Frosh Regulars Control Scoring in Practice Tilt

by Phil Johnson

The University Frosh regulars controlled all scoring during their scrimmage with third stringers Thursday afternoon. Fullback O'Neill Sanders smashed off tackle and galloped 60 yards for a touchdown on the second scrimmage play of the afternoon. Defensive Fullback Gary Pickens added another six-pointer, also by completing a long run.

Outstanding Lineman

Howard Allman, left guard for the regulars, was one of the outstanding linemen on the field. Center Max Kendig and Right Guard Terry Picknell also were defensive standouts for the regulars. Quarterback Barney Holland's choice of plays was effective and contributed to the regulars' advance.

Valuable Gains

Varsity Fullback Howard Hostetter made several valuable gains, and Quarterback John Davis of the reserves turned in an outstanding performance.

Coach Bill Bowerman's Yearlings will scrimmage again this afternoon and will have another short workout at 11 a.m. Saturday.

The Ducklings, who play the Washington Pups on Armistice Day at Eugene, will scrimmage against Coach Jim Aiken's varsity reserves Monday afternoon.

Injuries Still Plague Indians

PALO ALTO, Calif.—(P)—Indications are that the Stanford Indians will meet the University of Washington Saturday in their conference football game with the same team that lost to UCLA last week.

Hopes dimmed for the recovery of Ends Bruce Van Alstyne and Jack Rye, tackle Gordon White, and Halfback Boyd Benson. All have bad knees but Rye, who is recovering from illness.

Benson received a call from the Army, in which he is a reserve Lieutenant, to report for a physical Saturday in preparation for active duty. However, he is not expected to be called up until he is graduated at the end of this quarter.

Today's Players Lack Fitness

DETROIT—(P)—University of Michigan Athletic Director H. O. (Fritz) Crisler believes today's college football players are not as well conditioned as those of a few years ago.

The former Michigan head coach aired his views at a football writers luncheon.

"Coaches today," he said, "have only about two hours for squad practice daily and in that time have to work three of four defenses plus various forms of the two platoon system. That leaves very little time to devote to conditioning work."

Husky Aces Still the Top Yard Gainers

LOS ANGELES—(P)—Washington's two offensive guns, Quarterback Don Heinrich and Fullback Hugh McElhenny, are still the top yard gainers in the Pacific Coast Conference.

While conference headquarters here were unable to get statistics from the Washington-Illinois game last week, Heinrich still retained his lead as the ace passer in the loop; with 47 of 79 completions for 674 yards and two touchdowns, and the total offense lead, with 673. (He lost one yard trying to rush the ball.)

McElhenny has gained 485 yards rushing, with Johnny Olszewski of California next with 433; and his teammates, Jim Monachino and Pete Schabarum, next with 418 and 324.

Trailing Heinrich in passing is Stanford's Gary Kerkorian, with 37 of 70 for 570 yards, and Earl Stelle of Oregon, with 30 of 71 for 332 yards.

Two Houses Out Of Tournament

Hendricks Hall and Alpha Phi were eliminated from the WAA volleyball tournament Tuesday.

Hendricks dropped their game to Zeta Tau Alpha, 43-37, trailing 15-19 at half time. Gail Savage scored 8 points for Hendricks, while Karen Terry had 9 for Zeta Tau Alpha.

Susan Campbell won over Alpha Phi, 38-37, although Phi led 19-17 at halftime. Sue Finzer was high scorer for Alpha Phi with 15 points; Jeanette Merse topped Susie with 11.

University House went into a first place tie with AOPi when they beat Gamma Phi Beta, 40-30, after leading 23-16, at the half. Mary Holman led the scoring lift for University with 7 points; Betsy Erb for Gamma Phi Beta had 6 points.

Friday and Saturday are the last days for badminton practice. The tournament will begin Monday.

Swimming Meet Deadline Set

Deadline for entries in the intra-school swimming meet is Nov. 3, Rod Harman has announced.

All entries are to be turned into Harman at the Beta house. Each house may have as many entrants as they desire, but each entrant is limited to two individual events and one relay—or two relays and one event.

Preliminaries will be held Nov. 7, and the finals Nov. 9. The best five times in each preliminary event will be eligible for the finals.

A trophy will be awarded the organization with the most points in the finals. No points will be awarded in the preliminaries.

Oregon State Hosts Montana In Corvallis

Two air-minded football teams, each with an extra special reason to win this weekend, will collide on Bell field at 1:30 p.m. Saturday when Oregon State plays host to the University of Montana Grizzlies.

After dropping their first four starts, Kip Taylor's Beavers will go all out to record their initial victory of the season at the expense of the Grizzlies. Montana, with one of its strongest teams in history, will attempt to score its first win over Oregon State. In 11 previous meetings of the two schools OSC won nine and two contests ended in ties.

Aerial Circus

An aerial circus is in the offing as both clubs possess outstanding passers. For Montana it's Quarterback Tom Kingsford, who last week ranked ninth in the nation with 41 completions in 76 throws for a brilliant .539 percentage. Not far behind the Grizzly ace is OSC's Gene Morrow, also a quarterback. In two and a half games Morrow has connected on 25 of 50 pitches for an even .500 average.

Two standout receivers will be the chief targets for these accurate chuckers. They are Ray Bauer, Montana end who snagged 18 aeri-als in the Grizzlies' first four games; and John Thomas, ace Orange wingman, with 22 catches to his credit in four starts.

Ducks Wing South; Meet Also-Rans

Oregon's bounced-around football team boards a United Airlines plane at 5 p.m. today as the Webfoots head for Los Angeles to meet another also-ran in the Pacific Coast Conference race, Southern California.

The expected crowd for Saturday's 2 p.m. tilt just about indicates the caliber of the two teams, judging from their records. Only 12,000 spectators are expected to file into Los Angeles' spacious Coliseum which will hold 102,000.

Irate Alumni

With irate alumni breathing hot on his neck, Trojan Coach Jeff Cravath will try to get his team on the winning trail for the first time this season. USC, in pre-campaign predictions, was a strong favorite to cop the PCC bunting. But the only place where Troy's strength has come through is on paper.

USC dropped its opener to Iowa, 20-14, had to rally for three touchdowns in the final period to gain a 20-20 tie with a mediocre Washington State eleven, lost a narrow 13-7 decision to California, and then was bounced by a previously winless Navy squad, 27-14.

Spotty Record

Oregon's record, heading into this contest, the 17th in the series between the two teams, has also been on the spotty side. The inexperienced Ducks have dropped contests to UCLA 28-0, Idaho 14-0, California 28-7, and St. Mary's 18-13, while collecting a 21-13 nod from Montana.

The Trojans, who have won 12 games, lost three with one ending in a tie in the rivalry, have been plagued by spotty quarterbacking all season. Wilbur Robertson, Frank Gifford, and the touted sophomore Ed Demirjian have failed to deliver in this key position of Troy's T-for-
