

Stan Ray, Delts, Fijis, Phi Psis, Sigma Nu, Chi Psis Win IM Tilts

By Jack Clement

Phi Psi, Stan Ray, Chi Psi, the Delts, Sigma Nu, and the Fijis outlasted their rivals to notch victories in Wednesday's IM volleyball play. The games as a whole were marked by a lack of team coordination.

Phi Psi drilled home a 15-3, 15-5, victory over a three-man squad from McChesney Hall. The Phi Psis found McChesney's abbreviated team an easy mark and wasted little time in turning in their victory.

Chi Psi Wins Three

The closest game of the day was between Chi Psi and Cherney Hall, with the Chi Psis winning in two sets, 16-14 16-14. Playing with only four men, the winners encountered rough going all the way. The game was highlighted by an unusual amount of penalties for throwing and flopping the ball. The score saw-sawed back and forth and was tied at 14-all in both sets, accounting for the 16-14 scores.

In the third game of the afternoon, the Fijis downed Hunter Hall, 15-9, 15-4. Both teams were ragged and the game was a wild and woolly affair. The winners proved to be the superior club and finally pulled away to emerge victorious.

Stan Ray Okay

Stan Ray chalked the fourth victory of the afternoon up by defeating Merrick Hall, 15-6, 15-11. Both squads fought bitterly, but in the end Stan Ray proved a little too much for the Merrick men. Stan Ray belted their way to an easy win in the first set but had a battle on their hands to down Merrick in the closing stanza.

Only two games went the full three-set route. The first was between the Delts and Nestor, with the Delt boys emerging on top of the heap, 15-9, 9-15, 15-7. The score frequently changed and at one point in the last set Nestor had a 7-0 lead. The Delts, not to be denied, came roaring back to take the rubber set.

Sigma Nu Uses Pull

The last game of the afternoon found Sigma Nu and the Sig Eps facing each other across the net. Sigma Nu, although extended to three sets, finally won 1-15, 16-14, 18-3. The Sig Eps blasted the Sigma Nus off the court in the first set and appeared to be an easy winner. But the Sigma Nu's pulled themselves up by their bootstraps and won a hardfought 16-14 second battle. The final set was an abbreviated affair, with the Sigma Nus forging ahead, 8-3, to win when the game was called due to the time limit.

Washington, Stanford Pace Coast Elevens

Washington is the top offensive club in the Pacific Coast Conference and Stanford is the defensive leader at the halfway point of the 1950 football season, according to reports received in the PCC Commissioner's Office. (The Washington-Illinois game was not reported.)

Washington, although statistically a game behind, earns its offensive honors on the strength of its passing ace, Don Heinrich. The Husky quarterback has accounted for the largest share of passes that have averaged 201.7 yards in four games. The Washington total offense game average is 418.5 yards.

Stanford has been the most effective against running attacks. The Indians have allowed only 104.8 yards in five games, and their defensive record against running and

Drake Back Tops Offense

NEW YORK —(AP)—Defending champion John Bright of Drake is so far ahead in college football's individual offense race that the question now is: Will he break the season record?

The agile 200-pounder has run and passed for 1,516 yards in 6 games this season, nearly 500 ahead of Bill Cox of Duke in second place.

Threatens Sinkwich Mark

Bright needs 672 yards in his remaining three games to better the all-time mark of 2,187 set by Frank Sinkwich of Georgie in 1942. At this current pace, the Fort Wayne, Ind., junior may pass the record in the next two games against Detroit and Bradley—if not, then in the finale against Iowa State.

His average of 252.7 yards a game also is well ahead of the 221.3 mark held by Stan Heath of Nevada since 1948, the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau said Tuesday.

White Leads Rushing

In the rushing race, Wilford (Whizzer) White of Arizona State at Tempe has a good lead with 861 yards in 100 carries. Bill Weeks of Iowa State took the lead in passing with 63 completions of 117 attempted for 918 yards.

Bright's 722 yards in 112 carries is second in the rushing race. Nebraska's breakaway Bob Reynolds has 679 in 77 for third. The Cornhusker sophomore has played one less game than White, two less than Bright.

Rain Stops Run

Weather conditions forced the postponement of Wednesday's scheduled inter-organizational cross-country meet. The run will be made up today.

EMERALD SPORTS

Today's Schedule

- IM "A" VOLLEYBALL
 3:50 Court 40 Sherry Ross vs Sigma
 43 Phi Kaps vs Tekes
 4:35 40 Philadelphia vs Theta Chi
 43 Pi K A vs Yeomen
 5:15 40 Omega vs Alpha
 43 Phi Sigs vs Pi K Phi
- CROSS-COUNTRY
 4:30 Campbell, DU, Hunter
 4:45 Delts, Lambda Chi, Merrick, Minturn.

Hour Session Set for Frosh This Afternoon

By Phil Johnson

Coach Bill Bowerman's Oregon Frosh squad will begin a 60-minute scrimmage at 4 p.m. today. The scrimmage will provide an opportunity for several players who have seen little action this year.

One team will be divided into offensive and defensive units. The offensive backfield will consist of Barney Holland, quarterback; Duane Seibert, left half; Joe Marra, right half, and O'Neill Sanders, fullback. Howard Hostetler will also see action in the latter position.

Same Line

With the exception of Charles Soderberg, who will start at right end, the offensive line will consist of those gridders who performed against the Oregon State Rooks Friday.

The defensive backfield will include Quarterback John Spreen, Halfbacks Duane Seibert and Joe Marra, and Fullback Gary Pickens. Defensive linemen will be Ends Neil Tardio and Jerry Cach, Tackles Ken Sipe and Darold Farr, Guards Howard Allman and Terry Picknell, and Center Max Kendig.

Both Sides

The members of the opposing eleven will play both offense and defense. Backfield starters will be Quarterback Jess Asumendi. The linemen will include Ends Bob Cook and Jerry Miller, Tackles Tommy Manos and Ben Schmidt, Guards Jack Nowell and Roger Webster, and Center Stan Gottschalk.

Right Tackle Marion Grzeskiewicz was injured in the Oregon State game and has not yet returned to action.

AOPi Leads WAA Meet

By Carlyn Huntington

AOPi moved into first place in the WAA volleyball tournament Wednesday when they defeated Rebec House, 38-23, leading 21-9 at halftime. Bunny Bradley scored 12 of the AOPi's 38 points. Belle Russell was high scorer for Rebec House with 4 points.

Highland House, by a forfeit, won 1-0 in their game against Carson Hall.

The Orides won over Chi Omega in an all around thriller, 41-40, although Chi Omega led 25-19 at the half. Joyce Mitchell scored 18 points for the Orides, while Kathy Rabbitt had 17 for Chi Omega.

University House will play Gamma Phi Beta in the outdoor gym today, winner tying for first place with AOPi. In the main gym, Susan Campbell Hall will play Alpha Phi, and Zeta Tau Alpha will play Hendricks Hall, losers being eliminated from the tournament.

Duck Aces Reshuffled As New Deal Sought

Jeff Liked By Officials

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Football Coach Jeff Cravath of the University of Southern California admittedly is under sharpshooter fire for his losing team but Tuesday he enjoyed support from all official sources.

Athletic Director Willis O. Hunter and the presidents of the Trojan Alumni Association and the student body rallied to the defense of Cravath, his staff and the team after a rumor was published regarding purported "secret meetings" of unrest on the USC campus.

Hunter blew down the report by saying, "It is my opinion that the same students and alumni who supported the school in victorious seasons will show their colors by standing by the coach, team and the University until we are again successful."

Zags Prepare

SPOKANE —(AP)— A 30-man Gonzaga University boxing squad opened training this week for a defense of its co-hold on the national collegiate ring crown. The Zags tied with Idaho for the NCAA title last spring.

Matches already are slated with Wisconsin, Michigan State, Idaho and Washington State. Additional cards are being planned.

Coach Jim Aiken shuffled his lineup again in a final attempt to right the staggering Ducks before they collide with Southern California's Trojans Saturday in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

Earl Stelle will be back at the controls of the Oregon machine after giving way to sophomore Hal Dunham for most of last week's St. Mary's game. He will guide a backfield which will have Tommy Edwards and Ron Lyman at the half-back posts and Carl Ervin at full.

The Webfoots went through their second scrimmage of the week yesterday afternoon. Aiken was far more satisfied with yesterday's results than with Tuesday's scrimmage.

The decline in Oregon's football fortunes can be traced from last year's USC game when the Ducks went down to the tune of a 40-13 thumping. Up until that one they had won 19 and lost 3 over a three-year span. Since the Trojan debacle they have been able to put only one game in the win column while losing nine.

Bob Anderson, first string right tackle, will be sidelined Saturday with a shoulder separation. He will be replaced by Gus Knickrehm, who will also play on defense. Ray Lung will also do double duty at right guard, replacing Chester Daniels on offense. Stelle, Edwards, and Dick Daugherty will all be in on offense and defense.

The reason a fellow stops going with a girl is sometimes a parent. With some women, staying young is not only a good habit, but an old one.

Less than a shadow...

What we can do for them is far less than a shadow of what they already are doing for us.

The least we can do is give them someplace decent to spend their precious leisure hours... a chance to keep in touch with what they are fighting to preserve.

Support

ASSOCIATED SERVICES
for the Armed Forces

Your Donation Will Help Our Armed Forces At Home and Abroad... Give Enough to

Your Community Chest