

Campus Merry-Go-Round

At Sig Ep. . .

Bruce Schaffer was recently pinned to Janie Simpson, Tri Delt.

Mike Lundy, Paul Wilson, Gene Lehman, Larry Hobart and House Drama Agent, Al Riasanovsky all have a part in the forthcoming University Theatre production "Othello."

Stan Smith is the Singing Troubador at Willamette Park on Friday nights.

Glen Lorenz dropped in Tuesday night on his way to New Jersey where he is now stationed with the Coast Guard.

Tom Barry is now a member of the Student Disciplinary Committee, and Gene Lehman was appointed to the Student Traffic Court.

At Tri Delt. . .

Two pins were taken by Tri Delts this weekend: Pat Johnson and John Kern, Delt, and Janie Simpson and Bruce Schaffer, Sig Ep.

Barb Barney came to the campus to visit her Tri-Delt sisters this week. She and Walt McKinney, Beta, are planning a December wedding.

At Phi Kappa Sigma. . .

This week's "Phi Kap in the News" was "Biggie" Munn, head football coach at Michigan State College who appeared in Colliers' article "Michigan State Powerhouse Football."

At Carson. . .

Jean Reynolds became engaged last June to Don Prior, June graduate from the University, now residing in Seattle.

An early summer pinning occurred in Walla Walla between Mary Kelly, Alpha Chi pledge, and Harold Dunham, Theta Chi.

Visiting Clarice Duling, freshman, last weekend were two Beaver friends—Sue Harris, OSC freshman, and Joan Hedgepeth, University transfer.

At Kappa Sig. . .

Recent pinnings include: Jim Fletcher to Sue Rawlinson, Theta pledge; Gary Donlon to Virginia Masten, OSC; Tom Bauman to Helen Hyche, AChi O; and Dick Applegate to Jean Hall, Chi O.

Newly initiated members are Fred Holmes, Dan Deady, Frank Heinrich, and Dick Applegate.

Svein Peterson, Kappa Sigma's foreign student from Dvam Man, Norway has been pledged.

At Susan Campbell. . .

Mrs. Golda Wickham, director of women's affairs, was guest speaker at a banquet held in John Straub Oct. 23. This was the first in a series of banquets to give the girls a chance to brush up on social graces and become familiar with prominent figures on campus.

Officers newly elected are: Artyce Hawman, president; Bonnie Flickinger, secretary-treasurer; LaNelle Gay, social chairman; Pat Raybould, standards chairman; Joan Powers, athletic chairman; and Sally Wineberg, historian.

Nov. 18 has been chosen by the girls of Suzie as the date for their first house dance, to be held in the Student Union.

The engagement of Artyce Hawman to Fred Osgood was recently announced.

Skull and Dagger Chooses Ellsworth

Roy Ellsworth, sophomore in liberal arts, was tapped by Skull and Dagger, sophomore men's service honorary.

Skull and Dagger members are selected on the basis of outstanding activities, service to the University, and scholarship.

Jarnette New Hostess; Tradition, Button, Publicity Plans Ready

Saturday night, the Hostess will be formally presented to the student body at the Homecoming dance in the Student Union Ballroom.

Miss De Jarnette will present the awards to the winners of the Noise Parade and the Sign Contest, in conjunction with Barry, homecoming chairman.

Living organizations must turn in themes for parade floats by 5 p.m. Monday, Roger Nudd, chairman, announced Thursday. Paired groups are requested to decide on one central theme evolving around the Homecoming slogan "New Union Reunion." Themes may be turned in to Nudd at Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Tradition Enforcement

Traditions will go into effect Monday. The Order of the "O" will enforce all Homecoming traditions and will punish violators. Penalties will consist of hacks for men and dunking of women violators.

The following traditions will go into effect for all University students and violators will be subject to the above penalties: No smoking on the old campus; do not walk on seal in front of Student Union; do not walk on campus lawns; do not fail to say "hello" on "Hello Walk," the walk stretching from Fenton to Villard; only seniors may sit on the senior bench, located between Susan Campbell Hall and Hendricks Hall.

The following class traditions will be enforced: Frosh men will wear khaki pants and Oregon rooter lids. Frosh girls are required to wear green ribbons. Sophomore men will be subject to penalties if caught wearing cords. Khakis and levi's are in order.

Homecoming Buttons

Over one thousand Homecoming buttons have been sold to townspeople by Alpha Phi Omega, men's service honorary, Virginia Kellogg, finance chairman, announced Thursday night.

Button sales will begin on the University campus Monday. Phi Theta and Kwama, women's honoraries will sell buttons to living organizations during lunch and evening dinners.

Flying speeches were given to various living organizations Thursday night. They will continue today. Speeches will evolve around the slogan printed on the buttons, "Beat 'em with Buttons."

Buttons may be purchased in the Co-op and Student Union for ten cents starting Wednesday. Alpha Phi, Chi Omega, Alpha Delta Pi, and Alpha Omicron Pi will conduct sales at booths located in the above places. Jean Gould is in charge of campus button sales.

Publicity Plans Ready

Students will be well rehearsed on Ike Carpenters famous renditions when he appears for the Homecoming dance. Plans have been made by the dance promotion committee to play Carpenters records in the Co-op Monday and Wednesday.

Other types of publicity will consist of sound truck advertisement throughout the campus, flying speeches Monday in men's organizations and posters in all living organizations and campus establishments.

The dance promotion committee is headed by Gretchen Grefe. Committee members are Joanne Kelley, Joyce Rathbun, Maxine Sandstrom, and Sue Griffin.

Bonfire Committee

A freshman general committee for the annual Homecoming bonfire has been picked, Rod Bell bonfire chairman stated Thursday. The committee was picked from representatives of dormitories who attended a meeting Wednesday.

The freshmen committee members are, George Booth, Bob Fawcett, Gerald Dickie, Bill Miller, Brent Bates, Bob Meaney, and Bill Earl.

Materials for the annual bonfire will be gathered Tuesday. Dick Morris will head a committee for this detail. Guards will be posted Wednesday and the fire materials will be guarded until the bonfire ceremonies begin Friday. Ken Goodwin will be in charge of guards.
