

Phi Delts, Minturn ATOs Murder Foes

By Jack Clement

Intramural play yesterday was highlighted by a complete round of shutouts. Minturn Hall, ATO, Phi Delts, Delta Tau Delta, Philadelphia House, Phi Psi, Pi Kappa Phi, and Beta Theta Pi all held their opponents scoreless.

The Betas and Pi Kappa Phi won their games by forfeit and thus were spared the agony of playing under the elements. Scores zoomed skyward despite the weather conditions, with Minturn, Alpha Tau Omega, and Phi Delta Theta rolling up 16, 57, and 31 points respectively.

Mighty Minturn

Minturn rolled merrily on its way with a convincing 16-0 victory over a game but outmanned Kappa Sigma seven. Joe Tom provided the spark for Minturn by passing for two touchdowns and accounting for one extra point just for good measure.

In the first quarter, Minturn's Fase took a Tom aerial to score from 35 yards out. Tom then ran over for the extra point. Again in the second quarter, Tom rifled a pass to his mate, Santos, for another counter. Minturn's scoring ended in the third stanza when the alert Minturn line trapped Kappa Sigma's Al Neish behind his own goal. Throughout the final period Minturn dominated the play but lacked the steam to go all the way.

Phi Psi hit paydirt in the second quarter on a pass play from Lemon to Thalhofer and then added an extra point by the same route, Johnson to Johansen, to edge Sigma Alpha Mu in a hotly-contested ball game.

ATO Active

The day's biggest burst of scoring was provided by the ATO's who completely outclassed Alpha Hall, 57-0. From the opening kickoff the game's outcome was never in doubt. In the first quarter, Marvin romped 40 yards to score and was followed in quick succession by Dan Cudahy, who tallied on runs of 25 and 30 yards. To end the quarter, Moshofsky downed an Alpha ball carrier behind the goal line for a safety.

Three touchdowns were posted in the two middle stanzas on passes from Marvin to Cudahy, Ward, and Portwood. Still not satisfied, the winners scored twice more in the final period. Marvin, who did a tremendous job, flipped a 50-yard aerial to Cudahy and followed with a pass to Caldwell to end the massacre. In the extra point department, Kuzman scored one, McClure two, and Caldwell four points.

The Tekes lost a heartbreaker to Philadelphia House, 6-0. In the third quarter, Les Howatt, of Philadelphia House, lofted an aerial to Dave Fischer who caught it in the end zone.

Phi Delts Phierce

Although the Phi Delts claim the league's tightest defense, they also showed considerable offensive power in downing the Phi Sigs, 31-0. Nick Schmer fired a 30-yard pass to Wilcox to score in the first quarter. Schmer, who has a monotonous habit of completing his pitches, tossed to Cleary once in the second quarter and again in the third stanza for 12 more points. Garrett scored on a 12-yard end run and then passed to Farnam for the extra point. From there on in, Cleary took over for Schmer and pitched one to Taggesell in the end zone. Cleary then connected with Schmer for the extra point and thus the scoring ended. The Phi Delts have yet to let any opponent score as much as one first down.

The Intramural Field was the scene of Delta Tau Delta's 8-0 victory over Hunter Hall. A safety brought the Delts two points. In the third chapter, George Guldager hit Chet McRobert with a 40-yard pass to set up the Delts only touchdown. On the next play Guldager again hit McRoberts for the tally.

In the other two games scheduled, Pi Kappa Phi and Beta Theta Pi won by default over Sigma and French Halls.

Ducks End Pad Work

Defense against Montana's passing attack was the big problem of the day Wednesday as Coach Jim Aiken worked the Webfoot football squad in the final heavy scrimmage this week. The twice-beaten Webfoots will taper off for Saturday's contest in light workouts today and tomorrow without pads.

Best Yet

Yesterday's activity, which Aiken described as the best scrimmage this year, also included considerable passing and running on the offensive side. Earl Stelle and Hal Dunham shared the passing duties and both of them connected steadily despite the drizzle during most of the session.

Monte Brethauer was on the receiving end of most of the aeriels, although Halbacks Hal Cuffel and Tommy Edwards divided numerous catches between them. Cuffel and Edwards were used sparingly during the drill, as several of the heavier backs were called upon for steady action.

Ervin at Full

Carl Ervin worked at fullback and turned in an impressive performance. Aiken indicated at the close of the practice that the 204-pound sophomore will see considerable action against the unbeaten Grizzlies this weekend.

Another boy who may be in the starting lineup against Montana is Larry Hull. The 187-pound senior's work this week has made him a likely bet as a defensive end.

Yankees Win Over Phils, 1-0

Series Shorts Shifts Mark Frosh Drill

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Whiz Kids took their heart-breaking 1 to 0 defeat like adults today.

As the Philadelphia Phillies filed into their dressing room, Outfielder Dick Sisler set the pace for this group of youngsters who caught the imagination of the baseball public. Sisler said:

"That guy (Vic) Raschi really had it today. We have to hand it to him. There's no use making excuses when you lose a well-played ball game like that."

There were several nods of approval. The Phillies were giving credit where it was due—to the fine Yankee pitcher, Raschi.

Sisler, the hero of the pennant-winning game in Brooklyn last Sunday, said he had no chance today to duplicate that flow-clinching three-run homer.

"Raschi had good control. He gave me nothing good to hit at. Brother, I was really reaching for them. He had my number."

The Phillies were disappointed, not dejected. After all, they had played a good ball game and lost. The Yankees hadn't, as most of the experts predicted, blasted them out of the ball park.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Vic Raschi both won and lost Tuesday.

The New York Yankee hurler defeated the Philadelphia Phillies, 1-0, but his hotel room was looted while he pitched two-hit ball.

Detective Lieut. Frank A. May said two suitcases were taken from Raschi's ninth-floor room. They contained 140 world series tickets, clothing and jewelry. His wife's case contained "between $500 and $1,000" worth of jewelry.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "The best game I ever pitched," that's the way Vic Raschi described the mound masterpiece that gave the New York Yankees a 1-0 victory over the Philadelphia Phils in Tuesday's World Series opener.

"It had to be my best," the big Yankee pitcher said with a grin. "Nothing else would have beaten Jim Konstanty."

The 31-year-old hurler also said his right shoulder gave him no trouble during the game.

Shifts Mark Frosh Drill

Oregon Frosh Coach Bill Bowerman announced last night that he has shifted three of his. Duckling gridders to new positions. The backfield, guards, and tackles were involved in the change.

Short Scrimmage

Two Frosh events met in a short scrimmage yesterday afternoon, and the squad led by Quarterback Barney Holland scored seven points while holding their opponents scoreless during a fifteen-minute battle. Holland's backfield mates included Left Half Jack Morris, Right Half Joe Marra, and Fullback Howard Hostetler. Bob Krasneski also saw action at fullback.

Sanders at Full

The other unit's backfield included O'Neill Sanders, fullback; John Davis, quarterback; Duane Siebert, left half; and Cece Hodges, right half.

Cougars Drill

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP)—A long defensive drill, the most thorough of the season, occupied the Washington State College football team Tuesday as the Cougars prepared for the University of Southern California game here Saturday.

Coach Forest Evashevski put the WSC regulars in defensive positions and had reserves use USC passing and running plays against them. UCLA found the Cougar defense weak last Saturday and beat WSC, 42 to 0.

Two sophomore reserves, Tackle Don Dickey and Talfback Don Larkin, are both out with injuries and will miss the Coast Conference game with the Trojans Saturday.

Raschi Supreme With Two-Hitter

SHIBE PARK, PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Yankee Vic Raschi won the opening World Series game Wednesday, 1-0, in a brilliant pitching duel with Jim Konstanty, the Phillies sensational relief ace, before 30,746 fans.

Bobby Brown's double, followed by two infield flies, produced the game's only run in the fourth inning.

Raschi, strong-armed righthander who pitched the "big games" for the Yanks all season, set down the National League champs with two singles. Both came in the fifth inning, the only time the Phils had a man as far as second base.

Raschi Radiant

Retiring the first 13 batters in succession, Raschi pitched a brilliant ball game, and it had to be top drawer to beat Konstanty, Manager Eddie Sawyer's daring gamble.

Bespectacled Jim allowed only four hits in his eight-inning stint, his first start since he was pitching with Toronto in 1948.

After 74 record-breaking relief jobs he finally got his chance to start but lost a toughie. Russ Meyer pitched the ninth inning after he was yanked for a pinch hitter.

Raschi, showing no signs of a sore shoulder that troubled him on the Yanks' last western trip, struck out five men and walked only one.

Willie Jones and Andy Seminick singled in the fifth but that was all. He walked Eddie Waitkus with one out in the sixth to give the Phils their only other base runner.

Third Straight

This was the third straight series in which a two-hit pitching job has featured the opener. Last year Allie Reynolds won a 1-0 game for the Yanks from Don Newcombe of the Dodgers. In 1948, Bobby Feller, of Cleveland lost his two-hitter to Boston, 1-0.

Konstanty, bespectacled 33-year-old bullpen king, survived serious threats in the first and third before letting the Yanks score a run in the fourth.

Brown's double, a foul-line hugging ball into left field, led off the 4th. Hank Bauer's fly to deep center on which Richie Ashburn made a fine over-the-shoulder catch sent Brown to third. Jerry Coleman drove home Brown with a fly to Dick Sisler near the stands in left field. There was no chance to get Brown at the plate.
