At Dee Gee. . .

All of the Dee Gee's are justly proud of pledge Lyn Hartley who recently was chosen the Sweet-heart of Sigma Chi.

Three additions to the recently pinned column are Jacque Kurtz to Beta Ray Lung, Kay Wood to Theta Chi Fred Scoggin, and Mary Ijams to Theta Chi Bill Gregg.

The Eugene Alumnae entertained last week for the pledges and Mrs. Joseph Ryan, the new house-mother, at the home of Mrs. William Russel.

Enjoyed by all at the Dee Gee house this year is exchange student Jaka Thordardottir from Iceland. She is the sister-in-law of Hildur, who stayed with them last year.

At University House. . .

Recent engagements include Jo Zimmerman to Jim Wolters of Phi Kappa Psi and Betty Wasson to Earl Hockema of Coquille.

Tubbings and short-sheeted beds were included in the aftermath of an annual party presented by the new members of the house for the old.

The Co-op Alumni Association held their annual homecoming dinner and meeting at University House Saturday night.

Mary Peterson was recently pledged to Phi Beta, music and speech honorary.

At Phi Delt. . .

Junior Representative on the executive council this year is Dave Rodway. Don Peterson was tapped for Friars during the Homecoming dance intermission.

Newly pledged this fall were Thomas Thorpe, Raymond Johnson, James Loscutoff, and Eldon Urbigkeit.

George Rasmussen, ex-Duck pole-vaulter, has been competing in Africa this fall with an American all-star track team. He plans to return to school this winter.

Initiated on Oct. 15 were David Alexander, Bill Landers, Daryle Nelson, and Thomas Paulus.

Leaving soon for the service is Bill Moore who recently passed his Navy physical.

At Z T A. . .

Two engagements announced at the Zeta House were those of Dorothy Smeed to Dick Cramer and Bee Jae Meade to Bob Jones.

At Phi Kap. . .

Oregon Phi Kaps had the opportunity to meet Phi Kap Arthur Langlie, governor of Washington, during their stay at the "Skull House" chapter in Seattle this weekend.

The Phi Kap football team rolled over the TKE's 9-0 last week to win the annual Teke-Phi Kap football trophy.

At Theta Chi. . .

Hal Simmons has a new nickname around the house. It seems the first-string defensive tackle was told by his draft board his feet couldn't stand the rigors of army life, and hence, the nickname 4-F was initiated.

New pledges include: Cy Newman, ex-Vanport "Joe College," and Cliff Tyler, also from Vanport.

At S A M. . .

A wonderful weekend was had by all of the Sammies who traveled to their Washington chapter for the recent football game. Highlight of the weekend was the chapter dance held at the New Washington Hotel.

Ken Goodman pinned Joan Hirsch of Carson Hall.

Bob Rubenstein is the new secretary of Alpha Delta Sigma, national advertising honorary.
