Party, Bazaar Set Fall Term By Art Students

Fall term activities at the School of Architecture and Allied Arts, sponsored by the Associated Students of Architecture and Allied Arts, will include the annual Frosh Party and the Art Bazaar.

These activities were among those discussed and approved by the steering committee of the ASAAA Oct. 3, President John Amundson announced Wednesday.

The Frosh Party is scheduled for Oct. 27. General managers are Kitty Lou Shaw, Jeanne Hall, and Nancy Luce.

No definite date has been set for the bazaar, but present plans call for it to be staged immediately before the Christmas holidays. Al Staehli and Al Zurflue are doing the planning.

Work toward improvement of the ASAAA-sponsored student-faculty seminar lounge will be undertaken throughout the year, Amundson said.

Beginning Monday, the ASAAA will make a determined effort to gain more members. The drive will be on for three weeks.

KOAC Begins Radio Season

The University's broadcasting season over KOAC begins Monday, with the week's schedule released from the studios Tuesday.

All broadcasts, although originating at studios in Villard Hall, will be on a state-wide hookup over station KOAC.

The Schedule:
Monday night: Victor P. Morris, dean of the School of Business Administration, will speak on "World on Review," 8 to 8:15 p. m. Campus news and sports is scheduled at 8:15 and "Campus Recital" featuring advanced music students, at 8:30.

Wednesday night: Music by the music school faculty is slated from 6:15 to 6:45. At 6:45 Alburey Castell, head of the philosophy department, will present a program.

Thursday night: University Hour, presenting popular music with student talent, at 4 p. m. Campus interviews are scheduled for 4:15 and Radio Workshop, student drama presentations, finishes the day's schedule at 4:30.

Deseret Group Plans Social

A social will open the year for the Deseret Club, at 7:30 p. m. tonight at the Wesley Foundation, Carol Udy, president, has announced.

Films of last year's activities will be shown. A short business meeting is also on the schedule, with the election of a vice-president scheduled. Refreshments and dancing will round out the evening.

All Latter Day Saints students on the campus are invited, Miss Udy stated.

After all, you can believe about half of what you hear—if you want to be that foolish.
