ROTC Instructor Missing in Korea

Master Sergeant Bertram F. Emerson, who was an ROTC instructor here for two years after World War II, has been reported missing in action in Korea since August 12.

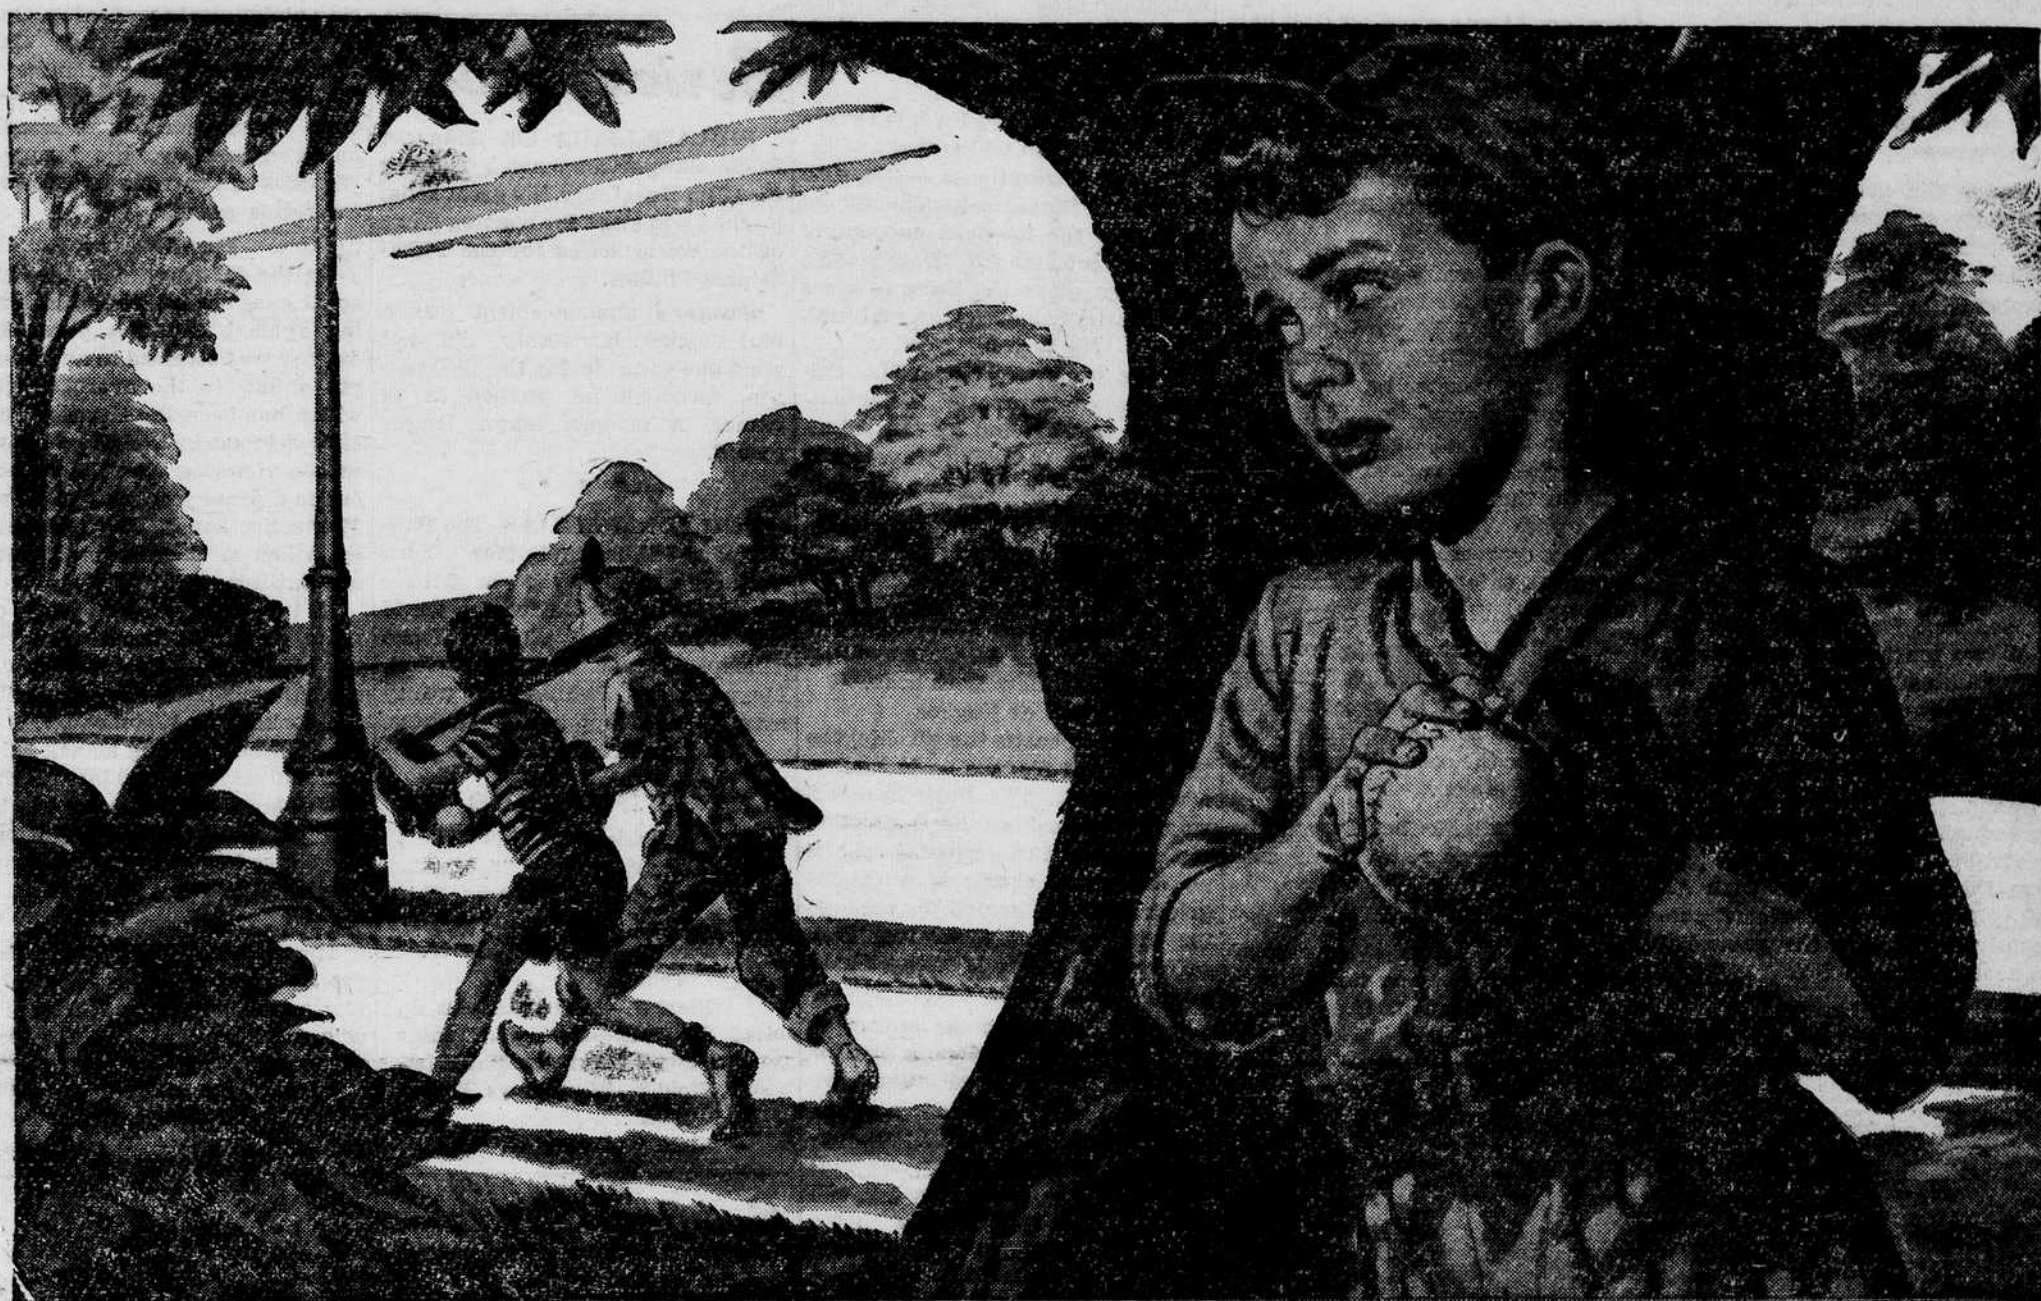

His wife, Patricia C. Emerson, was notified a week ago.

Emerson was an army veteran of 18 years, being stationed in Hawaii with the Fifth regimental combat team during the middle 1930's, and saw action in the South Pacific during the last war in the Palau and Peleliu campaigns with the 81st "Wildcat" division.

It was after this that he spent two years as an ROTC instructor on the campus.

During the last year he was stationed in Korea for occupation and training duty, returning to be sta-

The worst feeling in the world!

Nine years old and he can't play with the gang! His parents say two or three of the boys are different and he shouldn't associate with them.

What do they mean, different? He remembers that only a few days ago his history teacher told him that all Americans are equal—all citizens of one country and all working together.

This kid judges the rest of the gang by their individual personality, character and how they play ball—not by their race or religion.

Each race, each religion, contributes its own talents, culture and idealism to produce that amazing blend of ideas and vigor which have made America great. This boy wants to be proud of his country . . . not ashamed of it—and he can be if we don't influence him to the contrary!

Make sure that you are not spreading rumors against a race or a religion. Speak up, wherever you are, against prejudice, and work for better understanding. Remember that's what it means—to be a good American citizen.
