

Infirmary Confines Thirteen Students

Thirteen patients were enjoying the comforts of the infirmary Wednesday.

They were Roy Bergen, Gloria Coram, Anne Goodman, James Hayden, James Hershner, Franklin Kincaid, Gloria Marlantes, Barbara Manley, Robert Mullen, Ynes Pozzi-Escot, Richard Runyard, Kenneth Lowe, and George Rosenbalm.

SU Board Meets, Discusses Dances

Purchase of a fluorescent stamp for admittance to dances and a schedule of members to introduce football movies were two motions passed at the SU Board meeting yesterday afternoon.

However, the main discussion was on the relationship between the Executive Council and the Student Union board and whether members could belong to both or not, and ballroom rentals. A committee has been appointed to study the possibility of house dances in the SU, and whether closed dances should pay rental. Next meeting will be at 6:30 next Wednesday.

YW Open House

Today from 2 to 5 p. m. will see the last of the YWCA openhouses at Gerlinger Hall for new women students at Oregon. If any freshmen girls or transfers have not been contacted by their upper-class counselors, they are invited to attend the openhouse anyway.

Amphibians Slate Swimming Tryouts

Tryouts for Amphibians, women's swimming honorary, will be conducted at 8 p. m. Monday in Gerlinger Women's Pool.

All women students with swimming ability are encouraged to try out whether they be freshmen or upper classmen, according to President Joan Skordahl.

Amphibians sponsor a water pageant fall term, encourage and conduct winter swimming meets, and entertain visiting high school students during Duck Preview Weekend spring term.

Meetings are held at 8 p. m. each Monday.

Employees To Meet

University employees will meet at 4 p. m. today in 207 Chapman to discuss a new hospitalization coverage plan.

The plan, a modification of the present Blue Cross plan, will be presented by members of a special investigating committee.
