

Sale of Apples Starts Tuesday

Gamma Alpha Chi apple sale committee heads were announced Wednesday by Kay Kuckenber, general chairman.

The national women's advertising fraternity will sell apples Tuesday through Thursday in classrooms, houses, and other campus buildings. The apples are priced at one dime each.

House sales chairman is Kathy Littlefield; booths, Marion Galla; publicity and promotion, Sue Finzer; posters, Frances Neel and Bonnie Birkemeier; flying speeches, Harriet Vahey; transportation, Doris Purvine; finance, Jeanne Hoffman and Carolyn Silva; and contact, Gretchen Grefe.

Card Stunt Participators Must Wear White Shirts, Says Brittain

Students participating in the card stunt section at Saturday's Homecoming game will sit in Section O, Bob Brittain, card stunt chairman, stated Thursday.

Participants must be attired in white blouses or shirts or they will not be allowed to sit in the section. In case of rain, students should wear the white blouse or shirt over a jacket.

Brittain stressed that no one is to touch the cards until they have received the go-ahead signal just before the half time of the game. Cards will be placed on the seats before the game.

Instructions Given

Following is a list of points for the participants to remember in order that the card stunts be successful:

Listen closely to the instructions coming over the microphone.

Be sure to read instructions carefully and hold up the correct card.

Cards are to be held at eye level.
