The twenty-four semi-finalists will meet again Friday at 4:00 in the Student Union for an informal hour. Cider and doughnuts will be served to judges and contestants during the hour.

A general chairman meeting for the Whiskerino will be held at 4 p.m. today in the Student Union.

Contest Open

Students may continue submitting suggestions for the Homecoming slogan contest until 5 p. m. Friday.

Boxes for suggestions have been placed in the Co-op and Student Union.

ASUO Issues Call For Court Petitions

Sophomore, junior, and senior petitions are still being called for by the ASUO Executive Council for three vacancies on the student court.

Deadline for petitions is 5 p. m. Monday in the ASUO office. Applicants will be interviewed by the council at 8 p. m. in the Student Union Board room.

The sophomore and junior will continue in office for four terms and the senior for three.

Group to Discuss Closing Hours

Friday night closing hours will be under discussion at the Student Affairs Committee meeting today at 4 p. m.

Final decision on the matter of 1 a. m. closing hours for Friday will be made by the committee, Donald DuShane, Director of Student Affairs and committee chairman, said Wednesday.

However, the decision will not necessarily be reached today, he pointed out.

The possibility of 1 a. m. hours being granted in special cases when late closing seems necessary, was reported last week by Ray Hawk, Director of Men's Affairs. Such a policy could apply to "jammed" weekends, he stated.

Earlier this year the ASUO Executive Council and Student Union Board went on record as favoring the later closing period.

$750,000 University Library Addition Opens Today; Stacks Now Accessible

The day has arrived! The new $750,000 University Library Addition will open at 8 a. m. today. Under construction since March, 1949, the annex will increase floor space by about 80 per cent and raise the immediate seating capacity to approximately 1,300.

Students will be able to select books themselves for the first time from all library shelves. Previously these shelves have been open only for special use. Only the rare book department will not be open to student access.

Find Own Books
Under the open shelf principle students will be expected to find their own books. Books need not be checked out if they are to be used in the stacks or the divisional reading areas. If the student wishes to take books home or to use them elsewhere in the library, they must be checked out at the circulation desk in the main building.

Changes brought about by the annex include use of the room which was formerly the Browsing Room as a general reading and study room. It also contains the current issues of various newspapers.

Audio-Visual Moved
The audio-visual department has been moved to greatly expanded quarters in the basement of the annex. Special features include two studios for projection or recording, individual listening booths and the Douglas Room, which is equipped with earphone turntables for record listening.

Library service will now operate on a subject divisional basis. The four major public service units comprise the humanities division, the science division, the social

Nudd Tells Judging Plan For Parade

This year's Homecoming noise parade will not place emphasis on noise alone, Roger Nudd, noise parade chairman, announced Wednesday night.

Judges will consider four main points in selecting a winner. The spirit of those on the float and following it will be awarded 30 per cent, while the appearance of the float, in relation to the theme, and the ingenuity of originality in noisemaking will each receive 25 per cent.

Emphasis Changed
The remaining 20 per cent will be awarded for sustained noise in the one-block judging area. The change of emphasis is to discourage the use of the same equipment by groups year after year and give the smaller organizations a chance to shine in originality and spirit.

The vehicles themselves must be one single conveyance—Semi-trucks are permissible, but not extra trailers.

Numbers were given to representatives at the drawing held Tuesday. These numbers must be displayed on both sides of the float. The names of the living organizations and the theme of the float must also appear with the number.

Sub-Committees Appointed
Sub-committees have been appointed to handle chairman phases of the parade. Chairman of the judging committee is Paul Lasker, and for the awards committee, Betty Derrah.

Noise parade committee members are: Jan Bosserman, Jane Cover, Elizabeth Drummand, Nancy Gloege, Molly Harbert, Norma Hultgren, Robin Lansome, Jean Lewis, Sally Haseltine, Sarah Turnbull, Marvin Wolf, Margaret Woods, and Jon Eremeeff.

Huge Auto Parade Opens Idaho Rally

A gigantic automobile procession winding through the campus this afternoon will highlight the rally for the Webfoot squad leaving for the game with Idaho Saturday.

The parade will end and the rally will be held in front of McArthur Court at about 3:45, Jim Fenimore, rally board chairman said Wednesday. Cars will be parked in either a single or double line on University St. from 15th to 18th. Eugene police will block off University at those two points, Fenimore explained.

The police have requested students not to follow the busses carrying the team to the station after the rally. All cars will remain on University street for at least five minutes after the rally.

The parade, led by the five new song queens, will form at 11th and Alder at 3:25 p.m. with all the Mill-race houses. From that point it will move up Alder to 13th, which should be reached by 3:30. As the procession moves up Alder, all houses along the route, including those on 15th St., will join the parade.

Route Mapped
The parade will move up 19th to the Hilltop, picking up Theta Chi, Delta Tau Delta and Delta Zeta by 3:35. From this point, the procession will swing around to Alpha Tau Omega and reach Carson Hall by 3:40.

Cars will move into University from 13th. Guides will direct the cars into either a single or double line, depending on the number of cars in the procession, Fenimore said.

Lifts Requested
Fenimore stated that women living in Susan Campbell and Hendricks should walk over to MacArthur Court, along with any other students coming from class.

All cars, said Fenimore, are being asked to pick up any students along the way, so that as many people as possible may participate in the rally from inside automobiles.

The newly-selected song queens—Beverly Krueger, Shirley Bonner, Janet Miller, Carol Lee Tate, and Nancy Shaw—will lead the procession from a convertible.

The yell squad, led by Ron Symons, will lead the assembled crowd in some new yells, and the song queens, with band support, will make their first appearance of the season.

Board Discusses Poor SU Service

Poor coffee and food service in the Student Union was a major topic of discussion at the SU Board meeting Wednesday night.

"There is no possible way we can improve the service in the Union until we get someone to give the service," said Director Dick Williams. He explained that the Union can't get student help on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m., the time when demand for service is the greatest.

Williams analyzed the present situation as due to (1) no help, (2) inability of the Union staff to train the help when they get it because workers are needed immediately and (3) if inefficient help is hired, there are no replacements.

From six to seven student workers in Student Union food service are needed immediately to work hours between 8 a. m. and 4 p. m. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, Williams said.

Pay for student help is 60 cents an hour. If students work through the entire fall term they will receive 10 cents an hour for each hour they worked during the term in addition to the base 60 cents.

Students will get 65 cents an hour, with again the 10 cent per hour payment if they complete the entire term. Spring term, students who have worked throughout fall and winter term will receive a straight 75 cents an hour.

Landry Explains Picture Schedule

Because of Sophomore Whiskerino beard-growing, scheduling of women's living organizations for Oregon pictures begins today, with men's photography delayed until after the dance.

Sophomore men scheduled for pictures earlier this week who declined because of imminent beards may reschedule pictures any Saturday morning after the Whiskerino, Editor Ruth Landry explained.

The schedule:
Thursday: Carson II, Delta Zeta
Friday: Carson III, Gamma Phi Beta.

The general reference and documents division is housed on the third level of the annex and the fifth stack deck; the science division is located on the second floor of the main building and the fourth stack deck; and the social science division is primarily centered on the second level of the annex and the second and third stack decks.

Materials in education and psychology occupy a portion of the first annex level, along with the Curriculum Laboratory, which has been moved to the library from the School of Education.

The general reference and documents division is located in the area formerly termed the Reference Room, in the west wing, first floor of the main building.
