

Thespians Vosburg, Ericksen Win Honors

Tru Vosburg and Gordon Ericksen took top acting honors last year in University Theater productions. They received the University Theater "Neut" for best female and best male performance in lead roles.

Ruth Kilbourn received a "Neut" for best supporting actress; and

TRU VOSBERG

Ken Olsen was awarded the figurine for the most outstanding contribution to the theater in a non-acting capacity.

"Warrior" Sweeps Awards

All three acting awards were for performances in the record-breaking comedy "The Warrior's Husband." Miss Vosburg played Hippolyta, Erickson was Sapiens, and Miss Kilbourn was Pomposia.

Olsen was box office manager for the 1949-50 season.

"Neuts" are presented each spring to four persons. Any student playing a role in any UT major production is eligible for the acting awards. Any student who is not paid for his theater work is eligible for the non-acting award.

Theater to Give Summer Play

Extra performances of "John Loves Mary", comedy hit of the University Theater summer season, will be presented Oct. 6 and 7 for the benefit of University students who did not attend summer session. This marks the first time in University Theater history that a summer production has been revived for a presentation in fall before the opening of the regular theater season.

Playing leading roles in the production will be Elmarie Wendel and Don Van Boskirk.

Tickets are on sale at the theater box office. The original summer cast, directed by Otilie T. Seybolt, will appear in the production.

Nominations by Board

Nominations are made by the University Theater advisory board, and final selection is determined by secret vote of a board of judges. Judges are selected in early fall, but remain unknown until after the awards decision is announced. No judge may serve for more than one year.

Last year's judges were Robert Clark and Leavitt Wright, faculty members, Bob Coughlin and James Harrang, students, and Kay Korn, Eugene resident.

UO Spouse Tickets On Sale Thursday

Football tickets for wives and husbands of Oregon students for the California game will go on sale at McArthur court Thursday afternoon and Friday morning. Cost is $2.40.

The tickets must be purchased by the member of the family enrolled in school, who must present his registration card. One ticket will be sold each applicant.

Students with wives or husbands must enter the student gate.

For the Montana game and the remaining games in Eugene, tickets for wives will go on sale the Friday preceding the game. Cost will be $1.80.

UO to Enforce Parking Rules

With the opening of fall term, campus parking regulations will be more strictly enforced, I. I. Wright, superintendent of the physical plant, said today. These regulations govern both faculty and student parking.

Under regulations published in the Administrative Bulletin, campus policemen have no alternative but to issue tickets to first offenders and to have cars towed away for serious offenses. The latter action is necessary when cars are parked in fire access driveways, service driveways or other such restricted areas.

All faculty members desiring permits to park in any of the areas designated for faculty use should make application to the physical plant office. Students should obtain permits for student lots during registration.

Johnson Hall and Friendly lots are designated for faculty use. A large student lot is maintained at 14th and Kincaid streets and combination faculty-student lots at 13th and Onyx, and 11th and Kincaid.

Tickets to Theater Available; Jobs Too

Season tickets for the University Theater are now on sale at the theater box office. The tickets are $5 and entitle the purchaser to attend six plays.

Several jobs in the theater are open, Virginia Hall, theater business manager, has announced. They include house manager, ticket manager, checkroom manager, and assistants. The positions are all non-paying, volunteer work. Applicants may see Miss Hall in the theater ticket office.

Upon the approval of the Student Union Board cabinet, space will be assigned to applicants. The filing room is supplied with a table, chair, and typewriter. Each drawer holder will have a separate key to his filing space.

Guide Cover Sketch May Earn You $5

A $5 award will be made to the student submitting the best cover sketch for the 1950-51 Piggers' Guide, student directory, according to Editor Virginia Wright.
