French Film Tells Of Adolescent Love During War

By Don Smith

A beautiful tale of adolescent love is "Devil in the Flesh," first foreign film club attraction of this year. Now playing at the Máyflower through Wednesday, the French film artistically handles the delicate story of a 17-year-old schoolboy's romance with an older woman.

The film relates a happy story that leads to sadness; a story that depicts the impetuosity, the immaturity, the angers and jealousies, the selfishness and unselfishness that make up the deep love of the two persons.

Micheline Presle and Gerald Philippe are sensitive and understanding in the lead roles; their performances are smooth, quiet and distinctive. It is their believable performances that add greatly to the appeal of the story.

It is a tale of love during the first world war. Francois, the youth, is enraptured by the beauty and humaness of Marthe. He impetuously woos her, and later when she tells him she is engaged, Francois realizes it would be better for Marthe if he left her. She marries the soldier she was engaged to and, after her marriage she runs into Francois once again. The romance is rekindled, really, it had never died. The war draws to a close and the lovers realize that Marthe's husband will return; that their affair must end. Marthe dies in giving birth to Francois' child, the child that Marthe's husband will raise because he believes it is his.

The film is produced with excellent taste in all respects. It tells of the romance with what Time magazine has termed "almost unbearable intimacy." It is a love story filmed with simplicity and power.

Ad Women Get 11 New Pledges

New pledges of Gamma Alpha Chi, women's national advertising honorary, are Kathy Littlefield, Kay Kuckenberger, Doris Pervine, Jeanne Hoffman, Sue Finzer, Marion Galla, Frances Neel, Harrriet Vahey, Gretchen Grefe, Carolyn Silva and Bonnie Berkemeier. They were tapped during Monday night dinner at their living organizations.

Barbara Ness and Virginia Kellogg were elected treasurer and reporter, respectively, to fill vacancies left last year.

The next meeting of the group will be this noon in the Student Union.

Pledge Class Brings Record Sale Price

The highest price ever paid for an "article" at an AWS auction was registered Friday afternoon in front of the Student Union when Pi Beta Phi bought the Phi Delta Theta pledge class for $44.01.

Zeta Tau Alpha pledge class was purchased by Phi Sigma Kappa. Co-chairman Barbara Howard estimated the total sales would run close to $70 for the entire group of articles on sale. Miss Howard said prices received for smaller articles were better than expected.

Proceeds from the auction will be used for scholarships.

The less some people have on their minds the more they seem to want to talk it off.

Co-rec Night Set Friday at Gerlinger

The second of a series of Co-rec nights will be held 7:30-10:30 p.m. Friday at Gerlinger.

Such sports as badminton, swimming, and volleyball will be ready for the whole student body to enjoy. There will also be square dances called.

Approximately 200 students attended the last Co-rec night. These evenings are sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association.

Faculty to Sponsor Semi-Formal Dance

A semi-formal dance will be sponsored by the faculty dancing club in honor of new faculty members at 9 p.m. Friday at Gerlinger Annex.

This will be the first in a series of seven dances sponsored by the two-year-old organization, with music furnished by John Lusk's orchestra.

For information on membership and other details phone Mrs. George Hopkins, chairman, at 5-1740, or Mrs. J. C. Lillie at 4-3105.
