

Bob's After Bear

BOB ANDERSON, three-year letterman, will be at right tackle for the Webfoots when they go against California tomorrow at Portland. He earned his three letters as an end, but during spring practice demonstrated that he would do an excellent job in his new spot.

Ducklings Boast Numerous Stars

By Phil Johnson

Among the potential University of Oregon Frosh and varsity athletes who recently enrolled for their initial year of college education were a large number of outstanding high school basketball, baseball, and track performers.

The list of basketball prospects is topped by James Bell, a towering 6'11" hoop artist who comes from La Grande but played his prep basketball at San Jose, California.

Gate B

Other casaba candidates include Junction City's Leon Keefe; Paul Poetsch, Ron Phillips, and Ken Wegner from Roosevelt high in Portland; All-Stater Doug Rogers, who played for Salem High's 1950 state championship squad; Bob Hawes and Al Christensen from Bend; All-State Forward Burt Lucas of Spokane, Washington; Bob Stout, Brookings; Bob Cook, Cottage Grove; Bob Scholer, West Linn; Vince Tadel, Astoria; Benny Hansen, San Pedro, California; Phil Barter, Vancouver, B. C.; and Bob Staggs, Long Beach, California.

The fall registration also brought in a number of baseball players and track stars. Diamond candidates include Don Siegmund and Gene Lewis of Eugene, Bill Bottler of Roosevelt high, Stan Blank from Crant, Central Catholic's Don Delaney, Lee Jackson from Washington high, and Dick Stearns of Tigard.

Gate B

One of the outstanding track prospects is Ray Packwood from Kelso, Washington. Packwood vaulted 12 feet and 5 inches last spring to set a new Hayward Field prep record in that event. Another vaulter, Russ Mannex from Wilson high in Long Beach, California, also registered last week.

Among the other freshman track candidates are Ivan Midlam of Lincoln high in Portland; Dick Zimmerman, La Grande; Al Martin, Cottage Grove; Louis Bittle, Medford; and Jack Sauser, North Bend.

Gate B

Students attending the game tomorrow are reminded to enter Gate E for their special seating section. Gate B is on S. W. 18th Stret, between Salmon and Taylor. Athletic activity cards will be available tomorrow in Portland, at the north end of the stadium, for students who fail to pick up their cards this afternoon.

Shut-Outs Mark IM's; ATO Tops Scoring

By Jack Faust

Shut-outs were in order in Thursday's intramural football action as seven of eight teams boasted uncrossed goal lines.

Leading the point parade was Alpha Tau Omega, with a 40-0 win over Phi Kappa Sigma. Phi Delta Theta toppled Sherry Ross, 20-0; Beta Theta Pi tripped Stan Ray, 20-0; Pi Kappa Alpha defeated Gamma Hall, 6-0; and Nester Hall dumped Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 6-0, in other white-wash struggles.

Sigma Alpha Mu claimed a forfeit victory over the Yeomen, as did Lambda Chi Alpha over McChesney Hall. Sigma Nu won the thriller of the day by edging Sigma Chi, 7-6.

Gate B

The Sigma Chi-Sigma Nu contest started quietly, both teams unable to earn a first down for some time. The Sigs finally picked up the necessary 15 yards in the third quarter when Bill Culver skirted left end. In the final stanza, Jack Smith hit John Jones in the end zone with a 30-yard aerial, but failed in the conversion attempt. The door was then opened for Sigma Nu, and the millrace crew started knocking. They rolled unchecked to the Sig's 10-yard line, where Lowell Rugg flipped a TD pass to Bill Schoonover. Rugg then hit John Linman for the extra point, and the issue was settled.

The ATO's cut loose a second-half scoring deluge that blotted out all hopes for the Phi Kap crew to make up their 13-0 halftime deficit. In the first half, Hobart Marvin, classy ATO slinger, hit Dan Cudahy and Harry Caldwell for six-pointers plus a conversion. In the second half Marvin hit Cudahy in the pay dirt territory, then one more to Dick Portwood, and again Harry Caldwell grabbed one to score. Hamilton and Cudahy caught Marvin aeriels for extra points.

Gate B

Changing from his throwing, Marvin dragged down a Phi Kap toss, and dashed 30 yards to the final touchdown of the game. Hawkins converted and the score read 40 to 0—the largest intramural score recorded since Theta Chi eliminated Sigma Chi from the 1949 semi-finals by the same score.

Nick Schmer and Mitch Cleary used the aerial route to put Phi Delta Theta out in front of Sherry Ross hall by a score of 21-0. Schmer was really nailing his men as he hit Jim Livesay and Cleary for scores and Bob Taggesel and Cleary for the conversions. Cleary took a hand in the passing in the final minutes of the game and pitched a scoring pass to Jack Jones in the end zone.

Gate B

Beta Theta Pi romped to a 20-0 win over Stan Ray hall. Alan Mann threw all the scoring passes. Ken Ball caught a pass and gave the Betas a 6-0 lead; he next pitched to Hal Webb, who lateralled to Curt Barclay, and the maneuver resulted in a 45-yard scoring play. The last score came when Tom Chapman caught a Mann pitch and went over.

Unbeaten Nestor hall rolled on with a 6-0 triumph over SAE. Ken Edwards hit big Bob Peterson in the end zone for the lone score of the game. Pi Kappa Alpha's win over Gamma hall combined one TD with an airtight defense. The dorm boys were never able to notch a first down. Phil Jones passed to Ted Reich in the game-winning 50-yard scoring play.

The Sammies' win over Yeomen goes into the books as a 1-0 score—as does the Lambda Chi's win over McChesney.

Ducks Loaded
