Minturn beat McChesney, 15-1 and 15-2. In the first game Joe Nishimoto served 14 points. Minturn displayed too much power for the McChesnies.

Phi Psis Win

In the other A league battle, the Phi Psis downed Lambda Chi, 15-9 and 15-10, but dropped the middle set, 15-7.

In the "B" league, Merrick hall, using only three men, beat Phi Kap-

Meet Dave Gibson

'We Found Ourselves'

By Bill Gurney

Dave Gibson, big Webfoot center, believes Oregon will be a tough outfit to beat after last Saturday's USC game.

"We found ourselves in that last quarter," said he. "I felt we were finally playing the type of ball we're capable of. Everybody pulled together."

A senior this year, Dave has always been a fine team man and a leader. The offensive center's job has been his since last season, when he chalked up 287 minutes of varsity action, and was considered one of the better linemen in the conference.

Dazzled at Dallas

As a sophomore alternate for Brad Ecklund, Dave received his biggest gridiron thrill when he played several minutes in the Cotton Bowl.

Blocking is Dave's forte, whether it be for quick-opening ground plays or "iron pocket" pass protection.

Dave learned his football back in Denver, where he was an All-City center. Oregon was his choice because of its highly rated School of Architecture. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon and the Order of the O, here at the home of the Ducks. We asked him how a man from the mountains liked our occasional Eugene dew.

"We have more good all round weather in Denver, but the coast is swell, too," was Dave's diplomatic comment.

Big Designs

He would like to remain on the coast after graduation, eventually becoming a building contractor, since he has concentrated on the structural aspect of architecture. Last summer he gained experience with a contractor in Omaha, Nebraska; a city which is now his home.

You could say that Dave is an athlete from the word "go", for he thoroughly enjoys such active pastimes as swimming, golf, and tennis.

He also says he likes to dance, and he carries his lean 6-foot, 2-inch frame with an easy grace which many football linemen do not possess.

Speaking of football, a big share of Oregon victory hopes for the final three games this season rest on the shoulders of Dave Gibson. Dave will surely do his part and do it well.

No Rose Bowl

CHICAGO — (AP) — Any hopes Michigan State, winner of five out of six starts thus far, might have of going to the Rose Bowl were squelched today.

K. L. (Tug) Wilson, Big Ten athletic commissioner, said that a ruling of May, 1949, was made by the conference permitting only a championship contender to play the final two games in the five year series which ends next New Year's day.

Michigan State, which includes Michigan and Notre Dame among its victims, is a member-in-name-only of the conference. The Spartans begin football championship play in 1953.

No Hopes

SEATTLE — (AP) — Washington football fans can relax. Don Heinrich's legs are just as sound as his passing arm.

Husky supporters in the Puget Sound area flooded Seattle newspapers and offices of wire service press associations with calls last night after a Seattle radio station erroneously reported the Washington aerial artist had broken a leg during a scrimmage session.

Station spokesmen said its information had been supplied in a telephone call from a man identifying himself as a local radio sportscaster.

Mustangs Keep Lead; California Paces PCC

NEW YORK—(AP)—Southern Methodist's unbeaten Mustangs clung to their No. 1 rating among the country's college football teams today as Ohio State vaulted from sixth to fourth and Miami, Princeton and Illinois squeezed into the top ten.

The Southwest Conference leader, despite a Saturday of idleness, remained the top choice of a majority of the 280 sports writers and sportscasters who voted in the fifth weekly Associated Press poll to determine the nation's outstanding team.

Army Second

The Mustangs (5-0) grabbed 153 first place votes and accumulated 2,574 points to out distance second place Army which notched 34 first place nominations and 2,184 points. Although the undefeated Cadets walloped Columbia, 34-0, they gained 50 fewer first place votes than last week when they also were second.

Sooners Retain Third

Oklahoma retained its third place ranking by trampling Iowa State for its 26th consecutive victory but fifth place Kentucky (7-0) and sixth place California (6-0) dropped down a notch to make room for Ohio State.

Top ten:

1. Southern Methodist (153)
2. Army (34)
3. Oklahoma (25)
4. Ohio State (30)
5. Kentucky (17)
6. California (2)
7. Texas
8. Miami, (Fla.) (12)
9. Princeton (2)
10. Illinois

Order of 'O'

Order of the "O" will meet at noon today at the Sigma Chi house, according to President Don Peterson.

A man doesn't have to be a fool to be parted from his money these days.

Light Workout For Webfoots; McCowan Back

Coach Jim Aiken sent a spirited Webfoot football squad through another light workout Tuesday in preparation for the Homecoming battle here this weekend against Washington State.

Despite wet grounds and adverse weather conditions, the Ducks worked pass plays against Cougar defense formations with considerable success. Quarterback Earl Stelle, still recovering from a light concussion received in the USC contest, and Hal Dunham did most of the throwing.

Countryman Continues

Halfback Jack Countryman, who blossomed against the Trojans, continued his fine defensive work as he spoiled numerous aerials during the afternoon.

End Emery Barnes, used most of the season on defense, indicated possible offensive ability by hauling in several of Stelle's tosses.

End Supply Increased

Defensive power of the Ducks has been boosted by the return to action of End J. D. McCowan, who has been sidelined since the first of the season by a leg injury. Two other squad members who have been bothered by injuries also took part in the session. Center Dick Patrick, another victim of concussion against USC, and Tackle Bob Anderson, injured in the St. Mary's battle, worked enough to indicate recovery is progressing.

It is doubtful, however, there will be any action against the Cougars for Anderson, who missed the Los Angeles trip.

Frosh Eleven Loses Spreen

Hopes of Oregon's Ducklings to upset the powerful Washington Pups here Nov. 11 were greatly jolted Tuesday when they lost their number one quarterback. John Spreen, 175-pound former field general at Albany, has withdrawn from school and returned home.

Spreen was one of the very big cogs in the Frosh machine this season. He directed the triumph over Willamette JVs and provided a lot of trouble against the Oregon State Rooks, although his T-formation work was bothered by wet grounds at Corvallis.

There are no indications he plans to return to Oregon.
