Norm Van Brocklin, Oregon's great quarterback and passing sensation of two seasons ago, leads the professional National Football League in passing today.

Van Brocklin, in his second campaign with the Los Angeles Rams, took over the leadership after his spectacular performance against the Detroit Lions last Sunday. In that game he completed 13 out of 17, including five good for touchdowns.

His 1950 record now stands at 84 completions out of 151 attempts for a total gain of 1,452 yards and 13 touchdowns.

The former Duck's rise to prominence has come in spite of the fact that he started his pro career as an understudy to Bob Waterfield, acknowledged to be one of the finest passers in the play-for-play ranks.

Van Brocklin's passing has been the big reason for the Rams' rise to second place in the National Division of the NFL. It also helped End Tom Fears to take over the pass receiving honors. He caught six Sunday to raise his total to 36 catches for 568 yards.

Beavers Seek Second Victory Against Bruins

After racking up its first victory of the campaign at the expense of the Montana Grizzlies here last weekend, Oregon State's improving football team faces another toughie this Saturday when it tangles with the UCLA Bruins in the Los Angeles Coliseum.

While the Beavers were scoring their initial victory, Red Sanders' Bruins were gaining additional prestige by whipping Purdue, 20-6, at Lafayette, Ind. It was UCLA's fourth victory in six starts this fall. The Westwooders are still very much in the running for the PCC crown with only a one-point loss to Washington marring their conference slate.

Although it will be a case of two single wing teams against each other, Sanders' version of the formation is entirely different from Orange Coach Kip Taylor's. The Bruins operate from a balanced line while the Beavers run from an unbalanced line and shift into the single wing from a T. Last year the Bruins were one of the three clubs to defeat OSC.

Taylor's biggest problem this week is how to get his men ready to play on the lightning fast coliseum turf. After a week of constant rain, Oregon State's practice field is under several inches of water.

PCL Nines Eye Increase In Status

CINCINNATI — (P) — Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler said Wednesday the Pacific Coast League probably will be moved to a higher classification, possibly 4-A before the start of the 1951 season.

Chandler said a committee named to study the Pacific Coast League's request to be taken from under the annual draft has decided to "give relief to the Pacific Coast League as the facts justify. Such relief may result in a higher classification, possibly 4-A, under the national association structure."

By remaining in the national association structure, the PCL would stay on as a minor circuit under the jurisdiction of George M. Trautman, president of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues.

A committee composed of Del Webb of the New York Yankees; Trautman, Chandler and Branch Rickey, former general manager and president of the Brooklyn Dodgers, reached the decision, after a long hearing.

The Coast League was represented by President Clarence (Pants) Rowland and Attorney Leslie O'Connor.

Clipper in Tokyo

TOKYO — (P) — Baseball's great Joe DiMaggio and Frank "Lefty" O'Doul, manager of the San Francisco Seals, were showered with bouquets of flowers Wednesday night when they arrived by plane from the United States.

IM Volleyball Action Marred By Forfeits

By Jack Clement

Intramural action Wednesday featured defaults and lop-sided victories. French Hall and Hunter provided the former by failing to show for their contests. In the day's games, Kappa Sig, Delta Tau Delta, Nestor, Phi Gamma Delta, Sigma Nu, and Phi Delta Theta emerged victorious.

The Phi Deltas blasted Merrick Hall, 15-3, 15-1, and by doing so grabbed themselves another win. Nick Schmer tallied ten consecutive points for the Phi Deltas to pave the victory path.

Sigma Nu came home with a convincing 15-7, 15-7 win over Stan Ray. The Sigma Nu supplied plenty of power and Stan Ray wilted under the blistering attack.

The Fijis, walloped Cherney, 15-1, 15-3, to cut another notch in the win column. The Phi Gams were never in trouble and put their passing attack to good use in smothering the Cherney boys.

Delta Tau Delta emerged on the victorious side again by trimming Chi Psi, 15-2, 15-8. Although the Deltas hit a stumbling block in the second set they pulled away in fine fashion to win the last set.

Kappa Sigma and Nestor Hall won by default over teams from French Hall and Hunter Hall respectively.

PE Meeting

Basketball Coach John Warren will be guest speaker at tonight's meeting of the PE club at 7:30 in room 101 of the PE building. Basketball pictures will be shown. All members are urged to attend.

Holland Works As Ducklings Show Drive

A long, heavy scrimmage session was served the Duckling football squad Wednesday afternoon as it continued to prepare for a Nov. 11 meeting with the powerful Washington Pups at Eugene. In addition to the Washington contest, a return engagement with the Oregon State Rooks remains on the Frosh schedule.

Coach Bill Bowerman described the drill as "a good, hard workout marked by the best spirit we've shown so far this season."

Morris Throws

Quarterback Barney Holland did most of the throwing as considerable time was spent in an effort to achieve a smooth passing attack. Versatile Jack Morris also tossed several successful passes from his halfback spot. The pair aimed the majority of their aerials at Halfback Cece Hodges, who has moved into a starting berth, and Ends Charles Soderberg and Neil Tardio.

Kendig Moved

Max Kendig, used as a center until now, switched to right tackle during the practice and worked both on offense and defense. He performed well enough to secure a straight berth at that position.

We don't know the answers. We're not sure we'll find any. Don't hold your breath.

Rodeo Date Changed

The intercollegiate rodeo at Salem next weekend has been changed to Saturday and Monday.

It was originally scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, but the Sunday performance was delayed a day because of an Oregon State College rule against sports events on Sunday.

The rodeo is sponsored by the Withycombe Club at OSC.

Bowling Scores

High scores in bowling on the Student Union alleys last week were rolled by Bob Taggesell, Phi Delta Theta, with 243; and Joyce Mercado, Carson Hall, with 162. Both these bowlers were awarded ten free lines of bowling.

Each week the highest single game scored by a male and the highest scored by a female will be published in the Emerald and they will receive 10 free lines of bowling.
