

Dream Girl

Although the dance is being held in McArthur Court, Pi Kappa Alpha president Art Englebart informed the Emerald that the affair will be the fraternity's regular house dance.

The engagement of the Brubeck Trio, added Englebart, was the reason Pi Kappa Alpha requested permission to hold their Dream Girl dance in the larger quarters. Originally, Pi Kappa Alpha had requested use of the Student Union Ballroom, which was found to be already engaged for Saturday night.

The Brubeck Trio, said Englebart, will play for the Dream Girl dance, while on a concert tour of the Northwest.

YMCA to Tutor Foreign Students For Final Exams

Any foreign student who is in need of special help in any subject in preparation for final examinations may call the YMCA office, extension 429, or come to the YMCA Office, Room 318, SU.

According to Wah Chun, chairman of the YMCA International Affairs Committee, this is a new service which it is hoped will be of help to students from other countries who may be having difficulty with a subject. As soon as the specific need is made known to them, the committee will find qualified tutors in the desired subjects.

Any upperclass or graduate student who would like to help in this service to foreign students may call the YMCA.
