; 440-yard dash, Dave Henthorne, Al Bullier, Jack Countryman; 880-yard dash, Walt McClure; mile, Jack Hutchins and Art Backlund; two-mile, Pete Mundle; high hurdles, Jack Doyle; low hurdles, Dennis Sullivan and Smith; broad jump, Woodley Lewis; pole vault, George Rasmussen and Don Pickens; discus, Bob Anderson; javelin, Chuck Missfeldt.

A mile relay team will be entered by the Duck mentor if he feels it will make any difference in where Oregon finishes in the meet, Bowerman stated last night. The relay team will be composed of four men out of the quintet of Fell, Bullier, Henthorne, Countryman, and Cleary.

A lot of jack went to the various ball parks on the opening days—including Jack Frost.

GEORGE RASMUSSEN, who is competing in the Pacific Coast Conference under Oregon colors for the last time this week end, is expected to win PCC pole vaulting championship again this year. Ras holds the title. He won the title last week in Seattle.
