

Professor Gilbert to Make Analysis

James E. Gilbert, professor emeritus of economic and former dean of the College of Liberal Arts, will present an analysis of election issues at the noon meeting of the Chamber of Commerce today at the Eugene Hotel.

State, county, and city measures will be discussed by Gilbert, who has accepted this traditional assignment as a service to the membership of the Chamber.

Candidates for election will also be introduced to the members.

Officials View Plaque

GOV. DOUGLAS McKAY (right) stopped to inspect the main lobby memorial plaque on a visit to the campus. With him is Student Union Director Dick Williams. The plaque dedicates the Union to all students of the University who served in the armed forces of the United States; on it are listed students who died in World War II.

'Sweethearts' Narrow to 12

"Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" contestants were narrowed to twelve Wednesday evening.

Social chairman Mike Moran has announced that the next social event for the sweetheart contest will be a fireside lasting from 7-9 p.m. on November 10.

The five finalists will be announced at the succeeding sere-nade on Saturday.

The twelve semi-finalists are: Mary Fowler, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Lynn Hartley, Delta Gamma; Barbara Keelen, Kappa Alpha Theta; Elizabeth Johnson, Pi Beta Phi; Shirley Boner, Alpha Phi; Shirley Van Derford, Alpha Chi Omega.

Kristin Sickler, Delta Delta Delta; Norma Jeanne Anderson, Hendricks; Gayle Pattee, Chi Omega; Gwen Frey, Gamma Phi Beta; Dorothy Anderle, Carson; and Peggy Dahmen, Highland House.

WESTMINSTER HOUSE

Westminster House will be open tonight for dancing, singing, games, and refreshments after the SU dedication.

Students and alumni are invited to drop in for coffee and doughnuts after the game Saturday.

"Can You Mix Religion With Business?" will be the question for the Sunday night fellowship, with Hart Larsen, owner of Hart Larsen's as guest speaker.

CHRISTIAN HOUSE

This weekend will be open house for all homecoming alumni. Informal games and activities are planned for Friday and Saturday.

"What Do We Believe?" will be discussed by Rev. Paul S. Mellish, pastor of Central Presbyterian Church, as the opening of a new discussion series Sunday. The program will begin with a sing at 5:30 p.m., followed with a worship service led by Alice Aherin.

Maurice Morello will be the speaker at the second in the series of International Teas, to be held from 4 to 5 p.m. Tuesday with the discussion centering around France.

PLYMOUTH CLUB

W. D. Richins, associate professor of business, will speak on the Mormon Church at the Sunday evening service.

Plymouth Club is open every afternoon from 2 to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, for college students. An open house is held every Friday at the club.

Trying to phone into Carson Hall when the freshman women are off study table is like trying to get an A from a college professor. Both take hours of hard work.
