

Throng Tours New Student Union

RALLY "THOUSANDS" went through the new Student Union building at its opening Sunday. Dick Williams, student union director, opens the door to admit the first students. Formal dedication of the new building will be Nov. 5 during the Homecoming weekend. Glass-walled soda bar has to be most popular area in the SU. Plans for adding another coffee station in the soda bar were announced by Williams, who also informed the Emerald of the excellent student attitude toward the building. "They've shown good taste, courtesy and an attention to the value of the features of the building." (Also see "Salient Scenes at Oregon" on editorial page.)

Deans Okay Return Day Assemblies

Day assemblies will be re-instituted at the University this year. The University Board of Deans has given an official okay as suggested by last year's executive council.

Assemblies will be scheduled from 11:15 to 12:15 p.m. in the Student Union ballroom. Ten minutes will be lopped off from morning assemblies to allow students the free hour on assembly days. All

Driver License Cards Required

Driver license cards will be required for all car-owning students this year, according to a decision of the ASUO Executive Council Monday.

Car owners will receive these cards along with their student stickers during registration this week. Students will be required to keep these cards on their person at all times, just as they do their drivers' licenses.

List Information
 The cards, which will contain the driver's name, age, license plate number, and sex, will save confusion and be wasted in checking with the Secretary of State's office on motor vehicles, it was explained.

Registrations will state that the student must notify the student of the student vehicle stickers, which permit parking in student lots, must be posted in the right front windshield of all automobiles parking in University parking lots. Failure to display the sticker constitutes a violation.

When he sells his car, changes his address, or changes his license

The idea for the cards was presented by Bill Kirkpatrick, member of the ASUO Executive Council. (Please turn to page seven)

Freshmen Mixer Set for Tonight

University freshmen will flock to McArthur Court tonight at 7:30 for the annual YW-YMCA Freshmen Mixer, beginning get-acquainted activities on the campus.

Bill Bowerman, Oregon track coach, will lead mixers. Dave Swanson, YMCA president, will be master of ceremonies.

Co-chairmen for the dance are Mary Ellen Burrell and Bill Hempy.

"The mixer will offer an opportunity for each freshman to get acquainted with other members of his class and enjoy an evening of fun," Miss Burrell stated.

The Alpha Phi Trio and a men's comedy group will provide dance entertainment. Music will be recorded.

SU Board To Meet

The Student Union Board will meet tonight at 6:45 in the Chambers Room (Room 337 of the Student Union).

ASUO Replacement Petitions Due

Petitions for replacements for two ASUO Executive Council members are being called for by President Barry Mountain, with the rush deadline set at 8 p. m. today.

Petitions may be turned in at the ASUO office, third floor of the Erb Memorial building.

Needed to round out the council to its full quota of members are one junior and one senior representative to replace two Associated Greek Students candidates, Dick McLaughlin and Will Urban, who withdrew from the spring term elections.

By council precedent, the new members will be selected from AGS ranks by the council.

Method of replacement was determined by the council at its first formal meeting Monday morning. Petitions will be gone over by the AGS steering committee, which will make recommendations. These recommendations and the list of other petitioners will be gone over by a bipartisan screening committee of the Executive Council, working with Bill Carey, AGS president.

Those students recommended by this group will be interviewed by the council and the two new members selected at the next council

Registration Starts This Morning at 8 In Student Union

Old students will begin registration at 8 a.m. today by entering the west balcony entrance of the Student Union ballroom to pick up registration material.

New Oregon students who have completed entrance examination and other preliminary steps can also start meeting with advisers and signing up for classes with departments.

Seven individual steps must be taken by students in the registration process, including the picking up of material at the SU. All steps, except consulting advisers and signing for classes, will take place in the ballroom. The steps are:

Steps in Process

1. Pick up material at Student Union building at 8 a. m.
2. See adviser and build class program.
3. Enroll in classes at the individual departments. Veterans must check with the veterans desk at the SU.
4. Check with the student affairs clerk in the SU ballroom. Some cards which have been filled out will be taken at this point.
5. Obtain fee assessment from the registrar clerks in the SU.
6. Pay fee to cashier (also in ballroom) who will take more cards from you.
7. File with the registrar clerks who will take from you any cards you have left.

Activity Cards Ready

Students may pick up their athletic activity cards today at a special table in the corridor of McArthur court.

Activity cards are necessary for admission to the Oregon-California game in Portland Sept. 30 and for all other games this fall.

But students must complete their registration process and present their receipt in order to get the activity card in Mac court. The card will be punched at each athletic event.

Yell King, Rally Petitions Asked

Petitions for ASUO yell king to replace Jerry Kinersley, who resigned this week because of physical disability, and for rally board members are due at 5 p.m. Thursday in the ASUO president's office, Student Union building, President Barry Mountain announced Tuesday.

Yell king tryouts will be held at 9:30 a.m. Friday in the Student Union ballroom.

Three members-at-large for the rally board will be selected by the Council next week. ASUO President Barry Mountain explained. Any sophomore, junior, or senior is eligible to petition.

Petition forms and scholastic eligibility slips are available in the Office of Student Affairs Emerald Hall.

First SU Dance Set in Ballroom Saturday Night

Students will gather to dance for the first time in the new Student Union's beige and blue ballroom for the traditional all-campus "Hello" dance from 9 to 12 p.m. Saturday.

The annual no-date affair will be sponsored by the Student Union Board to welcome all students—old and new—to Oregon, Hank Panian, SU Board chairman, declared.

Lusk to Play

Johnny Lusk and his nine-piece orchestra will inaugurate the ballroom with "Hello" dance music.

Doors to the dancing terrace west of the ballroom will be opened to expand the dancing area. The Dads' Room area north of the ballroom proper and the second floor dining room area will also be opened for dancing.

Dress will be short silks for women, and suits or sports for men. No admission will be charged.

No Decorations

"The beauty of the new ballroom warrants no decorations for the first dance," Olga Yevtich, program director, commented.

Outstanding feature of the room is a "spring" dance floor, rather than the usual wood covering on cement, Dick Williams, SU director, revealed. Minimum area of the closed ballroom is approximately 5400 sq. ft., Williams, commented. When maximum area is utilized, including terraces, the room will house about 1400 couples.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Kline will be dance chaperones.

Theater Tickets On Sale Today

Season tickets for the 1950-51 University Theater season go on sale today, with orders being taken at booths in the Student Union and at the theater box office.

Tickets sell for $5, and entitle the ticket holder to see University Theater productions. Season ticket holders get first choice of seats to major productions and also are offered tickets to bonus attractions during the year.

This year, six plays will be offered.
