Alums to Fill 7 Positions

Seven University of Oregon alumni have accepted positions on the new alumni advisory committee to the Athletic Director.

The committee will meet to discuss athletic matters and bring the alumni point of view into the determination of athletic policy, according to Leo A. Harris, University athletic director.

Serving on the committee will be Charles R. Holloway and Don Kennedy, Portland; C. S. Manerud and Richard Reed, Eugene; Robert Lovell, Astoria; William Barker, Medford; and George Corey, Pendleton.

Special Invitation To Game Movies Issued to Co-eds

Oregon co-eds have been issued a special invitation to today's football movies of the Oregon-Montana game by Dick Olson, Student Union Directorate publicity chairman.

The movies will be shown in the ballroom of the SU from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

"In the past the audience has been chiefly male," Olson said, "and the girls are missing a chance to learn some of the finer points of the game."

Coach Jim Aiken will give a chalk talk and description of the game, followed by a scouter's opinion on next Saturday's game with Idaho by Jerry Lillie, assistant football coach. Leo Harris, athletic director, will also speak.

Donna Buse, member of the Student Union Board will open the program.

Only University students and faculty may attend the football movies in accordance with Pacific Coast Conference regulations.

'Othello' Tryouts Slated Tomorrow

First readings for "Othello," second production of the University Theater, will be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in 102 Villard by Otilie Seybolt, professor of speech.

Mrs. Seybolt will direct the Shakespeare tragedy, which is scheduled for performances late this term. Any student interested in appearing in the play is requested by Mrs. Seybolt to attend the reading. No experience or special affiliation with the theater is required.

Banquet Opens WCTU Reunion

The 66th annual convention of the Oregon Women's Christian Temperance Union will open here in Eugene tonight with a banquet at the First Baptist Church.

The conclave will run from today through next Friday.

V. P. Morris, dean of the school of business administration, will

Badminton Practice

All women who have signed up for the badminton tournament and have not signed up for the practices must do so immediately, officials announced Monday.

To be eligible for tournament play each woman must have played three games in practice. The deadline on these is Oct. 23.

represent the University at the dinner. Governor Douglas McKay, Mayor V. Edwin Johnson, and other state and local officials will also be present to deliver greetings and words of welcome.

The principal address at the banquet will be given by Mrs. Glenn G. Hays, recording secretary of the national WCTU. Title of her address will be "J. Barleycorn Gets His Foot in Uncle Sam's Door."

Moonlit summer nights will bring one sure sign of an early fall serious love making.

We've never heard that any picnics were held on Noah's ark—only two ants.

1st Lecture-Forum Set for Tonight

First program of the fall Lecture-Forum Series will be held at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday in the Browsing Room at the north end of the Student Union.

A recorded concert of contemporary music will be presented by Miss Hildegard Wagner, a graduate student of music and the librarian of the Douglass Music Room.

Included on the program will be:

"Arrangement of Modern Mexican Music," by Blas Galindo.

"The American Work for Solo Instruments and String Orchestra," by four students of the Eastman School of Music.

Best Ophren For Volunteer Oregana Help

New and old Oregana workers will get their chance to volunteer for jobs on the 1951 yearbook at the annual Oregana open house, scheduled for 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. Wednesday in the book's offices, third floor of the Student Union.

"Any student interested in working on either the editorial or the business staffs is invited," Editor Ruth Landry explained Monday. "No experience is necessary."

Several different positions are open for a large number of workers, the editor said. Openings on the editorial staff include copy-readers, layout staff, copy writers, art staff, indexing, secretarial, and typists.

The business staff will need house representatives, typists, and advertising salesmen, Business Manager Bob Schooling stated.

Entertainment and refreshments will be provided at the meeting at which students may meet the staff and sign up for positions. Staff workers will go through applications and contact students when they have been assigned to specific jobs.

Grad Gets Award

James McGrath, graduate student in art education, has been awarded a $750 scholarship by the J. K. Gill Company of Portland.

The award came as a result of McGrath's work on a project of analysis of art educational methods for use in secondary schools.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests Number 3...THE FLICKER

"One question...
Where do I flick
my ashes?"

Don't think our neat-pleated friend with the drape-shape doesn't know the score! He's plenty hep to all those tricky cigarette tests! If you're in the groove, they're not fooling you, either. You know, from your own smoking experience, that just one puff of this brand . . . then one puff of that brand isn't going to give you the answer you want. What can you possibly tell by a quick inhale and exhale, a whiff or a sniff?

The sensible test — the one that gives you the proper answer — is a day after day, pack-after-pack tryout for 30 days. It's the Camel 30-Day Mildness Test! You judge Camels for 30 days in your own "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste) — the real proving ground for a cigarette. Once you've tested Camels as a steady smoke, you'll know why . . .

More People Smoke Camels than any other cigarette!
