

Frosh Surprise Pups But Lose to Visitors In Last Period 26-21

By Phil Johnson

The hard-fighting University of Oregon Frosh confounded pigskin experts Saturday afternoon as they narrowly missed an upset victory over the Washington Pups, who were forced to come from behind twice in order to salvage a 26-21 triumph over the Ducklings on Hayward Field.

A last-period quarterback sneak by Dean Rocky preserved Washington's second straight undefeated, untied season and provided the 13th consecutive win for Coach Johnny Cherberg's Pups. It was Oregon's second loss in three starts.

Pups Score First

The Washingtonians drove 73 yards in 14 plays to score the first touchdown of the game. Halfback Dick Imer smashed through right tackle and raced 14 yards for the score, which came with six minutes remaining in the opening stanza. Sub Halfback Bob Siegel booted the extra point.

Duckling Left Half Jack Morris set the stage for a retaliatory tally when he returned a Washington punt from the Pup 45 to the 33. Right Half Cece Hodges pulled in an 18-yard aerial from Quarterback Barney Holland and dashed an additional 14 yards to the one-yard line, where he was pushed out of bounds.

Hodges circled left end to score on the following play, and Fullback Howard Hostetler kicked the conversion point to deadlock the count at 7-7.

The Ducklings kicked off and regained pigskin possession two plays later. Hodges intercepted an enemy toss on the Pup 28 and scored his second touchdown nine plays later when he caught another Holland aerial for a gain of nineteen yards and six points. Hostetler again converted, and Coach Bill Bowerman's Yearlings led 14-7.

The Northerners scored six plays later and Siegel converted to tie the score. The Washington drive covered 64 yards with Halfback Jack Naon's 49-yard left tackle thrust accounting for most of the distance. Imer crashed through the line to add the final yard and the touchdown.

Naon Counters

Imer raced 37 yards to the Oregon 40 later in the second quarter to set the spark for the next Washington touchdown explosion. A Rocky to Naon pass provided a first down on the Frosh 28, and Naon skirted left end three plays later from the five to score the Northerners' third touchdown. The inspired Ducklings blocked Siegel's conversion kick.

Oregon regained the lead in the third quarter when Morris zig-zagged 19 yards to the Pup ten. Hostetler smashed to the three, and Morris passed to Right End Pat O'Brien for the touchdown. Hostetler's conversion supplied a 21-20 Duckling margin.

The desperate Pups drove 73 yards in 13 plays midway in the final period to gain their 13th consecutive win, second straight unofficial Northern Division title, and second straight undefeated, untied season.

Urban Back To Practice After Injury

Backboard strength of the Webfoot hoop squad is expected to receive a considerable boost this week when Forward Will Urban returns for regular duty.

A hard worker on the boards for Oregon the past two seasons, he has missed practice while recovering from a broken foot.

Urban appeared at practices this past week but his action was limited to conditioning exercises and light workouts. He expects to work in the regular scrimmage sessions this week as the Webfoots prepare for their 1950 opener December 1 against Utah at Salt Lake City.

Adds to List

His return adds another name to the list of good tall men from which Coach John Warren must pick a working unit. Mel Streeter and Jim Loscutoff have been doing a lot of work at the forward spots but Jim Vranizan, Don Hoy, and Curt Barclay are rated by Warren as very much in the fight. Bob Peterson had topped the bids for a forward berth until temporarily sidelined last week by a sprained ankle.

Chet Noe and Hank Bonnemann have been alternating at center. The latter has shown more improvement lately than has any other member of the squad, according to Warren.

Guards in Units

Four men are leading the guard candidates at the start of the week. Jack Keller and Ken Hunt form one unit, while Mel Krause and John Neeley are paired in the other combination. Art Shepherd is recovering from an ankle injury.

Frosh Coach Don Kirsch has pared his Duckling squad to 30 men and these will continue to scrimmage against the varsity quintet.

Oregon Improved But Huskies Win

Washington's Huskies rolled to another victory Saturday, just as everyone had expected, but in the process suffered a few anxious moments provided by a fired-up Oregon eleven which gave its best performance of the season before bowing 27-12.

The Huskies were fighting to stay in the running for a Rose Bowl bid, but still were unable to subdue the Webfoots until the third quarter. Even then the 20-point underdogs refused to stay down, coming back for a touchdown with just over a minute to play.

Trouble Starts Early

Stung into action by an early Oregon threat, Washington moved 75 yards for the game's first score late in the first period. Roland Kirkby, a Husky standout throughout the game, intercepted one of Hal Dunham's passes in his end zone and ran it out to the 25 to start the march. Fourteen plays later Quarterback Don Heinrich passed from the Oregon 17 to Bill Earley on the 6. Earley went in and Jim Rosenzweig converted to make the score 7-0.

The Ducks bounced back with two unsuccessful scoring bids before cracking pay dirt with a minute left in the half. Earl Stelle, shifted to right half, scored from the 4 to cap a 38 yard drive. End Bob Anderson started it with an interception on his 25, running back to the 48. A penalty put the ball on the 38, and two Dunham passes covered 23 yards to set up the touchdown. Chet Daniels' conversion try was blocked, leaving the halftime score 7-6.

Heinrich, Kirkby, and Hurryin' Hugh McElhenny combined their talents for two third quarter scores which iced the game. Both came on breaks which were neatly turned into scores.

Huskies Add To Lead

The first came after the pesky Kirkby intercepted on the 50. It took 14 plays again, Kirkby going over from the one. The next Husky tally came just five plays after the ensuing kickoff. Bob Carey fumbled on the second play on his 29, Ernie Stein recovering for Washington. Kirkby again scored, this time from the 15.

The Huskies scored their last touchdown on a 71 yard march in the fourth period. A Heinrich to Phil Gillis pass covered 37 of the yards, and Dick Sprague tallied from the 12.

Oregon was still in the game, though, and went 63 yards after a roughing-the-kicker penalty gave them the ball on their own 37. Dunham again engineered the drive, passing 19 to Hal Cuffel and 27 to Jake Williams after a 5 yard penalty to put the leather on the Husky 22. From there he pitched to Tommy Edwards in the end zone for the score. Daniels missed the try for point.

Outstanding for Jim Aiken's crew were Edwards, who caught four passes for 63 yards, and Dunham on offense and Dick Daugherty, Ray Lung, Bob Anderson, and Chuck Missfeldt, on defense.

The Webfoots go back to work this week to prepare for Saturday's game against Colorado at Boulder. After that only Oregon State is left on this year's slate.

Forfeits Mark IM Volleyball

By Clark Smith

Defaults marked Friday's "B" League volleyball games. Delta Tau Delta and Phi Sigma Kappa won the only games played, while Delta Upsilon, Beta Theta Pi, Kappa Sigma, and Phi Kappa Sigma won via the forfeit route.

Sigma Alpha Mu, with only three men playing, extended the Phi Sigs to three games, winning 15-10 and losing 15-5 and 15-0. The Delts had too much power for Nestor Hall, winning easily 15-4 and 15-1.

Cherney, Stan Ray, Merrick, and Phi Kappa Psi defaulted.

Ex-Oregon Star Has Rough Day

Norm Van Brocklin, Oregon all-American passing great of two seasons back, was all but shut out yesterday in his efforts to retain the passing lead in the National Football League. He was able to complete only one pass in eleven tries, but that was for a touchdown as his Los Angeles Ram teammates ground out a 45-14 win over the Green Bay Packers. The win gave the Rams undisputed possession of first place in the NFL National division.

Elsewhere among the pros yesterday, the Chicago Bears knocked the New York Yankees into a second place tie with the Bears as they notched a 28-20 win. Cleveland maintained its lead in the American division with a 34-17 win over San Francisco. The New York Giants dumped the Chicago Cardinals, 51-21, and Philadelphia blanked Washington, 33-0, in other games.

Dons Thump Broncs

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—Swift-footed Ollie Matson raced to two touchdowns to lead the University of San Francisco Dons to a 27 to 6 victory over the University of Santa Clara Broncs in their annual football game today.

A crowd of 13,567 saw the Dons score two touchdowns in the opening quarter and one each in the third and fourth periods to post their first win over Santa Clara since 1937.

IM Schedule

Following is today's men's "A" volleyball schedule:

- 3:50 Court 40—Kappa Sigs vs. Phi Psis
